THE LIBERTY LOAN

Large Committee at Work to Make a Successful Canvas of the City

Newton proposes to lead the state in proportion to its size, in subscriptions to the Liberty Loan. It is realized that many of its citizens will subscribe through Boston banking houses but it is hoped that a record of such subscriptions may be obtained so that this city will get credit for what it really does.

To assist the people of Newton in doing what they will all want to do to help the government raise the two billions necessary, the Liberty Loan Committee of Newton has appointed a chairman for each village, who shall have charge of the work there. These chairmen are as follows:

Newton—Sydney Harwood and Chas. E. Riley.

Newtonville—Fred M. Blanchard and H. J. Nichols.

West Newton—Wm. F. Chase.

Abundant—Dr. Guy M. Winslow.

Newton Lower Falls—Bernard Early.

Newton Upper Falls—Frank J. Hale.

Waban—Lawrence W. Allen.

Newton Highlands—Frank L. Richardson.

Newton Centre—Henry H. Kendall.

Chestnut Hill—W. L. Allen.

The committee's executive committee consists of these gentlemen, with the Hon. Seward W. Jones as chairman.

In general the plan of campaign is a house to house canvas of the several villages. In some of them this is already well organized and in the others it will be as soon as possible.

Waban, in its usual hustling spirit already has its canvassers in line and the work began today with its morning drill and every house will be visited by two canvassers.

In West Newton, the district has been divided into nine sections, one of which has been assigned to each of the following: Herbert M. Cole, William T. Glidden Jr., John A. Paine, Carl E. Pickhardt, Jas. A. Hutchinson, Arthur C. Dunmore, Jos. B. Ross, R. F. Gammons 2nd, Wm. F. Chase, F. J. Burroughs and Henry Whitmore. These subcommittees will probably be enlarged for the actual work of canvassing. Cards have been sent out to all houses in West Newton notifying people to expect the canvasser.

When the canvasser calls.

The Newton Liberty Loan Committee respectfully asks that the people of this city assist the gentlemen who are making the canvas of the city for subscriptions in every possible way.

Do not regard the call as a piece of impertinence, for these men are putting in a very large amount of time and hard work purely as a matter of patriotic duty. There is nothing in it for them except labor and the people generally can show their appreciation of their efforts and make the work of the canvassers a pleasure by receiving them cordially and giving their subscriptions readily or if bonds have been bought already giving that information cheerfully. What under some circumstances might be an embarrassment can be made pleasant for all by a little cooperation.

The Part of the banks.

The United States Government thru the Federal Reserve Board is using the banks for the handling of this loan. The banks are responding nobly.

giving their entire facilities and spending their own good money for advertising the loan. The cost to the banks and bankers of the country will be enormous and the Newton Banks are doing their full share. All this work is without profit to themselves; do not forget that.

This is the service the Newton Banks are rendering the country and the citizens in this great enterprise. They will receive subscriptions to the loan.

They will take care of the bonds in their own vaults for purchasers as long as they wish them to do so without any expense to the owner of the bond.

They will assist people to buy the bonds, if the money to pay for them is not on hand, in the following manner: taking a $50 bond as an example:—

The purchaser pays $1 at the time of subscription (which must be before June 15 and should be at once) and then $2 for the week ending June 30 and thereafter $2 each week through Dec. 8 and $1 in the week ending Dec. 15. At that time the bond will be delivered to the buyer without the first coupon. This will be retained by the bank in lieu of interest, none being charged the buyer. Therefore the bond will have cost just $50, without interest being paid or received by him during the time the transaction is being completed.

Other Local Efforts

The local merchants, through the Newton Board of Trade, are powerfully assisting the loan committee. For instance, they are distributing with their bills, slips advertising the loan. They are paying out of their own advertising funds for newspaper advertising in connection with their own advertising. They are placarding their show windows. And they are subscribing themselves to the bonds.

The clergymen of the city are aiding materially by appeals from their pulpits to subscribe to the bonds.

The labor unions are opening their lodge meetings to speakers on this subject.

Employers of labor are urging and assisting their employees to buy the bonds.

Organizations of all kinds are working and not least those of the women. The Newton newspapers are generous of their space, which represents money, in placing this matter before their readers.

The results up to YOU

All this is a fine example of patriotism and civic endeavor. But after all it is results that count. The bonds must be bought or the whole thing is a failure. It is up to every man, woman and child, who has, or better who can save, the money to have at least one bond. Do not save your conscience by buying a $50 one if you can take $100 or $500 or a thousand. But take something. Don't be a slacker. The armies and the navies of America can't fight our battles unless the people furnish the money. The starving of Belgium and France must die if we do not help. The Allies, fighting for us as well as for themselves, must be fed, clothed and supplied with material. This means money. YOU can fight for your country, for liberty for all mankind, with your dollars. Do your most and do it NOW.

BOY SCOUTS

Annual Rally and Field Day Interest Many at Clafin Field

The Rally and Field Day of the Boy Scouts of District 8 of Greater Boston was held on Clafin Field, Newtonville, on Saturday afternoon, and the grand-stand was filled with admiring relatives and friends of the 360 lads who answered the call.

Fourteen troops were present, 11 from Newton, 2 from Needham, and 1 from Wellesley. Mr. James C. Irwin the district scoutmaster was in charge and the individual troops were under command of a scoutmaster and assistants.

The orders of the Day included reports from the various scoutmasters and was followed by the sounding of the call for the colors and the reception of the colors. The troops then formed for inspection by President John H. Eddy of the District Eight, Mayor Edwin O. Childs, President Charles C. Jackson of the Greater Boston Council, O. E. Loomis, Scout Commissioner, and a committee consisting of General James G. White, Aldermen Reuben Forknall and John W. Murphy, and Mr. E. C. Adams of the Classical High School. After inspection the troops marched in review before His Honor, the Mayor.

The line then reformed and the scout oath was repeated in unison, followed by a display of the colors, and the pledge to the flag, and the return of the colors. The boys then arranged themselves for the various exhibitions and sports which were on the program.

Interesting exhibitions were given of pyramid building, bandaging, and litter work, and the rapidly with which a trek cart could be turned into a dining table with benches and back again. The bugle and drum corps under the impressive leadership of Drum Major Perry gave a most creditable exhibition of its skill, the work of the bass drummers being quite spectacular.

The various sports aroused a great deal of interest and enthusiasm. The first was an antelope race in which teams of eight boys were entered from nearly every troop. Each boy took hold of the trousers band of the one in front of him, and the race was won by the team which could run the required distance without breaking away or falling down. Troop 1 was first and troop 4 second in this event.

The pony express was not "the same" as has been noted in the newspapers of late, but consisted of stated teams of boys, who carried one of their number by relays from one end of the field to the other. Troop 4 won this race with troop 10 second.

The leap frog race also by teams and the rapidly with which the field could be cleared of the contestants was remarkable. Troop 1 won this race with troop 4 second.

Brilliant Affair Held at Newtonville by Newton Federation of Women

An advance agent of the "rare day in June" of which the poets have sung, dawned yesterday morning and smiling with approval upon the efforts of the Newton Federation and added to the months of preparation the one thing needful to make the Patriotic Fete a complete success.

Busy hands swiftly converted the Clafin Field into an ideal pageant ground with a stage roped off in the center. From flag staffs at the corners floated the stars and stripes and red, white and blue were everywhere conspicuous. At one end of the field were the refreshment tables, and at the other patient ponies and a long suffering donkey filled eager children with delight. The stately trees with their tender foliage—all that remains to suggest the beauty of the old Clafin estate—formed a fitting background to the festive scene. Promptly at two-thirty the girls' chorus and the orchestra from the West Newton Music School filed to their places and opened the pageant appropriately with the singing of "America," followed by "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "The Star Spangled Banner" in which the assembled multitude joined.

The other numbers followed in quick succession with little or no delay, so that the whole program was put through in even shorter time than had been scheduled. The Girl Scouts in their Drill March made a fine showing for their first public appearance. The group of pupils from the Stearns School came next singing National airs. Then came the Boy Scouts with demonstrations of firemaking without matches, of the trek cart and flag and whistle signalling. Fifty children from the Bowen School at Thompsonville, conveyed thither through the generosity of various owners of automobiles, rendered creditably folk dances, Grade I giving Greeting and Meeting, Skip Two Mamou, and Dance of Greeting; Grade II, Come Little Partner, I see you, Kinder Polka; Grade III and IV, Tassy, a Welch man, Swiss Dance, Carrousel; Grade V and VI, Swedish Schottische, Crust-Hen, Normandische, Klat Dans. Then came the Camp Fire Girls in costume, with their Wholo Call, and song, Burn Fire Burn, and their demonstrations of camping, tent raising, picnicking, housekeeping, surgical dressing, garbaging, flag raising, and motion song, Mammy Moon. Two interpretative dances, Kreisler's "Liebesreue" and Chaminade's "Pas des Amphores," by Miss Frances Varney were very graceful and effective.

The Horse and Rider and Barrel Tilted contests by the Boy Scouts called forth much amusement, while the Bandaging and Scout Litter demonstrations showed still another phase of their training. A May Pole Dance by girls from Abundant under (Continued on Page 8.)

ANNUAL RECEPTION

Newton Home for Aged People Will Receive Guests on Wednesday

The annual reception of that splendid philanthropy, the New Stone Institute and Newton Home for Aged People of Elliot street, Newton Upper Falls will take place next Wednesday afternoon from two to five o'clock, and everyone interested in this excellent work is cordially invited to attend. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, the proceeds to be given to the ladies of the Home, and light refreshments will be served.

The Home is doing a great work in caring for the aged and helpless, and appeals to the heart strings of every man and woman who has ever realized the distress and despair of those who have done their work in the world and have no place to lay their heads.

The Home has just completed the first addition, the east wing of what is hoped to be at some future time, of an adequate and commodious building, greatly increasing the accommodations as well as the comforts of its inmates.

The building will be open for inspection at the reception and the officers and directors will gladly give all the information which may be desired.

The Needham line of electric cars pass the door.

Mr. Charles E. Riley is president, Mr. Joseph Byers, vice president, Mr. Albert P. Carter, treasurer, Mr. Henry Baily, clerk, Mrs. Anna E. Hale, matron, and the directors include Lewis H. MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Unprecedented Interest in the G. A. R. Exercises and Appearance of the Newton Constabulary

Memorial Day of 1917 will long be remembered for the splendid exhibition of patriotism and the deep feeling of our people for the nation and the part it is taking in the great world struggle of the times.

Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., with its rapidly depleting ranks held the place of honor, as usual, but the splendid appearance of the Newton Constabulary, as the Home Guard is officially known, was the principal feature of the usual parade. Company C, 5th Regiment, with nearly war time strength and the numerous troops of Boy Scouts, also met with hearty approval, and all in all, it was the best Memorial Day observance for many years.

The morning was taken up as usual with details of Post members visiting the graves of their comrades in the cemeteries of the city and by the impressive exercises at St. Mary's Church yard, Newton Lower Falls, at which Rev. W. F. Preston of the Park Memorial Church was the speaker. This was followed by the beautiful ceremony of casting flowers on the waters of the nearby Charles river, in memory of the sailor dead.

The members of Charles Ward Post, the Flag Marshal, Mayor Childs and his official staff were the guests of the Newton Highlands Improvement Society at luncheon at noon, served in Lincoln Hall, and their hospitality was unbounded.

Following lunch, the parade was formed in the vicinity of the Hyde school, and preliminary to marching to the Newton Cemetery, some interesting exercises were held from a platform erected on Lincoln street in front of the school house.

President Howard Whitmore of the Improvement Society gave a brief address and introduced Mayor Childs, who spoke on the significance of the day and the need of the hour. The school children, under the direction of Principal C. D. Miller, sang the "Star Spangled Banner," gave the pledge to the flag, repeated the Civic Creed and sang "America."

The procession then reformed and marched thru Lincoln and Walnut streets to the Newton Cemetery, where the largest crowd for many years witnessed the usual exercises around the Soldiers Monument.

Commander S. F. Chase of Charles Ward Post was in charge and received reports from the various parts of the Cemetery, while a firing squad from Company C gave three volleys at the conclusion of the exercises. The markers at the monument were Mrs. Gertrude Gass, Mrs. Elsa Malloy, Mrs. Edward N. Soulls and Miss Frances Cahill.

The line then reformed and marched thru Walnut street to Post headquarters at Temple Hall, Newtonville, being reviewed by Mayor Childs and staff opposite the Newton Club.

The Post had 44 men who marched and 19 who followed in automobiles. The Newton Constabulary had nearly 600 officers and men in line under command of General James G. White, the Chief, Col. Morton E. Cobb, deputy chief, Adjutant Arthur R. Nagle, Judge Advocate E. B. Bishop, Quartermaster J. Dwight Howard, Ordnance Officer, Homer L. Bigelow, Aide, Augustus T. Beatty and Surgeon Francis George Curtis, M. D.

The captains and number of men in line of each company, were as follows:

1. Newtonville, Capt. W. N. Dudley, 90 men; 2. Waban, Capt. James R. Chandler, 105 men; 3. Newton Centre, Capt. Robert F. Hayden, 90 men; 4. Newton Highlands, Capt. Philip R. Brown, 115 men; 5. West Newton, Capt. Clinton L. Eddy, 35 men; 6. Abundant, Capt. Lowell D. MacNutt, 71 men; 7. Newton, Capt. E. O. Gruener, 30 men.

The drum corps which was organized at very short notice by Col. Cobb, had 24 drummers and rendered very creditable work.

The annual banquet of the Post 62 was held at five o'clock in Temple hall. Commander Stephen F. Chase acted as toastmaster, after an elaborate menu had been discussed by the Post and their guests.

Commander Chase welcomed his guests and extended the congratulations of the Post for the services which had been rendered during the day.

Mayor Childs was the first speaker and was given three hearty cheers. He said in part: On this Memorial Day we look backward and forward, backward to a fearful struggle between brothers, and forward to a greater struggle between nations. Slavery was not the immediate issue of the Civil War, for only one eighth of the South owned slaves. The great issue of that war was on account of the Union. In 1861 there was no such spirit of national unity as exists today. There were two ideals of life and two conceptions of state and a conflict was inevitable, for it was a conflict between feudalism and democracy, and there was no appeal except to a court of war. But out of sorrow sunshine springs, and that war welded this nation into a union never to be broken. So today, in Europe, there is a conflict of ideas and civilizations, which will ultimately bring all the nations of the world closer together, and autocracy and aristocracy will give way to democracy. The United States has a great mission and each of us has a task to perform. Let us show the world that we can work together and create and

In the multiplicity of calls upon us for contributions to many worthy charities, we should not forget our obligations to those philanthropies which we have encouraged for many years. The need of the aged and helpless is fully equal to the need of the children and of the maimed and wounded, and we cannot neglect such institutions as the Newton Home for Aged People and our Newton Hospital, no matter what calls for help there may be from other sources.

The Liberty Loan bonds ought to be purchased by men, women and children who have not hitherto been made to see the value of systematic saving. Cut down your cigar or candy or moving picture expenditures enough to allow you to put at least $2.50 a week for twenty weeks into the purchase of a bond which will yield you an annual income of 3 1/2 per cent. It will be a valuable experience as well as a patriotic duty.

The action of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company in announcing an increase in rates of fare has been anticipated since the recent increase in wages was decided by the arbitration board. It is certain that strong protests will be made to the Public Service Commission in regard to the proposed increase and that the approval of that body to the increase will not be obtained except after a vigorous fight.

The fine appearance made by the members of the Home Guard, or Newton Constabulary at the Memorial Day parade has aroused great interest in the work of that body. The high type of men who are engaged in this task is noticeable and the intelligent manner in which they performed their duty aroused considerable favorable comment.

The Boy Scout movement deserves the sympathy and support of every citizen. The rally and field day last Saturday should have been witnessed by every one interested in the future of our country. The district officers may well be proud of the showing made by the boys under their charge.

The merchants of Nonantum square have shown the rest of the city what can be done in the way of flag raisings and their success ought to spur other villages to similar action.

VANDALISM AT CEMETERY

Forest Commissioner W. W. Colton reports that in the past few days serious acts of vandalism have been perpetrated in the old Centre street Cemetery between Newton and Newton Centre. Twenty-seven monuments and head stones have been knocked down or broken and several iron fences around individual lots have been smashed. The work was not done by children for considerable force was used on many of the monuments.

FLAG RAISING

Prominent Speakers Hold Audience in Nonantum Square in Spite of Rain

The great interest taken this year in patriotic affairs was strikingly manifested last Sunday afternoon at Nonantum square, when thousands of citizens stood for an hour in the heavy rain and participated in the exercises of raising the flag which had been donated by the merchants of the village. The flag raising was preceded by a parade which started at Farlow park and marched under the direction of Capt. E. O. Gruener thru Eldredge, Franklin, Centre, Church, Washington, Park, Elmwood, and Centre streets to Nonantum square where a large stand had been erected for the speakers and guests.

Alderman Henry L. Harriman presided and the speakers were Mayor Childs, Hon. Samuel L. Powes, and Ex-Governor David I. Walsh. At the conclusion of Mayor Childs' address the large flag which is 12 feet by 21 feet was unfurled by the Misses Edith M. Boothby and Mildred L. Cotton, daughters of two of the firemen who were instrumental in raising the fund for the flag. As the beautiful "stars and stripes" unfurled a multitude of small flags which had been placed within its folds were waved down upon the assembled throng.

The flag which is 12x21 feet was hung across Centre street at the post-office.

Alderman Harriman

At last our country has come into the conflict after great patience, after great deliberation, and because it is the only right and just thing that we should do. It is difficult to realize that the army of Louis the 14th is less than the number of prisoners taken by the Italians from Austria in a week. Under Napoleon, the nations first came into arms; war became a matter of every man, woman, and child in the country, and for every man it is necessary to have six women in trade and industry, making munitions for use on the battle line. The duty lies not only with the people who are going to the front, but it lies with us who are staying at home. Before unfurling the flag and before introducing the first speaker, I wish to express on behalf of the citizens of Newton our appreciation of the splendid work which has been done by the firemen of this district in raising the money for this flag. I wish to thank Mr. Moore and his committee and all of you who have contributed toward this affair.

Mayor Childs

I want first of all to congratulate the men of this section of our city for their patriotism and generosity which makes these exercises possible and I want to thank all of you who have braved this storm today to come here and by your presence help to make their efforts a success. This is Memorial Day Sunday; it is our great national Sabbath. It is a day we face this year with profound thoughtfulness and solicitude. It is a day which belongs usually to the Grand Army of the Republic and I am very glad to welcome here today some of those men, members of Post 62, men who 50 years ago in our great national crisis vindicated their ideals and showed the world the sort of material of which humanity is made. I am glad to welcome with them their sons and their daughters. It is a pleasure also to see here some who rallied to the colors in 1898 and to see more who last year went to the border and today stand ready for service on foreign soil. We are glad to have with us too the members of some of the fraternal organizations of this section of the city, men who stand for charity, for justice, for unity, for brotherly love, for truth, and for friendship, men who are striving to make their fellows better and who are trying to make this world a better place. I think it is a pretty fair old world after all, and yet I think that we will all admit that the old world needs a little more love and a little more loyalty, and the men of these fraternal organizations are striving to supply some of those qualities. I am sure I speak what is in your hearts as well as what is in my own to say that we are honored today by the presence of two distinguished men; one, no stranger to this city, a man who has held the highest office in this Commonwealth, and the other, one of our own number, who has honored us in the council of the nation. We have met here today to unfurl this flag, in this business section, the flag of our country, and I am glad that we meet to do it on the Sabbath day. I have a very strong feeling that the man who learns the lessons of religion can better understand the principles which are embodied in this flag, because I know that the man who is true to the symbol of religion will be true to the emblem of his country. It is a banner of truth and equality. It proclaims the equality of all men before the law. It assures the right to each one of us to make the most of our life. When we stand under this flag, we cannot stand as democrats or republicans or prohibitionists, we cannot stand as Catholics or Protestants or Jews, we cannot stand as rich men or poor, but we stand as Americans, as brothers sharing the responsibilities of citizenship in the greatest government on the face of the earth. As we gaze upon this flag, as we gaze upon it from office or from store or from shop, may it ever stimulate each one of us to the performance of our full duty.

Hon. Samuel L. Powes

This is the flag under which the veterans fought in 1861; it is the same flag which our boys carried in the war with Spain; that was with Dewey and in Cuba; it is the same flag which today floats in the little contingent on the soil of Northern France in the war that is about to commence between this country and the great war power of Europe. That flag, my friends, has never tasted defeat, because back of that flag are the principles of equal rights of humanity and back of that flag stands 100 million people who believe in humanity and who believe in equal rights. It is a great country in which we live. That flag represents this country, and this country represents not war but the arts of peace; that whenever we are called upon to defend the rights of our citizens we will march under the stars and stripes for the defence of those rights. Wherever that flag floats back of it stands the American people. We are going to show to the world the genius of the American people in turning from the arts of peace to the arts of war. My mind goes back to the day in 1861 when I heard the bugle calling the men to arms as it calls them to arms today and I remember when those boys went out, I remember when they returned, I remember when that army, hardened by service in the field, turned their faces northward after the war and melted away into the mass of the people. The stars and stripes. They stand for the genius of the people, and whatever may come, that flag will stand for all that is best in the character of the American people.

Ex-Gov. Walsh

This is a remarkable demonstration. We would not be so impressed if on a bright, sunny day, thousands of the people of this city came out to witness the unfurling of the flag; but on such a day as this to see such numbers assembled, the pledge of affection and their loyalty to the flag of their country, is indeed most impressive, and I congratulate the committee and the people of this city upon the splendid example of patriotism which they give today to the Commonwealth and to the country. When we came together on other occasions to unfurl the flag, we came for the purpose of showing our real affection and our obedience to the law and the government which the flag represents, but today we come for a different purpose. We come for the purpose of pledging devotion and sacrifice to the flag of our country because our country today is facing one of the greatest crises in the history of our land, indeed in the history of the world. Into the most dreadful war of all history we have entered, a war which has caused a greater loss of human life than any since Christ came, which has caused more poverty, more suffering, more heartaches, than all the wars put together. Into this war we have come, reluctant, not wishing it, not expecting it, but forced by circumstances, forced by the fact that we must represent to the world that the principles which the flag stands for shall not be insulted, shall not be dishonored, shall not be restricted on any land or sea the world over. And so, if I read aright your hearts, you have come here as humble children of your great government in the presence of your flag, and you by your presence say to your mayor, your governor, your president, to your government itself, "What can I do to serve you, how can I help you, what do you ask of me? Money? Every burden that taxation may impose upon me, willingly and gladly will I give it; restrictions and limitations of my pleasures?—yes, cheerfully and gladly, that too; sacrifice, suffering, hardships?—yes, all of them; pain and anxiety, death itself—all of us here pledge these sacrifices." You stand for the principles and for the policies which the American flag represents to humanity the world over. When these veterans as young men in '61 went forth to fight for their country, they went forth cheerfully and gladly to fight for the preservation of the union, for the holding together of the United States of America, and for the freedom of the black man, to have the principle once for all established by this war that no matter what a man's color was, no matter what his race was, he was entitled to enjoy equal rights, equal privileges. The call that has come to us is of a different nature. I saw a picture the other day of a young American dressed in his new uniform and with his gun at his side, but there was an expression on his face that seemed to carry him into a far distant land. There was not the cheerful, willing, ready action of the soldiers of by-gone days because, my friends, this war means that our boys must go into an atmosphere where no news can come to their loved ones of the dangers, and of the trials, yet upon the face of this young American soldier was confidence, determination to do his duty. And every one of us must follow the example of our young men who are pledged to their country and who not only are to sacrifice their lives but go across into foreign lands, among people speaking a different language, different climate, different surroundings, and there, they must see that they bring home to us victory, because, my friends, we cannot win, must not, we will not, fail, for failure means the substitution of the government of the old world for the government which that flag stands for. Equality of opportunity, equality of privilege is what America stands for, and the qualities involve equality of sacrifice, and if these boys, our young manhood, are willing to sacrifice themselves, what should not every American man, woman and child who remains at home be willing to sacrifice? If these young men are willing to encounter the hardships and the diseases and the sacrifices involved in the most cruel and deadly war in all history, why should we not encounter them? All we have. We must remember every day in this conflict that we must see that the progress man has made here in establishing free institutions shall not recede, and failure means all of that. Failure means destruction, the end of the progress of man in establishing free and independent governments in this world. Tyranny, oppression, deceit, anarchy, autocracy, are the forces we are fighting against; truth, justice, equality, honor, decency, are on our side. And, my friends, we can go away from this splendid meeting today each one of us determined that we will do our part cheerfully and gladly and willingly, that we will do it after this fight is over that in our day and generation we preserve all that the flag stands for, and when our work is over and victory has come home to us—because it must be victory, there can be no other answer, all must be sacrificed for victory must come—we will have the supreme joy that as future generations come to us, they will look upon our day and say we faltered, say we hesitated, say we set back the march of progress and civilization, and they will bless our memory that we held together all the principles that the American flag stands for and that we handed over to our children's children the greatest government that God ever decreed, broadened and enlarged and expanded because of the new courage, new virtues, new inspiration that comes from sacrifice, as it will come to us. So I bring you my congratulations and my best wishes, and I know that you have answered today here in Newton the call of your country. Newton is loyal from its Mayor to its humblest citizen. Every man, woman and child who has stood here looking up at his flag, has said, "My country, what will you have of me? Here, we are all of us standing, watching, waiting to serve you." The reward in the end will compensate for all, for we will once more unfurl to the breeze that flag, and though it may have been torn, or burned in the hot fire of war in far distant lands, its virtues, its principles, its hopes, its liberty, its blessing, have been secured by humanity and once more America shall be a beacon light to all the oppressed of the world, more we will go forward marching onward, advancing, uplifting humanity, and scattering blessings unmeasured in the way of happiness, success, and prosperity to all who believe in free institutions and to all who look to joy, liberty, and the blessings of the American Flag.

The merchants are to be congratulated upon the splendid appearance of their stores and offices, nearly every place of business displaying flags, the national colors and other decorations. The affair was in charge of a committee consisting of Harold Moore, Chairman; Burt M. Rich, Treasurer; G. A. Aston, J. J. Delaney, C. E.

Josselyn, Walter E. Mars, Walter L. McCammon, Ellis E. Moore, Charles K. Pierce, E. E. Snyder, Capt. Benj. F. Tripp.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS

Editor of the Graphic: I believe the thanks of all Newton citizens, and especially residents of Wards 1 and 7, are due to the Newton Corner business men's committee which arranged the splendid program for the flag-raising Sunday afternoon. Despite the unfavorable weather conditions everything proceeded as planned and the event proved unusually successful. I should like to express my thanks to the committee, and particularly Mr. Harold Moore, its chairman, for their untiring efforts in behalf of the people of our patriotic city.

Citizen.

CITY OF NEWTON MASSACHUSETTS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for building about 825 lineal feet of vitrified pipe sewer in Boylston St., between Florence St. and Dudley Road in Newton, Mass., will be received at the office of the Street Commissioner, City Hall, West Newton, Mass., until 10 A. M., Friday, June 2nd, 1917.

All proposals must be upon blank forms furnished by said commissioner, and must be accompanied by a certified check on a national bank or trust company in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the sum of $500, payable to and to become the property of the city of Newton if the proposal which it accompanies is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the proposal.

A sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the contract in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars will be required.

Specifications and forms of contract can be obtained at the office of said commissioner.

Said commissioner reserves the right to reject either, any or all proposals or to accept any proposal, and to award the contract as he may deem to be for the best interests of the city of Newton, and any contract made will be made subject to appropriations and grants to meet payments thereunder.

GEORGE E. STUART,
Street Commissioner.

Frost

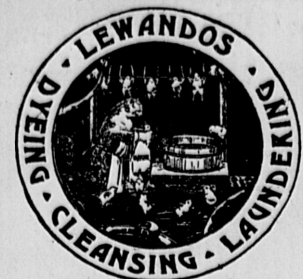

Jack Frost cuts deep into the poorly painted house. Each cold snap freezes the moisture in the boards and cracks the wood just as freezing bursts bottles of water.

Keep out the moisture with weather-proof paint made of Dutch Boy White-Lead thinned with pure linseed oil. That will defeat Jack Frost. It will add fresh beauty, long remain smooth, non-cracking and weather-proof.

We have all paint materials for big or little jobs. And friendly advice, too. Call, phone, or write us.

A GOOD IDEA

"Only one egg please, and cut out the coffee. Hot water is a splendid substitute." This was Dr. Anna Howard Shaw's breakfast order when in Pittsburg. Dr. Shaw is honorary president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association and explains her simple menu by saying "It is a woman's part to conserve the food supply. It is one way for her to do her 'bit' in the great war."
Other suffragists are loyally eliminating desserts and unnecessarily expensive foods. A simple diet may be nutritious and just as palatable as a costly one. Not a side issue but a real participating force in government is the ideal of woman suffragists.
Our war may yet be won by their unselfish assistance.

The Maxwell Is Mechanically Right We Waited Four Years To Say That

The makers of the Maxwell spent four years in developing the car. Patient, persistent, scientific refinement of one model—that was the method. An automobile that beats the world for endurance, efficiency, economy—that's the result.

You know the old story about the race between the hare and the tortoise:

—how the hare skipped about the fields—nibbled clover tops—cut all kinds of capers, trying to "show off"; —how the tortoise stuck to his job—stayed in the middle of the road—kept on going—and won the race;
—you know that story and its moral.

No Experiment in Maxwell Mechanism

Some automobile makers have run around after novelties —like the hare, trying to add untried "improvements" which operate better in advertising than on the car.

But the Maxwell makers held fast to one model, —and when some one made a big how-do about his latest novelty, the Maxwell makers strengthened a pin, —or simplified or improved a part of the Maxwell mechanism.

—or in other big and little ways developed, refined, perfected the one Maxwell model.

So that, in the end, the Maxwell won by the tortoise method.

The Maxwell World Endurance Champion

A Maxwell stock car—a duplicate in every detail of your Maxwell—without stopping the motor, traveled 22,022 miles in 44 days and nights, —and at a rate of 25 miles an hour and 22 miles per gallon of gasoline.

No other vehicle built by human beings ever did anything to compare with that feat.

The Economy Champion Too

P. D. Armour used to say that his packing houses "utilized all the hog but the squeal."
That's the kind of economy you get in a Maxwell.

Roadster, $650; Touring Car, $665; Cabriolet, $885; Town Car, $915; Sedan, $985; completely equipped, including electric starter and lights. All prices f. o. b. Detroit.

Mrs. Miriam Thayer Seeley, Professor at the Oregon Agricultural College, drove her Maxwell for 9,700 miles across the continent and back.

—over every conceivable kind of road, across the desert and over mountains.

—for $8.19 a month, including gasoline, oil and repairs.

Thousands of Maxwell owners get hard daily service out of their cars at a cost of $6 to $8 a month.

That's pretty near what the college professors call "an irre-ducible minimum."

The Maxwell's Great Vital Organs

There's the frame—combining greatest strength with greatest flexibility.

There's the wonderful radiator, that does its work of cooling at any speed and all the time.

There's the world champion engine—rugged, simple, with power to spare.

There's the great wear-proof clutch, running in oil—the most efficient we know of—bar none.

There's the transmission—simple, trouble-proof—self-lubricating.

And, besides, the Maxwell is a handsome, comfortable, completely equipped car.

The Maxwell Is the Car You Want

The Maxwell at $665 f. o. b. Detroit indeed is every man's car.

All we ask is a chance to show you the Maxwell.

The car will prove every statement we've made.

The Maxwell is mechanically right

GOLDEN WEDDING

An interesting event of last week was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Perry of Walnut street, Newtonville, which took place on May 22nd. A large number of friends were present from Newton Centre, Newton Highlands, and Brookline, and among the many gifts was a golden vase from neighbors and friends. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. A. E. Allen a former resident of Newtonville, and the artistic bride's cake was made by Miss Helen Brant. Miss Ethel Greenwood read a poem and graceful and appropriate speeches were made by Dr. J. F. Brant and Mr. Percy M. Blake.

4 times the saving

The Diamond, cash, saving in buying one Diamond Tire is evident.

Add to that the longer and better service of the money.

Naturally, four Diamonds multiply the saving and service for you by four.

Massive production—great manufacturing economies—standard lettering of product—low selling cost—these combine to your benefit.

You may need but one tire now. Get a Diamond Squeezee Tread. Keep on until you are driving on four Diamonds—and saving on each.

Every Diamond Tire must deliver full value in service. If ever a Diamond Tire fails, a cheerful, willing adjustment will be promptly made.

MR. SIMPSON SELECTED

Mr. John R. Simpson of this city has accepted the appointment as purchasing agent for the United States government, with the rank of major in the army and leaves at once to take up his new duties at Washington.

Mr. Simpson will have charge of the purchase of all the equipment for the infantry and cavalry service, for which the appropriation is $132,000,000. Mr. Simpson is a vice-president of the Filene Co. of Boston, and his acceptance of the new appointment means a great sacrifice of money and comfort to him personally.

BOY KILLED

Luigi Machoni, aged 7 years, was killed by the New Haven train Wednesday evening while attempting to cross the railroad bridge over the Charles river at Newton Upper Falls in front of the locomotive. He was not seen by the engineer until too late to stop the train and the boy was thrown against one of the stone abutments and then fell into the river. The body was later found some 200 feet below the bridge and taken to the morgue.

COLOR COMBINATIONS

Miss Caroline is having an exhibition of millinery in which she is demonstrating the use of color. Her color schemes are wonderful and the ease with which she changes a hat from one color to another to make it a perfect concord with your gowns is as fascinating as it is satisfactory.

She is also holding a sale of this artistic millinery; no two hats alike and the prices have been reduced to five and six dollars which were formerly ten to twenty dollars.

You are invited to both sale and exhibition at her shop, 450 Boylston street, in the block of the Brunswick Hotel, Boston.

OUR SYSTEM OF DRY, COLD Storage of Furs

Excels all others because the air at a very low temperature is kept in constant circulation—very beneficial to furs.

From article on Furs in Encyclopaedia Britannica Preservation of Furs

"Furs kept in cold storage are not only immune from the ravages of the larvae of the moth, but all the natural oils of the pelt and fur are conserved, so that its color and life are prolonged, and the natural deterioration is arrested."

BARN DANCE FROLIC

The most amusing event of the week was the Barn Dance Frollic on Monday evening in Mr. James E. Clark's barn on Claremont street, which was given for the benefit of Miss Spear's Newton Vacation Week, and the Young People's Forum.

The program was under the direction of Miss Mildred Clark, president of the Young People's Christian Association of Eliot Church, and was replete with entertaining features.

A hurdy-gurdy was in attendance and furnished delightful music for the games and dancing. The games included "Stop the Leader," "Couple tag," and "Going into Jerusalem," and others which afforded great fun for the young people. Strings were arranged with 24 knots, and about a dozen couples held on to the strings, and the ones who were successful in untying the knots first, were given prizes.

BRAE BURN CLUB

The Massachusetts Doubles Patriotic Tournament at Brae Burn on Memorial Day attracted a large crowd and the entrance fee was for the benefit of the Red Cross. Miss Ruth Blodgett had charge of the sale of tags and deserves great credit for the success of her efforts.

The field of competitors in doubles was small, but it was a mighty interesting and spirited competition. The exhibition match between Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wightman and Miss Eleanor Sears at 3 o'clock was a fine contest. David P. Cummings had charge of the tournament.

At the Chestnut Hill Horse Show on Wednesday, Mr. Harry L. Burrage was awarded blue ribbons for his saddle horses, "Golden Girl" and "Ace of Spades."

The Senior Class dinner of Lasell Seminary was given Thursday evening at the club.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE—Guy Bates Post will begin the fourteenth week of his engagement in his great success, "The Masquerader," at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, next Monday night, June 4th. In this play Mr. Post has a drama which will appeal and has applied to all classes of playgoers. There is food for thought and entertainment in every moment of its action. In the dual role of Chilcote and Loder, the star reveals an art which has ripened through the past several years until now it is at its best. Mr. Post is one of the best romantic actors on stage, has ever known and he invests the character of Loder with a touch of glamour which makes it most appealing. Not only is the engagement an exceptionally long one for a drama, but it is remarkable that its popularity should be so well sustained, even during the beginning of the summer months. But the end is near now.

Only twenty were there but as they were most enthusiastic, it was voted that a meeting should be held in Foresters' Hall the following Monday night in hopes that more would be present. The meeting was still interested it was voted that a final decision should be made at a meeting to be held in the hall, Saturday night, June 2nd.

SUFFRAGE NOTES

President Wilson has become an ally of the Maryland suffragists in their fight for the passage of the Presidential suffrage amendment at the coming special session of the Legislature. Secretary Tumulty in a letter to Mrs. Donald Hooker, president of the Just Government League says: "I have been instructed by the President to write you that he hopes with all his heart that the suffrage bill will pass."

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw has been appointed chairman of an advisory committee on women's defense work by the Council of National Defense to advise how the assistance of the women of America may be made available in the war.

—The Florida Senate by a vote of 23 to 7 passed a joint resolution to submit the equal suffrage amendment to the voters in 1918. The resolution goes to the House for consideration. (From Christian Science Monitor)

The world which sees peace realized will be a very different world to the world which saw war declared, and in nothing will this change be half so visible as in the spirit of democracy.

Now the most remarkable way in which this change is going to be manifested is in the altered condition of the women of the world. A democracy in which the right to vote is confined to half the population, and that the male half, is really a bastard democracy, it is not the voice of Demos or the people which speaks, but the voice of the male Demos alone, and that is not the people. Nonetheless it has taken Armageddon to shake the foundations of the old mental regime, and the reverberations have been felt from Moscow to Westminster, and from Rome to Quebec. So far as the question of votes for women in the United Kingdom is concerned, the "Earth-shaker" has done its work in a way which has been expressed by Mr. Asquith, with that admirable lucidity of which he is a master. He had always maintained, he insisted last Wednesday in the House of Commons, that women must work out their own salvation, in other words that they must show that they are entitled to the vote, and he added, they have worked it out very quickly during the war. "How," he asked, "could the kingdom have carried on the war without them? There is hardly a service which has contributed or is contributing to the maintenance of the national cause in which women have not been at least as active and at least as efficient as men, so that wherever people turn they can see women doing with zeal and success, and without any detriment to the prerogative of their sex, work which three years ago would have been regarded as falling exclusively within the province of men."

Mr. Asquith then is satisfied, and so is Mrs. Pankhurst. And when Mr. Asquith and Mrs. Pankhurst are agreed on the subject, there is really very little more left to be said.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF LIBERTY BONDS

One especial advantage no other bonds, National, State, municipal, or corporate, have is that if the United States during the continuance of this war shall issue other bonds at a higher rate of interest, the holders of these Liberty bonds have the right to exchange their Liberty bonds for bonds bearing the higher rate of interest, dollar for dollar.

They are nontaxable. If your city, county, and State taxes are three mills on the dollar, a not unusual tax, these bonds are equivalent to ordinary corporate bonds or other investments bearing 6-12 per cent.

In addition, no Federal tax which war conditions may later make necessary will affect these bonds. The only tax these bonds are subject to is the inheritance tax, which applies to all property of all kinds whatsoever.

BULLETINS ON CANNING

"In order to render important service to the nation in its present emergency, the Department of Agriculture at Washington has just issued two bulletins to encourage canning."

These bulletins have been prepared by experts and are "Canned Fruits, Preserves, and Jellies" by Maria Parloa and "Canning Vegetables in the Home" by J. F. Breazeale.

Congressman William H. Carter has secured a large number of these bulletins and he will be pleased to furnish them to all who apply to him. His address is Room 334, House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

THE SHADOWS OF THE PAST

Winifred Virginia Jordan

Don't let the morning of your life Blot out the noon-day sun; Don't let that phantom maker, Strife, Crowd out from life all fun; Don't jail your mind and lock it up With ghost-regrets and tears; Don't shut from it the happy thoughts That sweeten up the years.

Don't let the old love that you knew The present Maytime strip; Don't let it smile with sham of warmth On Memory's cold lip; Don't let the fork of loyalty To love that was not true, Reach out a time and scare away A love that waits for you.

Don't let the Past, though it may be A bitter one to face, Tag at your heels where'er you go And hold you in Fear's trace; If you will turn, assert yourself, Unharness for a fight, The Haunts that have been driving you Will vanish as the night.

Then, smiling, tread the Present's path 'That leads beneath the sun, And out into the Future's day Where sunbeams romp and run; Cast out the Shadows of the Past, Walk on with Joy and Love, And to your heart will come the peace

Of noon-blue skies above!

MAY PAGEANT

Commencement activities at Lasell opened on Saturday with the annual May pole festivities, and Auburndale's attractive Seminary never looked lovelier with its green sloping lawns and fine old trees budding into new life on this beautiful day in the merry month of May.

The sun shone with unusual brightness over the bevy of pretty girls robed in white, and carrying small balloons, stained with the class colors, which lent a most effective and brilliant coloring to the charming scene. The May pole was erected on the lawn near the front entrance and Miss Dorothy Redmond, a senior of Madison, New Jersey, was crowned Queen of the May. Miss Redmond had been chosen by a secret ballot of the students the day before, and was taken completely by surprise. Wearing a beautiful white gown trimmed artistically with green ferns she was led to the Shrine by Miss Jessie Shepard of the Senior class, who placed a crown of daisies on her head. The Queen was attended by Miss Mildred Cary of Norwich, Conn., as maid of honor, who was also attractively gowned in white.

Following the coronation a floral dener, "The Dream of the Garden," was presented by the young ladies. Miss Mary Rich, representing a peasant had a dream in which flowers and fairies came forth to pay homage to the newly crowned queen. Primroses, the rose of France, the American Beauty rose were well represented by the girls who also appeared as fairies, and they marched around the broad piazzas of the Seminary to the May pole on the lawn, where they greeted their Queen.

The program included English folk dancing, a fete of flowers and the singing of class songs by a well trained chorus of the students. Dancing on the green and a solo dance by Miss Redmond were among the many delightful features, and there were present a large number of spectators, who greatly enjoyed this interesting outdoor event.

In the evening the members of the Senior class were entertained by the Juniors at a burlesque circus in the Gymnasium which afforded an endless amount of amusement for the students and their friends.

RIVER DAY

River Day was observed Monday by the students of Lasell Seminary and the rain did not in the least dampen the ardor of the girls who took part in the boat races.

The championship for 1917 was won by the war canoe crew representing the Senior class. The races covered a course of three eighths of a mile, length from Fox Island to Pulsifer's Point, Auburndale, and a large number of spectators witnessed the races, many of them in canoes, rowboats and launches.

Owing to the recent rains the condition of the river was very rough, a cold wind was blowing and during the last race there was a steady down-pour of rain, but the girls surmounted all obstacles in their enthusiastic efforts to win.

In the first race the seniors went ahead of the freshmen crew by a length and a half in 3 minutes and 26 seconds. In the second race the Sophomores won over the Juniors by a length in 3 minutes 26 1/2 seconds. The best race of the day was the championship event won by the Seniors in which they were only 3 feet from the Sophomores. It was a close race, first the Seniors being ahead and then the Sophomores, and in the last 20 feet the Seniors developed enough power to drive their big canoe across the line first and made the goal in 3 minutes and 30 seconds.

In the consolation event the Freshmen sprung a surprise by defeating the Juniors by six lengths and established a record for the course of 3 minutes and 30 seconds.

The Freshmen would easily have won the race had they developed in the first race the same amount of power they displayed in the consolation race.

The crews were made up as follows: Seniors, Captain Julia Lipps, Dorothy Redmond, Mary Canfield, Helen Louis, Edith Hobson, Mary Rich, Mildred Strain, Rachel Houston, Alice Jenks; Juniors: Captain, Ruth Newcomb, Helene Davenport, Madeline Gronberg, Grace Treway; Gladys Wright, Annie Diamond, Clara Spinnery, Edith Powell, Josephine Forester; Sophomores: Captain, Dorothea Benson, Priscilla Alden, Olive Chase, Margaret Uford, Mildred Keasor, Edith Vance, Georgina Flattery, Margaret Waddell, Norma Erdman; Freshmen: Captain, Helen Wakefield, Frances Weider, Gladys Keniston, Helen Furtin, Marion Homery, Eleanor Thompson, Elizabeth Moyer, Katherine Rice and Amy Phillips.

SPECIAL AID WORK

Interesting Report of Recent Activities of the Ladies

A large and interested audience gathered in Channing Church parlors last Friday afternoon to hear about the work done by the Special Aid Society.

In the rear of the room, a large number of articles were placed on exhibition, the results of one week's labor.

Mrs. H. H. Powers, the president, in opening the meeting, explained the object of its organization.

As was shown by the report of the secretary, Mrs. George Owen, the society organized March 30, with Channing Church as headquarters for work, and Hunnewell Club as official headquarters.

The treasurer, Miss Henry, said the present enrollment was 151.

Mrs. S. W. Bridges, chairman of the membership committee, spoke especially of the value of the card catalogue, and urged any not members to register at once.

Mrs. Edward M. Moore, chairman of the Work committee, showed that a vast amount of work had been accomplished. The surgical caps, pillows, ether stockings, etc., total 730. Over 150 pounds of wool have been used, and the knitted articles, such as sweaters, socks, helmets, etc., number 127. With 216 bags sent to Commonwealth Pier, and 75 articles supplied Company C, the total output for four weeks' services is 1156.

Mrs. H. A. Nealey told of the 6 classes formed each with a membership of from ten to twelve. These are the Economical cooking classes under Miss Nagle; also there are two classes in First Aid, and two in Home Nursing.

Three hundred Cook books have been sold by this branch. A class in canning is organizing to meet at the Vocational High School. This course of three lessons will begin Thursday afternoon, May 31 at two o'clock.

Miss Lathe, chairman of the Social Service committee, told of the large number of garden plots under cultivation, the gardeners ranging in age from 7 to 70 years. Her assistant, Mrs. Henry gave some items of interest on growing.

Miss Horsfall reported the work of the Junior Branch, which, she said, numbered 276 boys and girls most of whom are actively engaged in service. The Boy and Girl Scouts are not included in the Junior Branch, but are also busy at work on patriotic affairs. The Girl Scouts are organized under Miss Cunningham, and will soon become a uniformed company.

The Active Corps, very recently organized under the direction of Miss H. Fredericks. She said there are 15 members at present. Their work is to act as swift and intelligent distributing agents.

Passing to the outside affiliations, Mrs. Franklin Smith spoke of the coordination of all the Newton Special Aid societies, and of their co-operation with the Newton Public Safety Committee, thus all working harmoniously together.

Miss Riley, head of the Surgical Dressings Committee, reported a large amount of work done each week, but said more help was needed.

Mrs. C. H. Patton, president of the Newton French Relief, which meets each Thursday at Grace Church, said their work was sent to the small hospital in France where it was difficult to get supplies. Over 51,990 articles have been sent.

Mrs. Samuel Powers, president of the Newton Branch of the Red Cross, said their headquarters were at Newton Club, and the hours are from 10 to 2 daily, except Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Young told of the instruction given in the First Aid classes.

Miss Hull spoke of the value of the Home Nursing course.

Mrs. Wm. F. Hollings spoke on Food Value.

Miss Chamberlain told about Settlement Work.

Mrs. V. M. Sweet spoke of Canteen Cooking, and the value of knowing how to arrange a varied diet with a limited assortment of food.

Mrs. Fred J. Fawcett called attention to the excellence of Butterline, and Mrs. Henry O. Marcy spoke of Fats, and the desirability of using what is generally thrown away in the kitchen.

Mrs. E. E. Kent explained the possibilities of canning as a means of preserving garden products for winter use.

Reports being finished, Mrs. Powers told of the hurry call which had just come for sweaters for Gen. Pershing's troops, which will be promptly responded to.

She emphasized the value and importance of the card catalogue, and urged all to register without delay. At the close of the meeting 25 new members were enrolled.

Among those present were Mrs. W. C. Boyden, president of the Newtonville Special Aid; and Mrs. Wm. Ross of the Special Aid of Brighton.

Great credit is due Channing Church for the free use of its spacious parlors as headquarters for work; and to Hunnewell Club for its convenient accommodations for official headquarters.

Special thanks also are given to the Graphic, the Times, and the Free Press for the valuable space given in their columns.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

On Friday morning, May 25, the upper classes assembled in the hall for the annual Memorial Day Exercises. The patriotic program which was held was regarded as most impressive exercise that has ever been given in the Newton public schools. A number of Grand Army Men were present, and were conducted into the hall by a troop of the Newton Boy Scouts. The veterans were Mr. George M. Fiske, Mr. Jefferson K. Cole, Mr. Charles Ogden, Mr. J. E. Feld, Dr. S. F. Chase, Mr. Samuel A. Walker, and Mr. Alanson Kimball. The exercises were begun by a salute of the flag by the Boy Scouts, with the singing of "America." This was followed by songs by a girls' quartet and by a boys' trio. Mr. Jefferson K. Cole gave a most interesting account of several of his experiences during the Civil War, and gave considerable information concerning the final surrender of Lee. Mr. Charles Ogden told the students about a number of flags which have had unusual historical interest. Mr. George M. Fiske closed the exercises by delivering a very inspiring address upon the subject of our nation's duty in the present war.

This morning is the day appointed for the publication of the annual Senior Class Book, the "Newtonian."

The dance which was to be given today by the Boys' Debating Club has been postponed. This dance will be held in the gymnasium on Wednesday afternoon, June 6.

The school baseball team has now played through the most important part of its schedule, and is assured of second place in the Quadrangular League. The team has put up a good fight for the first honors, but the Championship was clinched by Cambridge Latin last Friday afternoon, when that nine defeated Newton by a score of 11 to 2.

A game of unusual interest will be played at Claffin Field this afternoon, when Newton will meet the strong Medford High team. The game was previously scheduled for tomorrow, but a change has recently been made. The Medford nine is perhaps the strongest high-school team in the state, and has easily won the championship of the Suburban League. This contest will undoubtedly mean as much to the Newton players as any game of the season. The local team is confident of giving Medford a hard battle. Earnest Systrom, who has not pitched during the last two games, will be in the box for Newton.

WARD-FRENCH

The marriage of Miss Doris Vera French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lincoln French to Mr. Asling Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Temple Ward of Highland street, West Newton, Mass., took place Saturday evening, May 26, at the home of the bride's parents, 224 Church street, the Rev. Vernon Cook officiating.

The bride, who was given by her father, wore ivory white satin with pearl embroidery and princess lace trimmings. The tulle veil was fastened to a cap of lace with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was lilies of the valley and orchids. The maid of honor, Miss Marion Lincoln wore green tulle over silver and carried a colonial bouquet.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Bernice Williams of Williamette and Mary Rudd Gibbs of Norwich, wore gowns of white lace with blue sashes and carried pink snap dragon.

Mr. Franklin Myrick of Pittsburg, Penn. was best man and the ushers were John Avery of West Newton and Edward C. Tolman of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Ward is a graduate of Wellesley College, Class of 1914, and of the Conn. State Normal School, 1916.

They will be at home after September 1, at 29 Carver road, Newton Highlands, Mass.

MEMORIAL DAY

place within a week's time this present spring including the declaration of war with Germany, and the revolution in Russia.

He called attention to the six wars in which this country had been engaged, the first a war for liberty in government, the second, for liberty on the high seas, third, for liberty from aggression from Mexico, fourth, for liberty for man, fifth for liberty of the isles of the western hemisphere and sixth, for liberty of all mankind. He declared that war was now the business of the entire nation, and while previous wars were fought by mercenaries, today it is a matter of equipment, and the best equipped army will certainly win. Our duty today is to take care of the Liberty Loan. England's debt is $370 per capita, France, $360, and Germany, $300, while the United States is but $10 and if we issue the entire seven billions of the Liberty loan, it will be but $80 per capita. England with a family income of $1368 has taken $699 in bonds, France with $1000 income has taken $558, Russia with $373 income has taken $139 and America with $2000 income is asked to take but $20. He trusted the response to this call would be tremendous.

Rev. A. J. Muste of Newtonville expressed his great admiration for Abraham Lincoln, whom he believed to have been the greatest man on earth since Christ. He said that he believed that war did not finish anything, but only started. That Christ's mission was not finished, but only started by his death, and that the Civil War only started the fight for freedom and democracy, which we must endeavor to finish now for the world. The cost will be tremendous in sacrifice but the world needs all we can do.

A letter was read from Comrade William T. Shepherd now in Evanston, Ill., and a telegram from Miss K. R. A. Flood from Pittsburg, Pa., and Commander Chase gave an original poem on "The Little Green Tents."

Hon. Seward W. Jones of the Association members congratulated the Post on the patriotism it had taught these young men and said that this great parade today was evidence that the people had been influenced by your acts and words. He also urged work for the Liberty loan, saying that this money ought to come from the people and the banks should use their money for business need. The one thing the Allies sorely need, he said, is money and everyone should take some part of the loan.

Remarks were also made by Miss Nellie Griffin, president of Mrs. A. E. Cunningham Tent, D. V., Mr. A. R. Kilburn, commander Spanish War Veterans and Comrade D. B. Burnett, S. V. America was sung in closing.

LASALL SEMINARY

Thursday's exercises in the Commencement week program at Lasall opened with a swimming match under the direction of Mrs. Smith, the swimming teacher at 3 o'clock. An Art exhibit of the students' work in the studio hall under the direction of Miss Augusta Mulliken; and a home economics exhibit in Carters Hall, which included Millinery, dressmaking, embroidery, knitting, tatting, basketry, and cooking. A whole course dinner was served by the second year girls. The first year girls made the desserts, breads, cake, etc. There was also an exhibit of canned fruits and vegetables, jellies, etc., put up by the girls.

Tea was served on the lawn. Other Commencement exercises are the Senior Reception on Saturday. Class day exercises on Monday evening at 8 P. M. with an address by the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, D.D.

SILVER TEA

The Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., will hold a silver tea on Monday, June eleventh, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Miss Lucy Allen, 35 Webster street, West Newton. Miss Sarah Fuller, the principal emeritus of the Horace Mann School of Boston will tell of the way in which she taught Helen Keller to speak. There will be a sale of garden aprons and knitting bags. The proceeds of the tea and sale will be used for the D. A. R. Chapter House.

novelty. The boys started from one end of the field, dropping hats, coats, leggings, and shoes at stated intervals, and dressed themselves on the return. Scout Guppy of Troop 10 won this novel affair.

The chariot race in which a rig of two large wheels, an axle and shafts driven by one lad, with three boys as motive power was closely contested, troop 9 winning first with Wellesley second.

The barrel tilting in which boys perched on the top of barrels and armed with long poles with cushions on the ends, endeavoring to push each other off the barrel, furnished great amusement.

Scout Ambrose of troop 10 proved himself able to defend himself the best and was declared the winner.

Making fire without matches also attracted considerable attention as well as rivalry from the various troops. The strong wind made it difficult to accomplish this feat, but Scout Valentine of troop 2 did the trick in about 45 seconds, with Scout Dudley of troop 1 coming in second.

The boys also gave an interesting exhibition of signalling, the message "Reviewing stand congratulates the boy scouts" being given in International Morse in 1.14 minutes and the message "Scouts extend thanks and greetings to their guests" being given in semaphore style in 1.06 minutes. Troop 1 won first and troop 10 second place in each event.

At the conclusion of the sports, the time was reformed. Tape were sounded and the troops dismissed.

The troops were in charge of these scoutmasters: Troop 1, Newtonville, W. N. Dudley; troop 2, Auburndale, E. C. Hillard; troop 4, Newton Highlands, P. W. Carver; troop 5, Newton Centre, E. W. Varney; troop 6, Newton, Hugh S. Boyd; troop 7, West Newton, H. D. Crowell; troop 8, Newton Centre, Paul W. Waters; troop 9, West Newton, D. B. Burnett; troop 10, Waban, J. W. Bartlett; troop 11, Newton, C. H. Woodworth; troop 1, Needham, R. E. Healy; troop 2, Needham, E. W. Nason; troop 2, Wellesley, W. B. Pratt.

TO FORM AMBULANCE CORPS

Authority has recently been issued by the War Department to organize Seven Ambulance Companies in the New England States. The opportunity is now offered to Newton and neighboring towns to form one of these companies, thus giving a chance for friends and acquaintances to be together in the same organization.

The Ambulance Company will consist of one commanding officer with the rank of Captain; four assistants with the rank of Captain and First Lieutenant. All officers to be members of the Medical Section of the Officer's Reserve Corps of the Army.

The enlisted strength is made up of 150 enlisted men, with the following grades: Two Sergeants, first-class, 11 Sergeants; 6 Corporals; one Horse-shoer; one Saddler; one Ferrier; one Mechanic; three Cooks; and the remainder divided between Privates, first-class, and Privates.

The age for enlisted men is between 18 and 45. Men with a knowledge of the care and driving of horses and motor-vehicles; pharmacists; clerks; and stenographers; in fact, any intelligent man with a common-school education, can find a place in this unit.

A man to be enlisted must be a citizen of the United States, or must have legally declared his intentions to be such; of good moral character and habits.

The Medical Department of the army is desirous of completing this unit at the earliest date possible, and it is hoped the men of Newton will avail themselves of this opportunity to join this branch of the service.

This unit is being organized by Dr. O. L. Schofield, Newton Lower Falls, Mass.

—Every male between the ages of 21 and 31 years MUST register next Tuesday, or be liable to a year's imprisonment.

The direction of Miss Ruth Allen concluded the program. Mr. Ernest Hermann, director of playgrounds, was field manager and to him much credit is due for putting on the scenes without delay. Mr. James C. Irwin, District Commissioner of Boy Scouts, planned the Boy Scout features. Miss Edith Jamieson, Mrs. W. J. Hicknell, and Mrs. E. J. Winslow were the committee in charge of the Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, president of the Federation, had general oversight of the whole affair. Mrs. Henry V. Jones was chairman of the Local Arrangements. Mrs. C. H. Keel of the Publicity, Mrs. H. S. Kimball of the Refreshments, Mrs. C. S. Cook, Jr. of the Ponies, Mrs. H. W. Wentworth of the Dancing, Mrs. W. H. Brown was in charge of the ice cream, and Mrs. E. G. Swift of the candy table. The sixteen-page souvenir program was attractively gotten up and netted a substantial sum. It is too early to give any accurate information as to the proceeds, which will be used for local philanthropies, but it is safe to say that fully $500 have been realized. Even if they had not reached any where near that figure, all who had any part in the preparations are unanimous in their feeling that such a community affair is well worth while in itself for the spirit of togetherness which is engendered. Fully 2000 people from all parts of the city were in attendance.

REAL ESTATE NOTES

John T. Burns and Sons, Inc., of Newtonville, report the sale of the well known Brackett Estate, 100 Sargent street, Newton to A. L. Jackson who will occupy. With the 15 room house there are 65,000 square feet of land, all assessed for $20,500. Charles H. Moore was the grantor.

LIFE LONG RESIDENT DEAD

Mr. Charles Esty, who has resided all his life in the family homestead on Dedham street, Oak Hill, died last Friday at the age of 83 years. Mr. Esty has been engaged in the market garden business all his long life and is survived by three sons, Messrs. Fred, James and Herman Esty, who were associated with him in that occupation. Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon. Rev. George G. Phipps of Newton Highlands and Rev. James Holden of Roxbury officiating and the interment was at Walnut Hills Cemetery.

—Every male between the ages of 21 and 31 years MUST register next Tuesday, or be liable to a year's imprisonment.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by William B. Foster to Dorchester Trust Company, dated December 10th, 1915, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4020, Page 124, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, there will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Monday, June 11, 1917, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed therein described as follows:

"A certain parcel of land being situated in Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, shown as Part A, on a plan of Chestnut Hill Trust, Plan of Land in Newton, Mass. (Waban Hill District) from Plan of O'Neill & Rew, Surveyors, duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds and bounded and described as follows:—Easterly and Southeasterly on a curved line on Waban Hill Terrace by three courses, twenty-six and 25-100 feet; twenty-four and 29-100 feet and forty-one and 21-100 feet; Southerly on lot 42 as shown on said plan one hundred and fifty-six and 68-100 feet; Westerly on part marked C as shown on said plan twenty-nine and 44-100; Northerly on Part B as shown on said plan one hundred and five and 85-100 feet; and Northeasterly on said Part B seventy-eight and 76-100 feet; containing according to said plan ten thousand square feet of land. This conveyance is made subject to restrictions referred to in deed from Dana Estes to Winnie May McAllister, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3344, page 576 so far as the same may now be in force and applicable.

The above conveyance includes all furnaces, heaters, ranges, mantels, gas and electric light fixtures, screens, screen doors, awnings, and all other fixtures of whatever kind and nature contained in any building or buildings now standing or hereafter erected on said premises prior to the full payment and discharge of this mortgage."

Excepting therefrom, however, so much of said mortgaged premises as was released by this mortgage by partial release dated October 30, 1916, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4090, Page 95.

One thousand ($1,000) dollars will be required to be paid in cash at the time and place of sale, balance in ten days from the date of sale, on the delivery of the deed.

REGISTRATION DAY

3322 Young Men Enrolled for Military Service at Call of President Wilson

Registration day was dutifully observed by the young men of this city last Tuesday and a total of 3322 were registered in the various polling places throughout the city. The polling places were open from 7 A. M. until 9 P. M., and were manned by nearly two hundred volunteer registrars, who served gratuitously. There was the expected rush to register in the early morning hours before going to business in Boston, but little delay was experienced even at that time. Returns were fairly prompt at City Hall, the last coming from Nonantum about midnight. The Nonantum and Upper Falls precincts reported the largest number of aliens, 271 in Nonantum and 135 at Upper Falls. 823 aliens were found, of whom 11 were listed as alien enemies. 2456 white persons registered, 1414 indicating some cause for exemption, and 1042 stating that they had no objections to military service. 43 colored persons registered. The white registration showed a remarkable close average for each age, the highest being 265 for 23 years and the lowest 234 for 27 years.

The following tables give the registration by precincts and by ages:

ENGAGEMENT TEA

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen W. Holmes announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Marjorie Holmes, to Mr. Channing E. Harwood of Newton. The announcement was made on Friday of last week at a tea given at her residence on Gramere street. The floral decorations were blue and yellow, and a basket of blue and yellow blossoms were arranged as a centerpiece on the table.

There were about sixty of Miss Holmes' young friends present, and the affair was delightfully social.

MOTHERS' REST

The Finance Committee of the Mothers' Rest Association will welcome new members at the home of Mrs. Henry H. Kendall, 876 Beacon street, Newton Centre, Wednesday, June 13th, from three to five o'clock. If stormy this tea will be postponed to the first pleasant day. Guests will be conveyed to the Rest by motor during the afternoon. Only members of the Association, who will bring a new member or an auto for use of the guests during part of the afternoon, are invited to the tea. Anyone accepting this invitation will please notify Mrs. H. H. Kendall in writing as soon as possible. This tea is given the same day as Donation Day at the Rest.

THE LIBERTY LOAN

Newton Committee Actively at Work with a House to House Canvas of the Entire City and Expect to Sell $1,000,000 in Bonds

"Take the loan" has been the familiar cry throughout Newton this week. By the middle of the week the banks of this city had received more than $500,000 of subscriptions and the city was well started on the second half of the million which it is expected to subscribe.

And best of all the canvass was just getting late working order. But among the subscriptions received had been several for large amounts so it is necessary that every one should do his or her share. It takes a lot of $50 and $100 bonds to make a hundred thousand but it can be done by all doing their part.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the Newton Liberty Loan committee at the Newton Club on Monday encouraging reports are made of the work in the several villages. Several chairmen told of being called upon by the canvassers and they said they had seen the names of the committee in the local newspapers and wished to subscribe. As the publication of the names of the canvassers is evidently a help in the work and to intended subscribers we give those in several more villages this week.

Village Committees

The ward seven committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Sydney Harwood, is composed of Messrs. F. W. Dana, W. B. Sharp, Clifford C. Emerson, Edward Pyle, John G. Mudge, George Angier, and Ralph W. Angier. Newton Upper Falls is thoroughly organized as follows: Messrs. F. J. Hale, chairman, T. W. White, T. J. Sullivan, H. E. Locke, O. E. Nutter, John Romaszewicz, W. C. Mason, Mark V. Croker, Wm. The Waban committee comprises the following gentlemen: Messrs. Lawrence Allen, chairman, David Sutton, A. L. Stephen, C. W. Fulton, E. P. Upham, Jr., W. Gilman, Rev. C. H. Cutler, W. Edgerton, W. W. Dow, D. M. Hill, J. R. Chandler, D. M. Dutch, J. E. Parker, L. O. Tilton, R. H. Delano, L. W. Arnold, O. R. Rice, F. W. Davis, A. T. Gould, Jas. Willing, Rev. J. C. Sharp, H. L. Tilton, W. R. Fisher, H. M. Holmes, H. R. Lane, L. B. Folsom.

Many Meetings Addressed

A number of meetings throughout the city have been addressed in behalf of the loan. Waban started its campaign by addresses by the local clergymen and M. C. F. Wood, formerly president of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, at the Home Guard drill last Saturday morning at half-past six o'clock. Thursday evening was given up to a canvass of every house in town by a committee of thirty, who did the job in one evening.

Last Friday, the ladies of West Newton, who were gathered in the Congregational Church for their weekly sewing for the soldiers, had the loan explained to them by the Hon. Seward W. Jones and Mr. Geo. Hutchinson.

On Wednesday the high school pupils had their turn, those of the Technical and Vocational schools being addressed by Mr. Henry I. Harriman, president of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the Newton Classical High School by Mr. Henry Whitmore of West Newton. The opportunity thus given by the masters of the schools to reach the boys and girls was much appreciated by the committee.

Advantage was taken of the gathering of the ladies of Auburndale at the Congregational church to work for the soldiers to tell them of the loan, this being done by Mr. James A. Hutchinson of West Newton. A special public meeting was also held at Norumbega Hall in Auburndale on Tuesday evening, when in addition to a drill by the Home Guard, addresses on the loan were made by Mayor Childs and Mr. Arthur L. Spring of Boston.

The several labor unions of the city have cooperated in the loan work by opening their lodges to speakers under the guidance of Mr. Hughes, president of the International Coopers Union. The response of the unions has been spontaneous and gratifying, many of them subscribing from their lodge funds in addition to individual subscriptions.

ROUTINE MEETING

Mayor Childs Appoints Walter H. Barker, as Sinking Fund Commissioner

Aldermen Cobb, Pitts, Tuttle, and Winslow were the only members of the board of aldermen absent from the regular meeting last Monday night. President Early was in the chair and many routine hearings were held including Edison poles on Elmwood street, Richardson street, Hunnewell avenue, Edison conduits in Maple avenue, Telephone conduits in Lexington street, Street Railway poles on Washington street, gasoline permit for W. C. Brewer, taking land for sewer and for construction of Moffat road, laying out of Carver road.

Mr. Green of the Telephone Co. explained their petition for poles on Cabot street. Mr. W. E. Lowry and Rev. R. L. Ray were earnest advocates for curbing on California street.

Mayor Childs favored the receipt of $120 as a contribution by citizens towards street lights on Centre street and of $132 for the same in Newtonville square. He also favored $280 for Laborer's pensions, and $200 for plans for using the old church property for municipal purposes and orders were subsequently passed for the same. His request for $5500 additional for Moth Work was referred to the Finance Committee.

The mayor submitted the name of ex-alderman Walter H. Barker as a Sinking Fund Commissioner, vice Hibbard deceased. He recommended a new auto for the Police Dept. and sent in a claim of Lou Altman for $50. A notice of increase of fares on the M. & B. Co. was received and the city solicitor requested to appear at the hearing and represent the city.

The City Engineer filed a long report on the value of concrete roads and Street Commissioner Stuart reported complete of work at South Meadow brook at cost of $3,438.44 and of the Gasbarri drain at cost of $223.32.

Walter F. Stevens of Upper Falls, James F. McInerney of Newton Centre, Arthur W. Kellaway of Waban, and Hiram L. Simpson of Newton were drawn as jurors at Cambridge Superior Court.

Petitions for various private garages, of John M. Leith for a common victualler license at Nonantum were granted. Other petitions were from F. J. Stark for sewer in Fenwick road, M. S. Williams that dogs be restrained during the next 30 days on account of growing vegetables, Gas Light Co. to open certain streets, W. F. Baxter for sewer in Carlton and Neholden roads, F. M. McCullough claim for damages for broken window, E. J. Winslow for widening Commonwealth avenue and Lexington street, A. B. Hall for drainage of South Meadow swamp, Laura A. Parker for Soldiers' relief, Geo. J. Russell for auctioneer license, P. A. Garabedian for taxicab license, Vassil Gino for common vic-tual license at Newton Highlands, and the Telephone Co. for conduits in Cherry and Webster streets.

On recommendation of committees, W. C. Arey was authorized to transfer his victualler license to 323 Washington street, M. F. McHugh, wagon license, C. F. Driscoll, wagon license, J. W. Mulford, common victualler license, sewers were ordered in Rogers terrace, Wachusett road, and Rogers street, street sprinkling on Washburn avenue, Pheasant road, laid out under the betterment act at a cost of $1076, and hearings assigned on laying out of Sawad road, for sewer in Neholden and Alban roads for laying curbing on West street, and for drainage of South Meadow swamp. The West End Co. was granted pole locations in Nonantum square and the Edison Co., attachments on Walnut street.

Eyron B. Mitchell was granted leave to withdraw on his petition for gasoline permit on Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, Aldermen Clark, Whidden and Hollis speaking in behalf of the majority report of the committee to that effect. A majority report was also received from the committee favoring the relocation of tracks and turnout on Watertown street for the M. and B. St. Rwy. Co. This matter was warmly debated, Aldermen Price and Hollis speaking in opposition, but the order was passed with but three dissenters, Alderman Carter voting with Aldermen Price and Hollis.

Mary E. Quinn, James L. Neary and Chas. H. Hathaway, Jr., were confirmed as weighers of coal, etc.

City Clerk Grant was authorized to regulate the circulation of dockets among past members of the city government, and the board adjourned at 9 o'clock to meet on Tuesday, June 19th.

"Let Uncle Sam use at least $50 of your money—Buy a Liberty bond."

LODGES

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of Newton Council, K. of C., in Dennison Hall Tuesday evening after addresses by members of the local committee which is furthering the purchase of Liberty bonds, the council voted unanimously to purchase a $1000 bond.

An election to the office of financial secretary of the council was also held. John F. Gallagher, a past grand knight and a brother of the present State deputy of the order, being chosen. Arrangements were also completed for the conferring of the first and second degrees on a class of candidates Sunday afternoon, June 17, and for an exemplification of the third degree in the week following.

EDITORIAL

The Newton and Waltham Boards of Trade are alive to the effect the proposed increase of street railway fares to seven cents will have on the business of these cities. The matter is on which affects nearly every resident of this city and the time to make your protest is next Monday morning at 1 Beacon street, Boston, when the Public Service Commission grants a hearing on the matter. With facts and figures indicating that the street railway business in Newton and Waltham is on a paying basis, residents here have a right to feel that deficits in the country districts served by the Middlesex & Boston Company, should be met by the persons who need the service in those communities and not become a burden on the entire system.

Newton has done its full duty in the work of the Newton Constabulary and the State Guard, in the registration of its youth on the call of the President for military service. Now let us do our full duty in subscribing to the Liberty Loan. Billy Sunday's slogan should be in every household "Farm, Finance or Fight."

The action of the aldermen in refusing the increase indicated by the first bids for collecting garbage, seems to be vindicated by the figures just submitted on a second call for bids. $8000 is well worth saving in these days of high prices.

Mayor Childs has made an admirable appointment in Mr. Walter H. Barker as a Sinking Fund Commissioner of the city.

TO GO TO FRANCE

Richard C. Jacobs, Jr., son of Richard and Clarke Jacobs of 215 Auburndale avenue, Auburndale, a sanitary engineer, has been honorably discharged from the Plattsburg training camp so that he may enlist in one of the engineer regiments being formed for service in France.

Mr. Jacobs is a former Newton High School boy, and an M. I. T., 1910 man, studying sanitary engineering at the Institute. He was for some time a draftsman in the employ of the Mass. Harbor and Land Commission. He has also been engaged in electrical work, and has been interested in trolley lines on the Cape. He enrolled for the Plattsburg camp, but in view of the plan to send engineer forces to France he shifted to that branch of the wartime service, and will probably be assigned to work in line with his special training.

Mr. Jacobs was a member of the Beta Pi at Technology.

NOTICE OF INCREASE OF RATES IN FARE

By the terms of an award of the Board of Arbitrators appointed in accordance with an agreement between the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, Division 600 thereof, and the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company, the Company has been required to make a large increase in the rates of compensation of employees.

In order to meet the increased operating and maintenance charges and pay a reasonable return upon the investment in its property it is necessary for the Company to make certain increases in its rates of fare. The Company therefore proposes to put into effect upon June 25, 1917, the following rates:

SEVEN CENTS FOR EVERY RIDE BETWEEN ANY TWO FARE LIMITS IN NEWTON, WALTHAM (except on the LEXINGTON-WALTHAM LINE) WATERBURY, BELMONT, and on the WATERTOWN-NEEDHAM LINE.

EIGHT CENTS FOR EVERY RIDE BETWEEN ANY TWO FARE LIMITS IN WELLESLEY, NATICK, FRAMINGHAM, ASHLAND, HOPKINTON, WESTBORO, SHERBORN, WAYLAND, ARLINGTON, LEXINGTON, WOBURN, CONCORD, BEDFORD, BILLERICA, AND ON THE LEXINGTON-WALTHAM AND THE NEEDHAM-WELLESLEY LINES.

SCHOOL TICKETS IN STRIPS OF TEN AT ONE-HALF THE REGULAR RATE FOR REGULAR FARE. ALL OTHER TICKETS EXCEPT TOWN LINE TICKETS TO BE DISCONTINUED.

This notice of such proposed increase in its rates of fare is given in compliance with the terms of Section 20, Chapter 784 of the Acts of 1913.

A public hearing on the above proposed changes in fare schedule will be given by the Public Service Commission at Room 717, No. 1 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., on Monday, June 11, 1917, at 10:30 A. M. MIDDLESEX & BOSTON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY

The Story of the Sea Anemone and the Crab

By J. R. HAMILTON

Former Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

Down around Monterey bay, the sea anemones are almost as thick as the scientists who come to study them. Now, for the benefit of those who have not spent four years in a laboratory cutting little animals into thin slices to study under a microscope, let it be said here that a sea anemone is a cross between a beautiful plant and a hungry animal and was created for the sole purpose of baffling young scientists and entertaining older ones.

It is about as big as your fist. It lives under water attached to a rock. It lies innocently open like a great chrysanthemum—not only presenting its stomach, instead of its heart, to the world, but the inside of its stomach at that. When any animal touches it, it closes up around that animal and immediately digests them.

Recently two scientists were watching a young crab wandering aimlessly about above a little garden of sea anemones. Like all crabs and many people, he was walking backward and thinking of something else, when he happened to step on the petals of this innocent flower. Instantly this innocent flower grabbed him and began closing its doors. Crabby put up a valiant fight—he hit out with every leg—he performed surgical marvels with his scissor claws, but it was of no use. The anemone closed over him and began covering him with a slimy digestive fluid, which it uses as a sauce on all its food.

When science, which for once had found a heart, finally released the little crab, he crawled weakly up on the rocks and gave fervent thanks, like Jonah, for his deliverance.

The point to be illustrated is that in all towns there are stores like the sea anemone, which are merely fastened to the street. It is hard to tell just why and what they are. They do not advertise—they do not stand for anything. They are composed principally of a hungry stomach and you do not know whether they are fish, fowl or good red herring. From the outside they look as beautiful as a flower. When you get inside they close up on you like a rapacious animal, and when you get out again—if you ever do get out—you are inclined like Jonah and the crab to give thanks for your deliverance.

There is only one thing to do in business and that is to go to the stores you know—to the stores that place themselves on record by advertising what they are.

The stores that do not advertise are like flowers in the sea; they may be very beautiful and perfectly all right, and then again they may turn out to be merely a bunch of hungry tentacles that will close up on you, cover you with a slimy praise, and then proceed to digest you clear down to the lining of your pocketbook.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

The Newtonville Branch of the Special Aid Society wants volunteer motor service put at its disposal in order to respond to the call to supply three motors every Monday afternoon thru the summer, commencing on June 11th. Anyone who can offer any help in this direction is asked to communicate immediately with the Chairman, Mr. Wallace C. Boyden, Oakwood road.

It is expected that work will be continued in Newtonville throughout the summer. There will, without question, be many who will be in the town for a part of the summer at least, so that the work of the sewing groups can be maintained.

Funds with which to buy materials for making garments are of course necessary. The collections for this purpose taken up through the kindly co-operation of the churches are greatly appreciated by the organization. Individuals who wish to make donations for the work are asked to send sums of any denomination to Mrs. William H. Allen, Kirkstall road.

Through the efforts of the 425 members of this branch, already forty dozen garments have been delivered to the storage rooms of the Red Cross and a large number, in addition, are practically completed and will be delivered within a few days.

The interest and enthusiasm in the Girl Scout work is continuing and practical and beneficial work is being accomplished through the weekly meetings of the girls. On Saturday of this week a house-to-house canvass is to be made by the Girls Scouts for Red Cross membership.

Editor, Newton Graphic.

Dear Sir:

I am pleased to see some signs of WAKE-UP to increase the membership of "Newton's Constabulary" organization.

Several men have recently come forward and signed applications for membership, since the Constabulary formed a part of the parade on Decoration Day, as their military bearing, must have been an incentive to stimulate a spirit of duty that all men residents of Newton, not otherwise engaged in military duty, and not physically incapacitated, should become enrolled and a part of the body.

The present organization is composed largely of business and professional men who gladly gave their time for drilling, to become familiar with some of the present military tactics, and also conversant with the duties of the organization.

The membership should be doubled at once, giving further confidence to the officers, who, I believe will gladly welcome new members, as Newton needs this patriotic and no worthy man should fail to become a working unit of the Newton Constabulary.

Yours truly,
Member of the Newtonville Company.

THE FIFTY DOLLAR LOAN

In issuing Liberty Loan Bonds in a denomination as small as $50 the Secretary of the United States Treasury has put it in the reach of almost every American citizen to do a real and actual service to his country.

Not all can fight, not all can render personal service in other ways, but those who are denied the privilege of serving their country in person have the privilege of serving, her by lending their money to win her victories.

But it is not patriotism alone that urges the buying of Liberty Loan Bonds. Thrift and a wise economy in investing small savings commend these Liberty Loan Bonds to small investors. They are safe, and considering their tax-free quality—free from all federal, state and local taxes (inheritance taxes excepted) and free from any war tax that may hereafter be levied, affording an absolutely net income of 3-1/2 per cent, they constitute an ideal investment for savings.

NEWTON OPERA HOUSE

At the Newton Opera House Friday and Saturday "An Old Fashioned Young Man," written by Frank E. Woods, manager of the Fine Arts plant, and featuring Robert Harrow, is told a thrilling narrative showing the advent of a boy who has been trained in the country into political life in a large city. In his country home Harrow is trained by his father until he is twenty-one. Threading the spectacular and political features of the production is a charming romance. Colleen Moore plays the leading feminine role. The other principals in the cast include Sam de Grasse, Loyola O'Connor, Adele Clifton, Charles Lee, Wilbur Higby and Bert Hadley. The scenes are enacted in six different cities of United States and aboard train.

IN MEMORIAM

Words steeped in an essence of beauty and love are needed, when we speak of Grace Dickerson. All that was beautiful and lovely radiated from her. The very air about her, was permeated with sweetness and charm. Her personality was so vital; her mind so rich; her heart so tender, sympathetic and responsive, that her place can never be filled. We who love her, can try to follow in the shining path she trod. But no one of us can ever catch that ineffable charm, the centre of which was unselfish love and the beauty of truth.

Her brilliant mind stimulated and called forth the best in others. Her perception of the rare and beautiful was an innate gift, refined by years of thought and study. She gave modestly and freely of her rich culture, unconscious of her power. Effacing herself, she selected and interpreted for others; using her fine mental endowment as a medium for presenting the best.

We can never forget her! The gracious hospitality of her home; the quiet power given to every cause with which she was associated; the beautiful presence and voice; the charm with which she infused every occasion. These were but the manifestations of that inner light from which the radiance of her life streamed forth.

She needed no creed or church, though these were dear and precious to her. The Divine love and power encompassed her, and drew us all up through the steady flame of her pure life. She was rich by inheritance from parents, whom once to know was never to forget. It seems fitting that so unusual a mother and daughter should be again united in the fuller and eternal life. Her influence was far reaching and constantly extending. Year by year, we saw her grow and ripen into a richer mental and spiritual life. Nothing could daunt her brave spirit; so heroic, ignoring limitations. She had a zest for life; a sane and hearty enjoyment in living. Her keen sense of humor lightened hard situations. Her smile and flash of ready wit, defied depression. She poured out upon us all, the richness of her nature; invigorating, soothing, beautifying, the many lives which she touched. She passed from us, unharmed by suffering and limitations which longer years might have brought, leaving an enduring legacy of faith and hope and love.

The harmony of her life abides, mingling with that choir invisible of "Spirits living yet."

In hearts made better by their presence.

BASE BALL

The Newton Y. M. C. A. baseball team will play the Allston team next Saturday afternoon, 3:30, on the Y. M. C. A. field. The locals are playing a good brand of ball this season, and as their opponents are unusually strong this year, the game promises to be highly interesting.

The Silver Lake Cordage Co. will be represented on the diamond after many years by a very fast team. The team is managed by Arthur Hartford, and captained by George Hurd, and is boosted by the employees to beat any manufacturing team in the state. The schedule has been filled and includes many hard games, in Mass. and Rhode Island and New Hampshire.

The team is in the Manufacturing League in Mass., R. I., and N. H.

HARRIS—SNYDER

The wedding of Miss Hazel Lamson Snyder, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Snyder of Hunnewell terrace, Newton, and Mr. Edward Lewis Harris of Barnstable, took place on Saturday evening at the Hunnewell Clubhouse. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot church, and took place in the ladies parlor, which was decorated with Ophelia roses, palms and ferns. The bride, who was gowned in ivory satin and georgette crepe, and who wore a tulle veil with a wreath of orange blossoms, was given in marriage by her father, Miss Margaret Crocker of Newton.

The maid of honor, was in yellow tulle with silver lace and carried Ophelia roses. Mr. John E. Hineckley of Yarmouthport was the best man.

A largely attended reception followed, the guests being ushered by Messrs. Samuel S. Crocker Jr., of Marlon, Mass., Alfred Crocker Jr., of Barnstable, cousin of the groom, Herbert N. Davis of Cummaquid, Mass. and D. Lewis Nye of Barnstable.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Snyder, Mr. Marcus N. Harris, and Miss Eliza L. Harris, father and sister of the groom. Mrs. Snyder wore gray and rose satin and lace, and Miss Harris was in orchid and pink with silver lace.

Guests were present from Brookline, Boston, Cambridge, Barnstable, New York, N. J. and Morrisville, Vt.

After an automobile trip thru New Hampshire and Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. Harris will reside at Barnstable where they will be at home after September 1st.

FORMER CLERGYMAN DEAD

Dr. William A. Lamb, who was pastor of the North Church at Nonantum from 1884 to 1891, and later was engaged in the provision business in Nonantum square, died on May 24th, at his home in Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. Lamb was 73 years old, and for a long period was active in civic, religious and philanthropic affairs. He was deeply concerned in maintaining the stability of the northern part of the business district. He was president of the Moral Efficiency Commission and was a member of the board of governors of the Florence Crittenton Home.

Before going to California twenty years ago Dr. Lamb was a Congregational minister in Massachusetts, where he held several pastorates. He was at one time pastor of the Olivet Congregational Church of Los Angeles.

Dr. Lamb was ill only two days. His death was caused by peritonitis. Mrs. Lamb died about three years ago, and Dr. Lamb and his daughter lived at his home on Ocean View avenue.

He is survived by a son and a daughter.

FERGUSON—MARINDEN

Mr. Charles J. Ferguson of Arlington street, Newton, and Miss M. Marinden of Brookline were married last Saturday evening at St. Paul's Church, Brookline, by Rev. William L. Clark, the rector. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Henri L. Marinden, Miss Kathleen Ware of Dorchester was the maid of honor and Mr. Robert M. Ferguson, a brother of the groom was the best man.

A small reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. E. Marinden on Gorham avenue, Brookline, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson being assisted in receiving by Mr. Frank L. Ferguson of Brookline, N. Y., as the representative of Dr. and Mrs. John C. Ferguson, parents of the groom, who are at present in China.

Mr. Ferguson, who graduated from Harvard in 1915, is a member of the Boston Railroad Regiment, known as the 4th Regiment Reserve Engineers, and expects to leave soon for railroad service in France.

TEA

In honor of her guests Miss Gordon of New Orleans, and Mrs. Alvah H. Boyer of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Richard Porter Boyer entertained at a very delightful tea on Saturday afternoon at her residence on Watertown street, Newtonville.

The rooms were decorated most attractively with pink and white blossoms and Mrs. Boyer received from 2 until 5.

The pourers were Mrs. Edward D. Van Tassel Jr., of Winchester, and Mrs. Ralph Hastings.

A program of music, including violin and piano selections was given during the afternoon and there was a large company of guests present.

Maxwell's Great Engine Cuts Your Gasoline Bill in Half

Thousands of Maxwell owners run their cars for $6 to $8 a month—the Maxwell sets the pace for the world in upkeep economy.

Mechanical efficiency—that's the fixed, unswerving purpose of the Maxwell organization, from the President down to the youngest and newest apprentice.

The real motor car—the real Maxwell—is on the inside, where you can't see it.

Motor car value depends on the hidden machinery not on a glossy body, rich upholstery, handsome lamps, —not on gimmicks and novelties which are only too often dangled before the public, for much the same reason that a fisherman decorates his hook with gay feathers and bright metal ornaments.

The Maxwell has one chassis model—one stable, time-tried model, —never tinkered with by the fellow with an untested idea to exploit,

—but a model that has been developed, refined, perfected, year by year—soberly, painstakingly, scientifically.

The Maxwell Mechanically Right

The Maxwell Motor Company waited four years to make that statement.

Starting on sound, scientific principles—the company spent four years in bringing its car to mechanical perfection.

The goal is won—undisputed facts prove it.

For example, a Maxwell stock car—with an engine identically like your Maxwell will have—covered 22,022 miles in 44 days and nights, without the motor ever stopping.

That car traveled at 25 miles an hour,

—made 22 miles per gallon of gasoline,

—and scored a record never equalled by any other vehicle built by human hands.

Proof of Maxwell Economy

Thousands of witnesses spring up all over the land to testify to that.

—a veritable army of enthusiastic Maxwell owners who report —that they get upwards of thirty miles per gallon of gasoline—some even forty,

—and that they run their cars at a monthly expense of $6 to $8.

Mrs. Miriam Thayer Seeley, Professor in the Oregon Agricultural College, drove her Maxwell across the continent and back—9,700 miles over every conceivable variety of road—on an expense bill of $8.19 a month for gasoline, oil and repairs.

The Maxwell costs $665 f. o. b. Detroit —and that small price is distributed over many years —for you get many, not merely one or two, years of service out of a Maxwell.

How The Maxwell Machine Excels

The engine is a marvel, sturdy, durable, simple, dependable, with power to spare.

The transmission is simple, smooth, self-lubricating, scientific, trouble-proof.

The Maxwell clutch runs in oil—is wear-proof—more efficient than the clutch in any car made, no matter what price or class.

Maxwell axles are designed—forged, heat-treated and built complete in our own factories. They have stood up in service under four years of the severest road tests possible to give them by more than 200,000 owners.

The Maxwell Proves Itself

We stake our reputation that the Maxwell will more than make good on all we have told about it.

All we ask of you is that you will let us prove it.

Come in to our sales rooms and let the car demonstrate itself to you.

It won't take you long to realize that we have not said enough in praise of the Maxwell.

Roadster, $650; Touring Car, $865; Cabriolet, $855; Town Car, $915; Sedan, $985; completely equipped, including electric starter and lights. All prices f. o. b. Detroit.

Few Days Remain

Only a few days remain in which to join the procession of the patriotic and "Take the loan." The opportunity is open to every one in Newton, for the banks will help in almost any way desired. It may be repeated that it is absolutely no advantage to the banks except as it benefits all citizens to have the loan generally purchased. Information may be obtained of any of the banks or of the local committees who will more than be glad to assist.

DR. SYLVESTER MARRIED

Dr. and Mrs. Phillip H. Sylvester, who were married at the First Universalist Church in Haverhill, on Saturday evening are to live at 866 Beacon street, Newton Centre, where they will welcome their friends after Sept. 3. The bride was Miss Dorothy Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Young of Haverhill. Dr. Sylvester is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Sylvester of Newton Centre. Rev. D. W. Cooris officiated at the wedding. Mrs. Frances F. Key of Baltimore was matron of honor and Dr. William E. Ladd of Boston was best man. Only immediate friends and relatives attended.

Upper Falls

—Miss Vera Proctor, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks is convalescing.

—Mrs. Joseph Kerivan of Chestnut street is spending a week with her mother in Watertown.

—Mr. and Mrs. George L. Marcy of Chestnut street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—Hearing next Monday at 10.30 A. M. at 1 Beacon street, Boston, on 7 cent fares on the local street railway.

—Mr. Fred Mills of High street joined the Engineering Department of the United States Navy, last Wednesday.

—Mr. Frank J. Hale has been appointed on the National Council as a representative of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

—Next Sunday morning at the Methodist Church there will be the baptism of children and in the evening at 7 the Annual Children's Day concert will be held.

—Mr. Herbert A. Dyer, who has been living at the home of Mrs. Camp of Richardson road, while attending Technology, returned Saturday to his home in Schenectady, New York.

—Rev. Richard Loring of the Episcopal Church, Newtonville, spoke to the ladies of the Stone Home Sunday afternoon at 3.00. Six young people from the same church sang patriotic songs.

—The Branch Library will begin its summer schedule this year on June 10th. From then until September 29th its hours for service will be as follows: 8-10 P. M. except on Thursday afternoon and evening when the library will be closed.

—There were three marriages celebrated in the Catholic Church this week. Miss Mary Laughlin was married Tuesday to Mr. Michael Quirk with High Mass; Miss Winifred Glendon to Mr. Daniel Kerr; and Miss Sarah Hurley to Mr. Clifford Hinds on Wednesday morning.

—Miss Violet M. Adams of High street was married last Saturday at 2.30 in the afternoon to Mr. Schyler Spaulding of Danversville, Conn. The marriage took place at the home of the bride who looked very lovely in a white georgette dress, as she stood under a bower of apple blossoms. Only the immediate members of the bride's and groom's families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding then went on their honeymoon to Providence and Danversville.

—A meeting was held Wednesday evening in the Auditorium at which Mr. Frank L. Richardson, treasurer of the Newton Trust Co. and a member of the Newton Liberty Bond general committee spoke to a representative body of men from this village. He told of the work which was being carried on in other parts of Newton and then explained the ways by which bonds could be taken. A committee of twenty men was chosen. Mr. Thomas W. White being appointed chairman. These men will make a house to house canvass and it is expected that every family in the village will take out at least one bond. It is one way we can all show our patriotism. There is a vital need that each family should take out a bond in order that this war may be brought to a successful close as quickly as possible. Finally if we are not moved by patriotic feelings there is the appeal to the practical side. Each bond is backed by the United States government and three per cent interest will be paid. These bonds may be sold at any time and the United States government has to buy them back with thirty years. Thus it is a gilt-edged investment which may be bought on the installment plan.

LEONARD—MacLURE

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Lloyd MacLure, daughter of Rev. Laurens MacLure, S. T. D. and Mrs. MacLure of Newton, and Mr. Wallace Minot Leonard, Jr., Amherst '16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace M. Leonard of Newton Highlands, was solemnized on Thursday evening in Grace Episcopal Church.

The altar was decorated most attractively with palms, southern silk, and white lilies, and the ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by Rev. Dr. MacLure, rector of the church.

The bride who is a charming young lady of the brunet type, wore a beautiful wedding gown of white georgette crepe with court train of ivory white satin, and rose point lace. Her tulle veil, which had been worn by her mother at her wedding, was fastened with a spray of orange blossoms, and she carried a full shawl bouquet of white sweet pears and lilies of the valley. As the bridal party entered the Mendelssohn Wedding march was played by Mr. Hambleton, the organist.

The bride was unattended and the bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Emory Nelson Leonard, Harvard '20, as best man.

An informal reception attended only by the relatives and a few intimate friends, was held immediately after the ceremony at Grace Church rectory.

The young people were assisted in receiving by their parents, Dr. and Mrs. MacLure, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, and the bride's grandmother, Madam MacLure of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. MacLure was handsomely gowned in black lace over white satin, and Mrs. Leonard wore a beautiful gown of blue net.

Madame MacLure was attractively gowned in black satin with duchess lace trimmings.

A buffet supper was served and a pink and white color motif was carried out in the dining room decorations. Carnations and white lilies surrounded by pink shaded candles were arranged as a centre-piece on the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard left on a wedding trip and on their return will reside in Newton.

—Mr. A. Farwell Bemis, president of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, is a member of the executive committee of the recently organized National Council, and serves on committees on Cotton Goods and Production Engineering.

—It is interesting to learn that at the training camp, the recruits are all large, sturdy youths. Mr. Norman Thompson of Braeland avenue, a member of the camp, is six feet one inch in height, and he only stands 49th in size, that is there are 48 other men taller than he is.

—The Newton South Allies Relief Association which holds its meetings every Friday morning in Trinity Church parish house, wishes to acknowledge and thank all those who contributed to the house to house campaign for funds to carry on its work during the coming summer. If any were passed by their donation will be gratefully received by the treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Ide, 98 Summer street, Newton Centre.

NORUMBEGA PARK

The Liberty Players began their second week in high class royalty plays, presenting this week at the Norumbega Park Theatre "The Misleading Lady," a play that scarcely needs an introduction as the piece has been played both in Boston and New York for extended runs.

"The Misleading Lady" will be presented all this week at the Norumbega Park Theatre, giving two performances each day, starting afterwards at 2.30 and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

The production announced for week of June 11, is "The Eternal Magdalen," a play of absorbing interest that has met with splendid success and one that should appeal strongly to every woman frequenter of the theatre.

"Have you done your duty by purchasing a Liberty bond?"

If the weather conditions are not favorable the fair will be postponed until the following Saturday.

—A special offering for the Newtonville branch of the Special Aid Society was held Sunday at Central Church. This organization is engaged in various enterprises for the comfort and well-being of the men in the service of the United States and is prepared to deal with emergencies in co-operation with the Red Cross and other agencies.

The Newtonville Branch has already expended about $1,300, and the ladies are trying to provide funds to carry the Society thru the summer months.

The Newtonville Woman's Guild once more invites the cooperation of the friends of the Fruit and Flower Mission, now entering on its forty-eighth season. In spite of the many demands upon time and purse will you not give a little help to this very worthy charity which is doing great deal to lighten the burden and cheer the hearts of many families in the over-crowded districts of Boston—families saddened, like ourselves, this year as never before. Vegetables as well as fruit and flowers will be needed more than ever and donations of money are also requested. Please send all contributions to the Newtonville Station not later than 8.30 o'clock, Tuesday and Friday mornings, commencing June 12th.

The children and their teachers will assemble at Eliot Church about 1.45 P. M. Only members of the Primary Department are invited.

—A number of Newton people were present last Tuesday evening at a recital given at Steinert Hall by Miss Marguerite S. Barnes of Watertown and Miss Mildred H. Vinton of West Somerville. The program was varied and interesting, consisting of music for two pianofortes, piano solos by Miss Vinton, and a group of songs by Miss Barnes.

—Miss Ann Elizabeth Thomas, a retired Boston school teacher, died Friday morning, after years of illness, at her home at 460 Centre street. She was 72 years old, a native of Wayland, and taught in the Boston public schools for 40 years. Two nephews survive her. Funeral services were held Monday morning. Rev. Harry Lutz officiating, and the interment was at Newton Cemetery.

—A considerable number of boys from the Senior and Junior classes have gone out from the school to do their bit for their country. Some are in the two camps at Walpole and at Weston. These camps, which will number about twenty-five boys in each, are occupied by young men who have gone out from the three Newton High Schools to help the farmer and their country in their day of need. Mr. Kiger and Mr. White are in charge of the camp at Walpole and Mr. Williams and Dr. Martin of the one at Weston.

Other boys have gone out to do electrical work, to help in munition factories, and in making and repairing the machinery in the great plants that are actively engaged in the tremendous preparations for the conflict upon which America has entered.

The girls are taking the places of the boys in the work in the garden and under the direction of Mrs. Bemis and Miss Dorothy Curtis are making a very large vegetable garden from which to draw for the cold pack canning in the fall.

Miss Kenrick and Miss Pierce are giving a series of demonstration lessons upon the cold pack method of canning which are very largely attended by the housewives of the city.

In the sewing rooms may be seen large groups of women sewing for the Red Cross, and in the regular classes of the school the girls have made a large number of garments for the same good cause.

In the midst of all this extraordinary activity the regular work of the school has been carried on and a graduation program has been arranged for the evening of June 25, when Mayor Childs will address the graduates.

In accord with the spirit of the times the exercises will emphasize the subject of patriotism, and the call to economical dressing has been heeded by the girls whose graduation dresses are not to cost more than $3.50 each.

Miss Pryor of the State Board recently addressed the girls upon the needs of the hour and how they could be met by young girls, and Mrs. Palmer spoke to all of the girls of the three high schools upon "Service."

BOOKS IN WAR TIME

"Never before," says a recent article in the Publishers' Weekly, "has there been such need for the intelligent reading of informative books by the rank and file of Americans: books looking toward the future, books on present issues and events, and the great books of the past—the Bibles of Americanism which reveal the principles and ideals under which and unto which this nation was conceived and dedicated. We Americans have been charged, quite justly, by James Bryce and others with having an inveterate habit of taking ourselves, our leaders, our institutions and our government for granted. To us as citizens of the American democracy the war now brings a clear challenge, a challenge over and above the question of the individual's part in the mobilization of the nation's resources will we, can we afford to, take the momentous issues involved in this war for granted, leaving it to our delegated representatives to 'see it through' for us, or will we, like Mr. Britling, individually face the issues and think through them, with the nation, to the definite, forward looking philosophy which must be ours in the new world after the war?"

The reading of worth while books at a time like this can in no sense be regarded as an extravagance.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Great Barrington,

June 6th.

What shall I say of the convention of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs that I have never said before? How is this one different from those which have preceded it? In a word it differs just as everything else in this critical time differs. One theme runs through everything. It matters not who is speaking or what committee is reporting—the one thought is uppermost—How can we women best serve the country?

The "Great Barrington Special" brought fully 150 women and one man to Pittsfield on Tuesday. An hour's wait for the party with additions from other local points on board the way train southbound for Great Barrington.

"Who are all these women?" an attendant in the Pittsfield lunch room was heard to inquire. "Oh, there's two big funerals," was the reply. A club woman near by remarked to her neighbor, "And we've got the flowers in our suit cases."

"Forward cars for Stamford and New York. This car goes as far as Barrington," announced the brakeman on his first round and later, "This car drops at Great Barrington."

And what of the journey? Those who went to the New York Biennial last year found the same pleasant companionship as then, although not quite so much of expectancy among the delegates, for an annual meeting of the State Federation holds not so much of the unknown as does one's first Biennial.

We "dropped" at Great Barrington into the cordial hands of friends and were soon comfortably distributed among the various hotels. A satisfaction with one's surroundings permeates the atmosphere. There is no unrecurrent of unpleasant experiences as at one recent annual meeting.

The slight shower in which we arrived was followed by another and another during the evening, but the going to and from the session fortunately came in the intervals between times.

Eight o'clock found the Congregational Church comfortably filled, some 500 being present. The address of welcome by Mrs. Frank C. Burch, president of the Thursday Morning Club, was simple, direct, and cordial. She voiced the expectation of the renewed enthusiasm and fresh courage to carry on their work, which the great gathering was to bring them.

Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, president of the Federation, in her response made a strong speech in which loyalty, service and sacrifice of the women were the key notes. "While the young men have been registering themselves today, we are registering ourselves in the service of our country and to humanity. This war will not be fought alone in the trenches, but also in the quiet homes, in the feeding of the world, in the relief of suffering, in the conservation of food stuffs, in the making of the mobilization camps, clean and pure, that our young men may be morally and physically fit for service. We have a duty to perform, and we are club women and remembering we are sisters of the world."

"Wherever work is being done, work with them rather than forming new groups. Read something good, remember cultural things. War sets back civilization largely because we forget the cultural things."

The usual convention rules were adopted, and then came the annual reports of officers and increase in membership was noted by the Corresponding Secretary. The finances, too, showed a marked increase. A balance last year of $2.71, it will be remembered, was reported. Increased membership has brought a larger income. Seventy-six clubs made free-will offerings amounting to $506.94.

Wise expenditures and some curtailing of work made it possible to come out with a balance of $514.83. The president's expenses to the Council Meeting at New Orleans and to the New England Conference at Providence, totaled a little over $150, while those of the Massachusetts director of the General Federation were $135.45.

In permanent funds the Federation holds bonds, the full value of which amounts to $8,000. A Liberty Bond of $500 has just been purchased.

This has been a "lean year" so far as the number of clubs which have joined the General Federation, according to the report of the General Federation Secretary, for only five have joined, while one has withdrawn.

Miss George A. Bacon, First Vice-President of the General Federation, gave a brief account of the Council meeting and of the war work contemplated by that organization.

The rest of the evening was given to reports of special committees, Badge, Bulletin, Meetings, and Press, that of the Art department and of the Nominating committee.

Business was resumed this morning at 9:30 with the reports of the Conservation, Home Economics, Industrial and Social Conditions, and Public Health departments.

Food production and the elimination of waste, a Food Thrift Campaign, formation of Girls' Patriotic Leagues, problems of social hygiene growing out of war conditions were points brought out one after another.

Two-minute reports from the district directors showed the value of the new plan of bringing clubs and Federations into closer touch. "Never mind what we are thinking, we must sing," is a striking sentence from one of them.

The amendment to the By-laws providing for trustees to administer the Endowment Fund was passed. Two hundred and twenty-three delegates registered and are entitled to vote.

This is the third time the Federation has visited Great Barrington, in 1897.

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Hilda Dorothy Bankart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bankart of Newtonville, and Mr. Earle Howard Pierce of Watertown street, Newtonville, took place at St. John's Episcopal Church on Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Richard T. Loring, the pastor.

The bride was in ivory white satin, trimmed with princess lace and pearls and carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies. Her sister, Mrs. George J. Savage of West Newton, was matron of honor and wore pink crepe de chine, draped with chiffon and silver trimmings, and carried a bouquet of deep pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Bankart of West Roxbury, Miss Ruth E. Pierce of Newtonville, sister of the groom, Miss Marguerite Greene of Bridgton, Me., and Miss Ethel Weeks of Portland, Me., all dressed alike in deep pink French voile, trimmed with silver and carrying bouquets of pale pink sweet peas.

The guests were seated by these ushers, Messrs. Leslie S. Wiggin of Melrose, Harold Saul of Cambridge, G. Norman Bankart of Newtonville, and Lawrence H. Bankart of Lynn.

A reception followed at the Newton Club house, which was attractively decorated with white lilies, sweet peas, and snap dragons. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. Charles James Bankart, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walker Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will reside in West Roxbury.

In 1907 and 1917. Miss O. M. E. Rowe, who was president in 1897, and is in attendance at this convention made a graceful speech at the close of the morning session.

The polls were opened at 12 o'clock. As there is no contest, there is little excitement and it was not until the Resolutions committee made its report this afternoon that the assembly really waked up and showed that it was alive and thinking.

The one urging that in view of increased productions owing to the war hours of labor be not increased brought forth discussion and a few dissenting votes, while that for Prohibition during the War was passed unanimously.

The following Newton women are attending: Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, Mrs. B. E. Taylor, Mrs. Guilford M. Stuart, Mrs. Robert Gorton, Mrs. W. A. Beebe, Mrs. F. E. Stanley, Mrs. W. M. Mitchell, Mrs. G. W. St. Amant, Mrs. Arthur W. Lane, Miss Mary A. Willcox, Mrs. H. V. Jones, Mrs. C. G. Wetherbee, Mrs. George H. Mullen, Mrs. F. A. Day, Miss Walker, Mrs. W. S. Higgins, Mrs. W. H. Lucas, Mrs. W. H. Allen, Mrs. G. H. Talbot, Mrs. J. G. Godding, Miss Grace M. Burt.

This evening comes the first social time, an organ recital and an address. The convention closes tomorrow noon.

Many have come by automobile and by trolley as well as by train and all are enjoying the beauty of the scenery this perfect June day.

GRACE M. BURT.

PIERCE-BANKART

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Hilda Dorothy Bankart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bankart of Newtonville, and Mr. Earle Howard Pierce of Watertown street, Newtonville, took place at St. John's Episcopal Church on Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed at eight o'clock by Rev. The guests were seated by these ushers, Messrs. Leslie S. Wiggin of Melrose, Harold Saul of Cambridge, G. Norman Bankart of Newtonville, and Lawrence H. Bankart of Lynn.

A reception followed at the Newton Club house, which was attractively decorated with white lilies, sweet peas, and snap dragons. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. Charles James Bankart, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walker Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will reside in West Roxbury.

RED CROSS WORK

At Channing Church on Mondays from two until four o'clock yarn will be furnished for knitting Red Cross supplies. Payment which must be made at the time of purchase will be refunded when finished work is returned.

WOMEN ASSOCIATES

The regular meeting of the Women Associates of Newton Highlands was held Tuesday morning. The records showed a large amount of work already accomplished and in use. The report of the Treasurer indicated that the women of this section have been most generous, but that with large bills to meet, extra effort would have to be made before summer to increase the sum already secured.

It is planned to hold a Flag Festival on the grounds of the Hyde School on Thursday, June 14, from 3.30 to 10.00. This will give an opportunity for each man, woman, and child in Newton Highlands to show active interest in the work being done for our Soldier and Sailor boys and the Red Cross.

Special interest will no doubt be taken in the Work Table in charge of Mrs. Wm. Ogg. This table will contain samples of work done at regular sewing meetings, and show how much has already been accomplished.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Warren of Fountain street have opened their summer home at Allerton.

—At a recent annual meeting of the Lend-A-Hand Society, Miss Caroline Freeman was elected a director.

—Mrs. C. J. Barker of Washington street has gone to Wells, Maine, where she will spend the summer season.

—Hearing next Monday at 10.30 A. M., at 1 Beacon street, Boston, on 7 cent fares on the local street railway.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Wing of Otis street left for Northport, Maine, last week to open their summer home at Saturday Cove.

—The Ladies of The Lincoln Park Baptist Church will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. B. M. Cooney, 2057 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, Tuesday, June 12, from 3 until 5.

—All are cordially invited.

—Children's Day will be observed in the Lincoln Park Baptist Church next Sunday, with a special children's service in the church at 10.45 A. M.

A very interesting program has been prepared. The evening services of the church have been discontinued for the summer.

The Branch Library will begin its summer schedule this year on June 10th. From then until September 29th its hours for service will be as follows: 10-12 A. M., 2-6, 7-8 P. M., Saturday 7-9 P. M., except on Thursday afternoon and evening when the library will be closed.

—The Ringlow Buffalo Shows—greater and indeed, gentlemen, the most stupendous aggregation of human and inhuman infractions and impossibilities for the weak nature of man to witness, will positively show, act, perform or what you will at the West Newton Congregational Church, on Friday evening, June 15, at 7 P. M.

All that the eye can see, the hand make, or the mind of man can contrive to stir the latent possibilities of today's younger generation. More-over all are local freaks and monstrosities. Troop 7 of the Boy Scouts and the West Newton Campfire girls will make the dogs r-r-r-ed hot. Don't miss this big show—one night only June 15.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About Two Rather Smart Rogues.

HOW ONE FOUND MISFORTUNE.

Meeting In the Woods Enlivened by a Lively Battle of Wits—The Flatterer Gains His Point, but Gets No Pleasure From the Victory.

Tonight, said Uncle Ben to Little Ned and Polly Ann, I am going to tell you about A FOX AND A CROW.

Mr. Crow was a sad thief. He hadn't been very well brought up, and he didn't quite understand that it is very, very wrong to take things that don't belong to you.

So when he saw a nice piece of cheese in a cottage window he wanted it very much. He waited until no one was about, and then he flew down and took the cheese.

Off to the woods he flew, thinking no one had seen him, but in this he made a mistake. Mr. Fox had seen him. Mr. Fox was prowling about the chicken house, wondering if he could not carry off a nice fat hen for dinner.

When Mr. Fox saw Mr. Crow sneak off with the piece of cheese he started right after him. Mr. Fox liked cheese too.

When he reached Mr. Crow he found him perching on top of a tall pine tree with the cheese fondly balanced in his bill.

"My dear Mr. Crow, how are you?" Mr. Fox began. "I'm delighted to see you. You're looking splendid. But, then, you always do look well, and your high spirits seem never to leave you. I heard yesterday you were the life of that charming party in Farmer Gruff's cornfield."

The crow looked so pleased that Mr. Fox went on:

"As you know, I never flatter, but I want to tell you how delighted I was with a little snatch of song I heard as I passed the cornfield. A more delicious voice than yours I have never heard. I wonder if you could repeat that little song for me? I had a little argument about it with Mr. Owl. He was sure the chorus ended with three caws instead of with a long drawn out caw, as I said it did."

"Caw, caw!" began the crow, and the cheese fell right into Mr. Fox's open mouth. He gobbled it down in a second and then trotted off through the woods, laughing to think how easily he had fooled Mr. Crow.

The cheese which the crow had stolen had been fixed by the housewife for the rats that troubled her greatly. She had only laid it in the window for a minute before she took it to the cellar to put in some dark corner to tempt a rat. Inside of the cheese was poison, and when Mr. Fox swallowed it he began to feel dreadfully ill. By the time the crow came along looking for his cheese the fox was too ill to speak. It took a long time for him to get well, and now I don't know whether he hates cheese or crows the most.

THE FASHIONABLE DAY BED.

A New Name For a Couch With Foot and Head Boards.

Every day has his day, and the ultra smart chaise longue must yield a point to the still more smart day bed, which is just now beauty's favored background. Every woman who has time to sit around in a stunning negligee during the daytime is surreptitiously studying those enchanting Mme. Recamier poses, and a day bed is the piece de resistance of the fashionable boudoir. The modern artist photographer who takes his camera into the home and photographs his subjects against their every day backgrounds in supposedly informal and natural poses is coining a fortune in Recamier-like portraits with luxuriously pillowed day beds as the central idea.

For the small apartment the day bed—which can, of course, be used as an ordinary sleeping bed by night—is a most useful and attractive bit of furniture far surpassing in grace the ungainly folding bed of another generation or the folding davenport of recent years, which always had a two faced look about it and suggested hidden bedding by the awkward height of its seat. The day bed may be had in Adam style and made of mahogany, with upholstered velvet cushions, for about $50. In painted wood, with gracefully curved ends and denim covered cushion, it costs about $30. Of course gilded wood or ivory enamel and cane day beds in empire style may add anything from $80 to $200 to the bill for boudoir furnishing.

A Chest For Her Dowry.

Nowadays the bride to be realizes the necessity of a suitable receptacle in which to lay her dowry of linen and lingerie. Of late she has turned somewhat to the conveniences of a wardrobe with half its interior fitted with drawers, but on the whole she leans to the custom of her grandmothers and great-grandmothers for centuries back and selects a chest which, according to its design, may afterward either be converted to storeroom uses or put into the hall or bedroom as a useful as well as an ornamental piece of furniture.

A visit to a museum will afford a glimpse of some of the most beautiful specimens of early dowry chests upon which the mediaeval wood carvers expended their art, often supplemented by the insertion of rare paintings done by famous artists.

Overheated Air.

A rise of temperature in the surrounding air diminishes the amount of oxygen consumed and the amount of dioxide discharged. A fall of temperature has the opposite effect. In addition, the overheated air forms a hot jacket around the body which prevents the radiation of heat necessary to keep the body in a healthy condition. With a sedentary occupation a temperature of from 64 to 70 should be maintained for comfort and health.

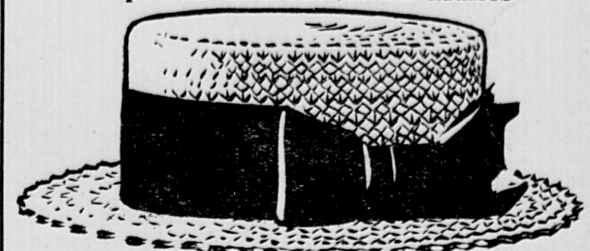

Vivid Blouses.

There is an attempt to bring back vivid blouses for the spring. This will be quite easy to do if the blouses are worn outside and not inside the skirt. Straight middie blouses of blue and purple crepe de chine are offered in the specialty shops. They are embroidered in colored threads and bullion.

LASELL COMMENCEMENT

Last Saturday evening the seniors held their annual reception. On Sunday morning at the Congregational Church Rev. J. M. Thomas, D.D., LL.D. preached the sermon before the graduating class.

On Monday evening the usual class day exercises were held the program including a welcome by Jessie Shepherd, roll call by Gertrude Allen, violin solo by Berenice Reagan, class prophecies by Florence Bell, Rachel Houston, and Frances Dahoney. The prophecies were all in rhyme and as each girl was mentioned, she rose in her place and illuminated her face. The class poem was by Elizabeth Carlile and mementoes were presented by Lenette Rogers. The presentation of the class gift to the school by Julia Lipps. A torchlight procession was then formed headed by a band and a melodious farewell given to each of the college buildings, followed by the burning of various class treasures on the lawn.

On Tuesday the Commencement exercises were held in the morning in the Congregational Church. The graduation exercises were simple in character. There was music by organ, harp and violinello, prayer by Rev. Carl M. Gates of Wellesley, an address to the graduates by Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., and benediction by the pastor of the church, Rev. William C. Gordon. Dr. Guy M. Winslow, principal of the seminary, awarded diplomas to forty-six girls.

To Miss Julia J. Lipps of South Bethlehem, Pa., vice president of the senior class, is accorded the honor of being the best breadmaker for the past year at Lassel Seminary, an institution where proficiency in that branch of household economics is one of the most important features. Miss Lipps won in a field of twenty-five competitors, and was given a tiny golden loaf as a prize. Miss Mary Rich of Keokuk, Ia., was given a silver loaf as second prize, while honorable mention went to the Misses Margaret McIntire and Helen Lewis.

Another coveted honor, that of a literary prize for the best work in all courses for both the junior and senior years, went to Helen M. Saunders of Hartford, Conn., while second prize was given Dorothea Stewart of Toledo, O., and honorable mention to Mary Rich. The best record for the senior alone was gained by Frances Dahoney of Paris, Tex.

In addition, a tennis trophy was awarded Miss Mary Fiske of Brookline, two cups were given Edith Vance of Fort Washington, N. Y., as the fastest swimmer and the best fancy diver of the school, and another cup for winning the distance plunge was awarded Katherine Rice of Detroit, Mich.

The Misses Julia Lipps, Rachel Houston, Mary Rich, Alice Jenks, Mary Canfield, Edith Thompson, Dorothy Redmond, Helen Lewis and Mildred Strain, comprising the senior canoe crew, were awarded the semi-annual letter and gold paddles as trophies. The basketball team members were also given insignias.

At noon the seniors gathered for the last time in the Crow's Nest and sang their class songs. The afternoon was given over to reunions of the alumnae and "old girls."

Graduates of classes as far back as 1857 were present and including 35 members of the class of 1916, which numbered 53.

For the Membership Campaign Miss Whitman reports this week from Newton the receipt of $646.00 for 313 Annual Members

29 Subscribing Members
16 Contributing Members
2 Sustaining Members
2 Life Members

Throughout her Campaign Miss Whitman had the much appreciated cooperation of Mrs. Frank P. Scofield and Miss Lathe, as well as enthusiastic support from many helpers. Other sections of the city give encouraging reports, which will be published when the canvas is completed.

On May 30th, Mr. David Cummings arranged a Tennis Exhibition Match at the Brae-Burn Country Club for the benefit of the Red Cross. Mr. and Mrs. George Wightman played with Miss Eleonora Sears and Mr. Nat Niles. It was a brilliant match, and was witnessed with great enthusiasm. Too much credit cannot be given to those who played, and to Miss Ruth Blodgett and her Red Cross girls for their efficient work. The results of this match, and of the State Doubles Tournament brought the Red Cross $115.00.

Mrs. Maynard Maxim of Newtonville will be at the Red Cross rooms every Tuesday afternoon, 2-6 P. M., to enroll those who wish to give active service to the Red Cross, and to meet the ladies for purposes of co-operation.

SCOTT-O'HEARN

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Augustine's Church, So. Boston, last Sunday, when Miss Lillian O'Hearn, daughter of Mrs. Mary O'Hearn, was married to Mr. James F. Scott, son of Mrs. Mary A. and the late John W. Scott of Newton. Miss O'Hearn was given in ivory satin and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and a diamond ring, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Helen Scott of Newton was bridesmaid and wore turquoise blue net over blue taffeta, and carried blush roses. Mr. Frank Corkery, uncle of the bride, was best man.

Two little flower tots, Miss Audice Wheeler and Walter McSorley carried baskets of sweet peas.

After the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and a wedding supper was served to about one hundred and fifty guests, who were present from Needham, Dorchester, Quincy, New York, and the Newtons.

After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Scott will reside in Dorchester.

ANNUAL RECEPTION

Newton Society turned out in large numbers on Wednesday for the annual reception at the Stone Institute and Home for Aged People at Newton Upper Falls, there being nearly five hundred present during the afternoon.

The Home with its pleasant surroundings and well kept gardens looked very picturesque on this ideal June day, and the rooms presented a very pretty sight with floral decorations, the predominating colors being pink and white. There was a profusion of beautiful pink and white roses, carnations, stocks and gladioli, which were given for this joyous occasion by Mrs. Charles E. Riley and Mrs. Sydney Harold of Newton, Mrs. Libbey of West Newton, and others.

The decorations were carried out thru all of the rooms, including the rooms of the inmates.

In the dining-room where refreshments were served the decorations were red, white and blue. United States Flags and bunting were arranged attractively and on the table the colors were brought out effectively with red, white and blue flowers. The dining-room was decorated by Mr. Benjamin Bosworth.

The ladies who poured were Mrs. H. M. Freeman, Mrs. Henry Robbins, Mrs. Percival Howe of West Newton, and Miss W. H. Gould of Waban.

Miss Mabel Riley of Newton presided over the punch bowl and was assisted by Miss Margaret Cobb.

The young ladies who assisted in serving were the Misses Mary Robbins, Mabel Pratt and Leslie Bancroft of West Newton.

Mrs. Anna E. Hale, the matron, received the guests from two until five in the reception room.

Mr. Joseph Byers of Newtonville, the vice president, Mrs. Morton E. Cobb of Newton Centre, Mrs. George Hutchinson of West Newton, and Mrs. John Gould and other members of the Executive Board were present and assisted in receiving the guests.

A very successful sale was held in connection with the reception, the tables being under the direction of Miss Louise Plimpton of Newton Centre, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Henry R. Plimpton, and her aunt, Miss Ella M. Bacall of Newton Highlands, and by Miss Ethel Jordan, and Miss Myrta Bosworth.

The building was open for inspection during the afternoon, and the guests had an opportunity to see the excellent work being done by the Home for the aged and helpless, who have had their share of the world's work during their earlier years and are now passing their declining years amid pleasant and homelike surroundings.

The Home has just completed the final addition, the east wing of what will be some future time be an adequate and commodious building, and will increase the accommodations as well as the comforts of the inmates.

NEWTON SPECIAL AID NOTES

The illustrated lecture given last Friday afternoon at the Newton Open House by Mrs. Sarah E. Belt, lecturer for the State Board of Agriculture, was most successful, and the large number of women present gained much valuable information.

A vote of thanks is tendered Mr. Fisher, the manager, for the free use of the Opera House which was so well adapted to the purpose.

At Channing Church, work for the Marine Hospital is nearly completed, and will begin immediately for the French Relief. Such articles as pillow cases, pajamas, shirts, etc., are much needed.

Mrs. Alfred J. Fuller has been appointed the Newton Representative to the Special Aid Auxiliary for the 5th Regiment.

Mrs. Vernon B. Swett has been elected chairman of the Canteen Committee.

At the next open meeting which will probably be held June 22, Relief work will be discussed with well informed speakers to tell about Hospital Relief, Service Relief, and Foreign Relief.

Mrs. Heathfield, president of the Woman Seafarer's Friend Society will be present, also Chaplain Strong of the Navy Yard.

Ask to see our patriotic post-cards. For sale at Channing Church at 10 cents per dozen.

The war is being waged with increasing vigor. Our boys are offering their lives. Therefore, it is earnestly hoped that there will be no letting down of our activities, but that all women will continue their interest in Special Aid work as the summer vacation time approaches. If you remain at home, spend as many hours each week as possible at the various working headquarters. When going away, take with you wool for sweaters, stockings, etc., thus doing your bit.

TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

On Monday morning the upper classes assembled in the hall. Mr. Thurber of the English Department explained the conditions of the Prize Gardening Contest of Newton.

A prominent citizen of Newton has offered the sum of one hundred dollars to be competed for by pupils of the Newton Technical High School under the following conditions:

1. A prize of twenty-five dollars is to be awarded to the girl who shall grow the best crop of vegetables during the coming season.

2. A prize of the same amount is to be awarded to the boy who shall grow the best crop of vegetables.

3. In deciding what shall be the best crop, emphasis shall be placed primarily upon the yield.

4. Gardens will be visited regularly by one or more of the judges.

5. The vegetables recommended are Potatoes, Carrots, Beets, Beans, Tomatoes, Swiss Chard, Radishes, and Lettuce.

6. All produce must be grown in the Newtons.

7. Enrollment must be made to Mr. Horace Kidger.

8. Gardens will be visited on or before June 1.

9. The judges for the contest shall be Mr. Alfred McDonald, Mr. Frederick A. Ward, and Mr. John W. Paul.

THE MAN ON THE BOX

Players' Hall was crowded Tuesday evening when the Dramateurs made their initial bow to a representative Newton audience and presented the successful comedy, "The Man on the Box" for the benefit of the Junior League for Newton Hospital Social Service.

This dramatic club has accomplished wonders since its organization and has put on some first class shows. It is a comedy in three acts founded on Harold McGrath's novel of the same name and dramatized by Grace Livingston Furniss and there was a fine cast selected to bring out the sense of the story, and scenes that helped to put the performance in the out-of-the-ordinary class.

Mr. Philip Walker Carter and Mrs. Charles I. De Witt showed in the stellar roles of Lieutenant Wurburton and Betty Annesley, and easily landed in the "hit" column. Both are really clever in their acting and possess all of the requirements necessary for success on the stage. Mrs. De Witt was very sweet and appealing in the role of the Colonel's daughter, and made the most of every situation and Mr. Carter as the ardent wooer had a true conception of the character he represented and his success with the audience was instantaneous and emphatic.

Mr. Robert W. Boyden as Wurburton's chum and a representative of the Washington Star, did some splendid acting and in his easy repressed style, played a role excellently suited to his capabilities and was a general favorite all thru the performance.

Mr. Boyden posed as a natural carefree, modern reporter and was devoid of all the professional conceits usually associated with newspaper men. Mrs. Clinton B. Willey was genuinely impressive in her rendition of the role of Mrs. Conway, Betty's confidential friend, and was a charming representation of a Washington society leader. Her gowns were beautiful and she had a most winning personality, especially in the second act, where she so cleverly carried the old Magistrate back to Washington in her motor car.

Mr. Derby Brown in the dual roles of Magistrate Watts and Col. Frank Raleigh, was a big asset to the show. His interpretation of both roles was a pronounced success and in the former role he was a perfect imitation of the typical irascible old judge as he handled the court case, introducing some delightful humor into the difficult part.

Mr. Norman Hyslop, as "Officer Cassidy" of the Third Precinct Police Station, was exceedingly comical and did some very clever acting and Rev. Mr. Gould gave an excellent demonstration of the character of "Count Karloff," acting the part of the Russian diplomat with force and dignity, and in the latter role the people didn't fancy, he was master of the situation. It must be conceded that it requires good acting when a clergyman successfully portrays the character of a villain.

Mr. Clinton B. Willey was easily the laughing hit of the show in the dual roles of Officer O'Brien of the mounted police and Monsieur Pierre in the latter role offers a really meritorious characterization of a French chef and his actions and facial expressions were all laugh producers.

Miss Sylvia Church evidenced real acting ability in the role of Nancy Wurburton and Miss Marguerite Anderson, as Cora, the maid, looked and acted the part to perfection.

Mr. Charles W. Blood made good in the role of Col. George Annesley, a retired army officer and sustained the part with dignity.

Mr. Leighton Sherman was a real matter-of-fact clerk of the court, and came in for a share of the honors. He hadn't much of a chance to show his abilities but what he did, he did well.

The dialogues were natural, bright and funny, and resembled the sort of conversation that might be overheard any day in social circles.

The benefit was an unqualified success both financially and from an artistic standpoint and much of the success should be attributed to Mr. and Mrs. Derby Brown, who coached the performers, Mr. Philip W. Carter, the acting manager, and Mrs. Philip W. Carter, who had charge of the properties. Miss Dorothy Wheaton was the prompter. The stage furniture was kindly loaned for the occasion by the C. E. Osgood Company of Boston.

Miss Dorothy Taylor of Newton Centre, who is president of the Junior League, was the head usher and was assisted by the officers of the League.

During the intermissions a fine program of lively music was furnished by Knight's Orchestra, which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

UNITARIANS IN CONVENTION

The 144th session of the South Middlesex Conference was held Wednesday in the Newton Centre Unitarian Church and one hundred delegates, representing thirty-three churches took part.

The minister of the parish, Rev. Oscar B. Hawes, opened the exercises and Rev. Paul Roper Frothingham, D. D., of the Arlington Street Church, delivered an address on "Spiritual Preparedness." Following this Rev. Dr. Brewer Eddy of Newton, associate secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions spoke on "The Moral Challenge of Army Camps." After his talk questions were asked from the floor. At noon the roll call was read and a devotional service was conducted by Rev. John H. Wilson of Framingham.

After luncheon there was an address by Rev. Oscar E. Harris, assistant secretary of the National Council of Congregational Churches, who talked on "The Ideal Budget and the Every Member Canvass." This led to discussion on the every member canvass system, led by Rev. Frank R. Crawford of Ayer, who told of personal experiences along that line.

EDITORIAL

The most careful consideration should be given the matter of increased fares on our local railway system, for the service the community demands cannot be obtained if private capital is driven from this field of public service. Street railway transportation, as Attorney Ballantyne so well says, is as much of a commodity as sugar or potatoes, and if it can be shown that the company is efficiently and economically managed, the public ought to be willing to pay the reasonable cost of the service it requires. Two matters, however, enter into the question, and ought to be thoroughly thrashed out by the Public Service Commission, before any increase of fares is approved. The first relates to the deficit caused by lack of patronage, and amount of service given on the weaker lines of the Company, and the second relates to the capital tied up in obsolete properties. The problem of the weaker lines is one that will always be with us, but as the Company itself, by asking for the right to make two classes of fares, one for 7 cents and one for 8 cents, the way is opened for a ruling that would require the outlying territory to pay more nearly its own share of the service it demands. In other words, either the service rendered the country districts served by this Company should be curtailed, or the rate of fare substantially increased. We would like to suggest that before the seven cent rate is approved for the Newton-Waltham territory, the Company be allowed to charge a ten or twelve cent rate in the country districts, and, if found advisable, to make a charge of one or two cents for its transfers, now given free. We believe this plan would meet with favor, and that if it proved insufficient, the seven cent rate would be accepted without great remonstrance.

Tentative figures this morning on the Liberty Loan seem to indicate that Newton has subscribed about double the amount we were estimated to take. It should also be borne in mind that many residents of this city made their subscriptions thru Boston banks or their various trade associations, so that Newton does not receive full credit in this respect. We are not ashamed of the showing made by our city, however, and can only express the highest compliments for the efficient and thorough work done by the Liberty Loan Committee of Newton.

Attention is invited to the editorials of 25 years ago in regard to the abolition of grade crossings in this city. How will our present day problems look to the men and women of 1942.

Are you wearing a Liberty Bond button? If not, why not?

"A USEFUL CITIZEN LEAVING"

Under the above caption, the Manchester (N. H.) Union prints this week a splendid tribute to Dr. Thomas Chalmers of that city, who has just returned to West Newton.

The Union says in part: "The city of Manchester and the state of New Hampshire lose an exceptionally useful citizen by the departure, today, for an inviting educational field in Massachusetts, of Dr. Thomas Chalmers, who recently resigned the pastorate of the First Congregational church of Manchester. In the more than seventeen years of his residence here, Dr. Chalmers has been prominently identified with all movements of genuine civic progress in city and state. He has been as persistent and outspoken a champion of that which appealed to him as being right, as he has been a vigorous and effective assailant of that which he believed to be wrong. He has rendered efficient service as a member of the Manchester school board; has been active in the work of the promotion of child welfare; has figured earnestly and wisely in the counsels of the New Hampshire branch of the Red Cross society; has led more than one successful campaign for the improvement of the intellectual attainments, without pedantry and without ostentation, as to have received the votes of half the trustees for the presidency of New Hampshire college; has served with distinction as a member of the New Hampshire senate, and has had strong support for the Republican nomination for congress from the First New Hampshire district. The membership of his church meanwhile, has constantly increased.

"Dr. Chalmers now becomes director and headmaster of the famous old Allen school for boys, at West Newton, Massachusetts. A graduate of Harvard, with the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Dartmouth and the benefit of studies in the universities of Marburg, Germany, and St. Andrews, Scotland, he is intellectually well equipped for the business of a teacher; and his demonstrated executive ability and faculty for organization, combined with tact and common sense, complete the list of qualifications for such a position that to which he goes."

OUR STARRY BANNER

Shake out its folds to the sunlight
Answer your country's call.
Serving at home or in far lands,
We are Americans all!

THE RED CROSS

Every man, woman and child, owes it as a duty to the country, to become a member of the American Red Cross. The Red Cross is the big brother of the Medical Service. The Army and Navy cannot get along without it. (Maj. General Leonard Wood in the New York Times.)

One month ago the City of Newton had 1500 members. There are now over three thousand members, and it is hoped that this prosperous and patriotic city will increase this membership to some fair proportion of its 44,000 inhabitants. Do not forget that it is literally true that it takes five people at home to care for one man at the front, and that our boys are at the front fighting for us now. On land and sea the Red Cross colors will go side by side with the National colors.

FOOD PRODUCTION

classes are engaging much of the attention of the committee which wishes especially to call the attention of the women and girls of Newton to the opportunities being offered to learn how to make the most out of food by proper buying and cooking, and how best to preserve for winter use the surplus products of garden and fruit trees. This work is in charge of a special committee of which Miss Jeanne Kenrick is chairman, and information may be secured by telephoning the committee headquarters in Newtonville.

She reported that the children's canning clubs had 45 members of whom 16 were boys, and an effort is to be made to form such a club among the high school girls. There is still on hand a good supply of quart glass preserving jars which may be obtained at the office of the Committee on Public Safety in Newtonville at 89 cents a dozen.

A club of 18 women in Newton Centre, has volunteered to give free instruction in canning and cooking in Thompsonville, and it is expected that the Bowen school will be fitted up with equipment suitable for such work.

Plans are also being made for free instruction in other sections of the city by settlement workers and other volunteers.

Trespass Notices

The special trespass notice which the committee has had to issue to assist home gardeners in preventing trespassing and theft are ready for distribution and may be obtained without cost by application to the Newtonville office.

TWO BILLION DOLLARS—WHAT IT MEANS

By John Heard, Jr.

To most people figures have lost all meaning in their representation of quantity. This is especially true of money figures in these days when not only the capital, but the annual earnings of corporations run into millions and hundreds of millions. The word "million" is common enough, yet how many of us who glibly use the term have even a faint perception of what it means? And now we talk of Billions!

Perhaps $1,000,000,000 will seem more real if reduced to everyday terms.

If a man had spent $1 every single minute from January 1 A. D. 1, to January 1, A. D. 1917, he would have spent just over $1,000,000,000.

To save $1,000,000,000 in the same time (not figuring interest) he would have had to put by $1.425 per day. He would have saved $1,000,000,000 on January 1, 1917, if he had put $100 a day into a box, he should have had to start the first of the year B. C. 25,342.

Does the fact that our Government has asked us to lend it $2,000,000,000 before June 15 seem as trivial as it may have seemed before? Isn't it evident that every one must help?

Two billion dollars represents about 8,000,000 pounds of gold, or 4,000 tons. In other words, it would take 800 of our most powerful five-ton motor trucks to transport it. They would form a procession nearly a mile long.

Two billion dollars in twenty-dollar gold pieces laid flat would form a line 2,174 miles long. If these twenty-dollar gold pieces were stacked, the column would be 148 miles high; again they would cover 30 acres of land. In pennies, $2,000,000,000 would cover 29 square miles of territory, and in one dollar bills fastened end to end it would form a band which would encircle the earth at the equator about nine times.

The Bible seems to us a pretty long book. If a copy of the Bible were cut up into its individual words, the Government could pay $2,500 a word and have $75,000,000 left out of the Two Billion Dollar Loan.

Croesus has always been spoken of as the personification of wealth. His fortune has been estimated at about $8,700,000. When the Government receives its $2,000,000,000 it will be able to pay Croesus $1,150 for every dollar he was worth.

Machine guns are playing an important part in this war. Unfortunately we haven't many. Bullets are also vital, and with these two we are woefully undersupplied. But we are preparing a gun which will do terrible execution upon our enemies. Most machine guns shoot steel bullets at the rate of 500 per minute. We haven't steel bullets and so our gun is going to shoot dollars, which are fully as effective. Shooting at the rate of 500 shots each minute, it will take our gun eight years, seven months, and ten days to shoot $2,000,000,000 into the Kaiser! Do you think he can stand it?

Won't you help serve that gun?

FACE YOUR TROUBLE

Winifred Virginia Jordan

Stand and face your Trouble, heavy though it be,
Though it roars and rumbles o'er a cloud-black sea;
Turn your face toward it,—make yourself a man!
Let not Fear tattoo you with a coward's ban!

Stand and give your battle with a steel-wrought lance;
Trouble's slow in coming, given glance for glance;
Trouble loves a quitter, Trouble loves a whine;
Smiles prick Trouble's bubbles like a harrow's tine.

If you cry and flee it, Trouble's stinging burn Ever dogs your footsteps, where-so'er you turn;
Fastens on your shoulders grief and tears and care,
Till you labour under all that you can bear.

Stand and face your Trouble—back up to the sun—
Chance is more than even Trouble soon will run;
Anyway, 'twill help you, as life jogs along,
Squaring to face Trouble with a Smile and Song!

STREET RAILWAY FARES

the next General Court. It is a question for consideration by the Public Service Commission whether the M. & B. Co. or any street railway company in the Commonwealth should make such a radical increase in the fares charged to the travelling public, until the recess committee has had opportunity to study the problem and report upon the best means to remedy the serious financial condition in which the street railways are placed.

The Public Service Commission should make an investigation of the condition of operation in the lines included in the M. & B. It is not possible to determine whether the proposed increase in fares is necessary or just, until a physical valuation has been made of the companies included in the consolidation, and study of the income which may reasonably be expected from the operation of the lines.

The Commission should also determine whether more economical means could be devised for the operation of the several lines of the system and that until such investigation has been made it cannot be determined accurately whether the large amounts estimated by the Company as necessary for operating expenses will be needed and whether a more moderate increase in rates might not be sufficient.

The books of the Company show that certain lines have not yielded a net income on the capital invested. The continued operation of these lines can only result in an increasing deficit. It is a serious question whether the travelling public ought to be required to pay increased fares in order to pay a return on capital of roads which are being operated at a loss.

The Company should reduce the amount of capital represented by lines which are showing an annual deficit.

The committee also recommends that no increase in fares should be made without provisions by which those who regularly travel on the Company lines, may purchase strip tickets at a reduced rate. This is especially desirable for working people, who use the cars daily.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY

Among the many interesting closing events at the Newton High School was the girls' Annual Field Day on Friday afternoon on Claffin Field, Newtonville.

Several hundred girls including members of the four classes gave a most attractive exhibition under the direction of the Physical Instructor, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of spectators.

It was a very beautiful sight as the girls marched into the field to the accompaniment of life and drum, arrayed in festive attire. The Seniors were dressed in white with middie blouses and wore red, white and blue ribbon bands across the forehead. The Juniors were in white and green, with green bands; the sophomores were quite elegantly decked out in bright red and carried small rakes and hoes, and the Freshman class was in white and yellow with yellow bands.

The Senior Class had for its mascot, a pretty little golden haired boy, Albert Pratt, six years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Pratt of West Newton. He was dressed as a miniature policeman in a little uniform, white gloves and carried a billy, and it is needless to say he made a great "hit" with the girls.

The Seniors won the base ball game the score being 8 to 1. Miss Marjorie Howland of the Senior class is sustaining her fine record in athletics, and easily won the tennis tournament 6-0 against Miss Boutelle of the Freshman Class.

Both races, the Basket relay and the Obstacle relay were won by the Freshmen and the Sophomores won the Volley Ball 15 to 1.

REAL ESTATE NOTES

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., of Newton and Newtonville, report the sale of 40 Westbourne road, Newton Centre. John A. Greenwood was the grantor. The property consists of a modern two-family house, double garage and 8000 feet of land, all valued at $9500. Mrs. Elizabeth O. Burbank purchases for investment. As part of the transaction Mrs. Burbank conveyed to Greenwood Brothers the single house and 4300 feet of land at 83 College avenue, Somerville, assessed for $7000.

The Misses E. A. and J. E. Ransom have sold through John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., two parcels of land off Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre on Ransom terrace. The lots contain together about 10,000 square feet of land and are valued at $3500. Mr. E. T. Wilson of Natick purchases for development.

Mr. Thomas Farrington has purchased through John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., the single house and 13,000 feet of land at 214 Bellevue street, Newton. The grantors were the Misses C. P. and M. E. Jones of Worcester. The assessed value is $4800. Mr. Farrington will occupy.

Miss Laura E. Craig has purchased from Mrs. E. B. Baldwin the single house and 10,000 feet of land situated on 195 Morton street, corner Ashton Park, Newton Centre. Alvord Brothers represented grantor. The property is valued at $7000. John T. Burns & Sons were brokers in the above transactions.

NEWTON OPERA HOUSE

On Monday and Tuesday the Triangle production, with William S. Hart in "The Desert Man" supported by Margery Wilson will be the attraction. The star has earned the title "the good bad-man," and is just as determined and as quick with his six-shooter as in former plays. Bessie Love in the Triangle production "Cheerful Givers" will be at this place of amusement on Friday and Saturday, and the play is full of humor and human interest.

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The graduating exercises of the three High Schools will be held week after next, that of the Vocational School being held on Monday evening June 25 at 8 o'clock, the Classical High on Wednesday afternoon, June 27 at 2.30 o'clock and the Technical High on Wednesday evening, June 27 at 8 o'clock.

The High School Tennis team has won the Triangular League Tennis championship without losing a match. The final games were played Saturday on the Waban courts, Scott winning at singles and Scott and Jackson winning at doubles from Brookline High. The coach of the Cambridge Latin base ball team which won the Quadrangular League championship this spring, has ranked the players of the different schools entering the League and picks Turner, catcher, Garrity, third base, Sawyer, left field and McGill, sub out fielder as members of a championship team. Woodcock in the Boston Globe has also said some nice things about the team. Percy Sawyer has been elected captain for the 1918 season.

Who is Caliban? What is Caliban?

CALIBAN is a character in Shakespeare's "Tempest"—a primitive human being—from which Percy MacKaye has taken the suggestion of his great Masque, "Caliban," which is to be produced in the Harvard Stadium for the benefit of the Red Cross and the Reserve Officers Training Corps, with a cast of 5000 people.

The struggles of Caliban with his own nature have been given dramatic expression and symbolized in this Masque to illustrate the struggles of mankind, through history, from barbarism to higher ideals of civilization.

The immense stage is on three levels, and the scenery, lighting effects, pageants, dancing groups and dramatic action are all on a scale of magnificence never before attempted in this section of the country.

In a brief way this should answer the many questions which the young ladies who are selling tickets for Caliban have been asked the past week. These young women will, in increased numbers, continue the sale of tickets this week. There are absolutely no beneficiaries and no margins of profit for anybody but the Red Cross and the Reserve Officers Training Corps in this production of Caliban at the Harvard Stadium.

It will be the great out-door dramatic event of the year.

"Remember the Lusitania and buy a Liberty bond."

—Mr. Edwin Reynolds of the Boston Globe staff is recovering from his recent illness.

—Telephone MacLean, 725 or 2654-M North, for anything in the carpenter line. Advt.

—Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Parker (Irene M. Plummer) of Boyd street, are planning to motor to Acton, Maine, on Saturday to spend a fortnight.

—Miss Marjorie Warren of Hyde avenue is spending a few days at Watertown, Conn., where she is attending Commencement festivities at the Taft School.

—Alderman Charles N. Fitts of Bellevue street is chairman of the new committee of the Boston Chamber of Commerce to Help Expedite Shipbuilding in New England.

—Miss Bertha Plummer, of Boyd street is spending a few weeks in Brooklyn, New York, with her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Affel, and her sister, Mrs. Julian Rice (Mary E. Plummer).

—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Estabrook and Miss Louise Estabrook of the Highland Villa have gone to Bay-side, Allerton, where they will spend the summer months. Mr. Estabrook is recovering from his recent illness.

—Miss Francis Warren of the Junior Class at the Lowe and Heywood School, Stamford, Conn., has returned to her home on Hyde avenue for the summer vacation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Elliston H. Bell of Nonantum street were among the guests at the Crosby-Drury wedding on Tuesday at "Claremont," the Drury residence on Salem End road, Framingham Centre.

—At the Graduation exercises Tuesday of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Joseph E. Doherty of this village received the degree, Bachelor of Science. The title of his graduation thesis was: "Colloidal Barium Sulphate and its Application to Paints."

—Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin Jewett have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Edith Jewett, and Mr. Francis Easton Carr, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, June 20th, at 8 o'clock, at their residence 115 Bellevue street.

—Miss Emily Dyer has copyrighted her patriotic masque "To The Colors" which was so artistically staged at the Bigelow School last Thursday evening. Her friends hope that it will have a wider hearing, for not only is it dramatically effective and cleverly written, but the patriotism has the true ring by reason of its strong human interest.

—Dr. and Mrs. John C. Ferguson of Pekin, China, and 91 Arlington street, have announced the engagement of their second daughter, Florence, to Jay C. Huston, vice consul in the American legation at Pekin. Miss Ferguson was educated abroad and in Mount Ida School, Newton, from which she was graduated with high honors in the class of '09. She has been a violin pupil of Jacques Hoffman of the Boston Symphony. Miss Ferguson spent last winter in Pekin with her parents. Mr. Huston is a graduate of Stanford University, California, in the class of '15, and immediately after graduation was appointed to the consular service in China, as a student interpreter. It is expected that the marriage will take place next spring.

—A most delightful social event of the past week was the luncheon-bridge on Saturday, given by Miss Leah Bailey at her home on Sudbury road. The affair was complimentary to Miss Edith Jewett whose wedding to Mr. Francis Easton Carr, takes place next week on Wednesday. An effective scheme of lavender and pale yellow was carried out in the floral decorations.

On the table the central decoration was a small chariot with green wheels, driven by a yellow butterfly. Covers were laid for fourteen and at each cover was placed a vase of yellow jonquils. The brides cake was cut by the guest of honor, whose place was marked by a bouquet of Bride roses. Three tables of bridge were arranged in the living-room, and those holding the highest scores were presented with attractive little basket nut dishes.

—The wedding of Miss Margaret Harvey, Smith, '18, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harvey of Hingham, and a granddaughter of Mrs. George D. Harvey of Auburndale, and Mr. Edward H. Woods, Harvard, '14 of West Newton, took place Saturday evening in the Auburndale Congregational Church, where the ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Dr. William C. Gordon, the pastor of the church.

The bridal gown was of white rose point lace and white satin with satin train, with the conventional tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Miss Katherine Adams, of West Newton, a classmate of the bride at Smith College, '18, was the maid of honor, and wore orchid lavender tulle over lavender chiffon, trimmed with silver lace, and with a semi-train. The bridesmaids, Miss Doris Holmes of Newton, B. U., '17, Mabel I. Bundy of Newton Centre, Vassar, '18, Miss Eleanor Edwards of Newton Centre, Miss Marjorie E. Hanson of East Orange, N. J., Smith, '18, Miss Dorothy C. Blood of Newton Centre, Smith, '18, and Miss Kathryn Flanders of Newton Centre, Vassar, '18, were gown in tulle, over, with silver lace, two being in pink, two in green, and two in blue.

The best man was Mr. Edward H. Whitney of New York, a classmate of the groom, Harvard, '14, and the ushers were all Harvard men, and included Messrs. R. O. Perkins, '14 of Philadelphia, Edward R. Hastings, Jr., '14 of Hilton, Mass., Thomas Gorham, '13 of Cambridge, Aldrich Taylor, '14 of Newton Centre, Ava W. Poole, '14 of Belmont, Edward H. Marrett, '14 of Cambridge, James R. Lincoln, '14 of Wareham, and Dr. Charles Magoun, '12 of Sioux City, Iowa.

A largely attended reception followed at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George D. Harvey of Central street, Mr. and Mrs. Woods being assisted in receiving their many friends by Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harvey, Mrs. George D. Harvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Woods.

LARKIN—BUCK

The wedding of Miss Lillian Frances Buck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Buck of this city, and Mr. J. Leslie Larkin of Everett took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride, 1075 Washington street, West Newton. Only the immediate families and most intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which took place at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. Edgar Park, pastor of the Second Congregational Church tying the nuptial knot. The bridal party stood under an arch of brides roses with ribbon shower of valley lilies, arranged in the bay window, with white lilies and fleur de lis used as a background.

The bride was gowned in white tulle and lace, trimmed with iridescent bead embroidery and wore the conventional tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Louise Moffatt of West Newton, the maid of honor, and Miss Emma Stacey of West Newton, the bridesmaids, were gowned alike in white georgette crepe, and sat with head embroidery and carried bouquets of pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. Roy A. Marshall of Everett was the best man and the page was Master Paul Irving Buck, a nephew of the bride. Messrs. Roy C. Buck and Howard P. Young of West Newton were the ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Buck, and Mrs. L. Louise Larkin, the mother of the groom. Mrs. Buck wore a gown of white satin and green silk chiffon with silver lace.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Nathalie B. Buck, a sister-in-law of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkin will reside at 1207 Commonwealth avenue, Allston, where they will be at home after October 1st.

DEATH OF MRS. PEARSON

Mrs. Nancy Della Benjamin Pearson, wife of William Henry Pearson of West Newton, who died suddenly last Saturday, at her home, 377 Otis street, near Chestnut street, in her eighty-fourth year, was born in North Whitefield, Me., and was a descendant from many of the early Colonial families. Her maiden name was Nancy Della Benjamin. Mrs. Pearson's keen interest in current events was remarkable and within the last month she had enjoyed a trip with her family to New York and Philadelphia.

She leaves her husband, William Henry Pearson, who for many years has been engaged in the shoe industry, with stores in Boston and factories at Lynn and Woburn, and who for twenty years was deputy city collector of Boston, having his office at City Hall. Mrs. Pearson is survived also by a son, Arthur Emmons Pearson, and a daughter, Nella Jane Pearson, both of West Newton.

Funeral services were held from her late home on Tuesday afternoon, June 12th, at 2 o'clock, by the West Newton Unitarian Church officiating. The Weber and Pilgrim Quartet sang the Twenty-third Psalm antiphonally which was a favorite of Mrs. Pearson; "Father What Ever of Earthly Bliss," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and following the benediction, the Jesus Amen. Burial was in Forest Hill Cemetery, where Mr. Jaynes conducted a committal service.

THE FESSENDEN SCHOOL

Graduation exercises of the Fessenden School were held Tuesday at the school in West Newton, a class of twenty-eight seniors taking part. The speaker was President Marion Reilly of Boston University.

The exercises were simple. There was vocal and instrumental music by pupils, the address by President Burton, the announcement of prizes and the awarding of diplomas by Frederick J. Fessenden, A. M., headmaster of the school.

The prize speaking contest was held on Wednesday evening. The winner was Harvey D. Paige, an undergraduate, who delivered the "Speech at Concord." Second prize went to Lusius J. Knowles, Jr., another lower-form student whose subject was Lewis Carroll's "The Mad Tea Party," while honorable mention was given Richardson Brown, a senior, whose topic was "The Red Fishermen." There were nine contestants. The judges were V. T. Hammer of Branford, Conn., P. F. Williams of West Newton and L. Nourse of West Newton.

Among the graduates this year is Richardson Brown of Auburndale.

CHILDREN'S DAY CONCERT

A very successful concert was given Sunday evening by the Sunday School of the Newtonville Methodist Church at six o'clock.

There were 32 numbers on the excellent program which was arranged, which included a Flag Salute by the school; chorus singing by the choir; singing by the Primary department; and by the Glee Club; selections by the Sunday School Orchestra.

Among those who took part were William Eddy, Robert Timble, Lydia Shakerian, Florence Evans, Robert Brown, Edith Stevens, Chester Babcock, Philip Bruce, Grace Taylor, Le Barron Griffin, George Blue, and John Lewis. Among the special numbers which were greatly enjoyed were "The Sunbeam's Welcome" by four little girls, Marjorie Sisson, Edith Stevens, Greta Purdy and Doris Gullford.

"When the Flag Goes By" by James, Elmer Blair and Frank Skelton, recitation and song by Crawford Anderson and six boys; Violin solo, "At Dawning" by Miss Marjorie Soden, duet, "How Betsey Made the Flag" by Archibald MacGregor and Carolyn McClellan; cello solo, by Miss Edith Soden, and a Flag Drill by fourteen girls.

The program closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, followed by the distribution of plants to the children of the Sunday School.

WILBUR THEATRE—If you are looking for the heartiest laugh of your life you had better hasten to Ye Wilbur and see "Mary's Ankle," the nearest turned entertainment that has amused Boston theatregoers in many a day. This hilarious frolic is convulsing large audiences at every performance and there is every indication that this new play is the hit of the year. Certainly so much laughter has never been heard in a theatre in this city as greeted the premier of the May Tully play on its opening night. While Miss Tully has written a farce that will make her rich and famous, equal credit must be given A. H. Woods, the man who produced it with a cast that could not be surpassed for individual and collective artistry. Such players as Irene Fenwick, Walter Jones, Zelda Sears, Louise Drew, Ida Darling, Bert Lytell, Leo Donnelly, T. W. Gibson, Barnett Parker and Wm. Morrissey could hardly be improved and the uproarious fun they extract from the clean and bright lines and unusual situations, is the result of good judgment on the manager's part.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Great Barrington, Mass.

"We are going to do away with the great American amusement of eating," said Mrs. S. F. Herron, chairman of the Home Economics department this morning, in explaining the proposed pledge of the Club women to abstain from luxuries and to consume only that amount of food necessary to sustain life. "To live up to the pledge it will be necessary to make a study of food values and to understand the balanced ration."

At the session yesterday afternoon reports from the Literature and Music departments were presented, both chairmen emphasizing the value of the cultural side of life because we are at war. "If we anticipate times of stress and gloom, let us not prepare by abandoning all that is cheerful. Rather, let us get ready by keeping alive every interest which brightens and gives color to its existence."

Mrs. Royal Whitton, chairman of the Endowment committee, stated in her report that 55 clubs will take tables at the Bazaar. She urged that in working for the endowment we are working for the war. Since we shall make it possible for the Federation to do work for which at present it has not the funds. The final decision as to the advisability of holding the Bazaar in the fall was left in the hands of the Endowment committee and the Executive Board, awaiting national developments.

The Education department added for study next year to the list of subjects now being considered, that of Education and National Defence, before which all others may shrink into insignificance. In addition to the work of the new State Board of Immigration, the chairman of the sub-committee on Americanization commended friendly interest in the new Americans on the part of the clubs. "The immigrant must be made to feel that he is a part of the country and this can only be assured through friendly and appreciative treatment by the members of the community in which he lives."

Eight new clubs were presented as members: The Brookline Woman's; Dorchester Thought; Early Morning of Springfield; Longmeadow Woman's; Traveler's of Lawrence; Woods Hole Woman's; Newton Highlands Woman's; and Italian Club of Boston.

In the evening the delegates were privileged to hear the beautiful organ of which the Great Barrington women are justly proud. A quartet of club members added to the enjoyment with selections especially well chosen and in keeping with the serious subject of the evening, "War Prohibition," presented by Rev. James Empringham of New York, president of the National Episcopal Church Temperance Society.

Dr. Empringham said in part: "Innumerable curses have afflicted humanity, the most of which have been done away with. It is sometimes said that the greatest curse in the world is war. But a scholar in our War College at Washington has given statistics to prove that more people are destroyed every year through the misuse of narcotic, habit-forming drugs than all the wars of all the ages from Christ down to the present world conflict. One of the most epoch-making discoveries of modern times has been the discovery of the true nature of this drug alcohol. We now know it to be a protoplasmic poison, injurious even in the smallest quantities."

I was in Europe when the war broke out and I know that military leaders and men of science of all the warring nations strongly urged the prohibition of this drug alcohol from all the fighting men, but the liquor trade had the Government of Britain so helplessly in its power, that it has forced drink back into the trenches. If the war be due to the greediness and power of the liquor traffic, the ceaseless fight against propositions which, to say the least, were of questionable import to the state; has so the book "Defeat or Victory" by Mee and Holden, tells some of the awful truths about the liquor traffic in England. This book has been prohibited in Canada and the other British colonies under a penalty of five years' imprisonment, for fear that Canadian mothers would know of the cesspool of disease and corruption which the dominant liquor traffic of Europe has made for the soldiers. In the United States the liquor traffic has no vested rights.

This cause cannot be won by inertia. Wilson will help us get prohibition as a war measure if he knows that the country wants it, but good authorities in Washington tell us that we have no idea how little Congress yet appreciates the strong sentiment for war prohibition in the northeastern states. Women, you must make this sentiment and make it at once. Go home and arrange a mass meeting. Get good speakers from the War Prohibition Committee in Boston, or from New York, whichever is most convenient, and pass resolution in favor of war prohibition to be sent President Wilson and Senators Lodge and Weeks. Gather up all the prohibition sentiment among your business men and send in a constant stream of telegrams and letters to Senators Lodge and Weeks and President Wilson. These men can be won if the sentiment is strong enough. It really depends upon you, the women of Massachusetts, to work unceasingly.

At the close of the address the company adjourned to the commodious Thursday Morning Club House, where the guests had an opportunity to meet the Federation officers, the speakers, and the hostess president and to partake of the gracious hospitality provided them.

A short session on Thursday morning closed the convention at which the remaining departments, Civics and Legislative reported, the trustees of the Endowment Fund, Mrs. Lena R. Wellington, Mrs. Royal Whitton, and Mrs. Herbert Pinkham were confirmed and the new officers were presented as follows:

President, Claire H. Gurney. Quincey Women's Club; First Vice President, Sara S. Gilson, Wellesley Hills Woman's Club; Second Vice President, Ella C. R. Whitton, Dorchester Woman's Club; Third Vice President, Grace V. Hibbard, Milton Woman's Club; Fourth Vice President, Marion C. Baker, Concord Woman's Club; Clerk, Mary Davis, Hawley, Cantebriga Club, Cambridge; Assistant Clerk, Pamela G. Webber, The Philharians, Braintree; Corresponding Secretary, Grace M. Poole, Woman's Club of Brockton; Treasurer, Louise C. Newell, West Roxbury Woman's Club. Directors, term to expire 1920: Eva W. Briggs, Woman's Club of Norwood; Nellie M. Gould, Worcester Woman's Club; Katharine Williams Herron, The Fortnightly, Winchester; Elizabeth F. Hood, Women's Association, Danvers; Gertrude A. Spaulding, The Friday Club, Everett. The Nominating Committee for 1917-1918: Helen C. Taylor, Chairman, Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Fannie M. Bullock, Springfield Women's Club; Frances T. Endicott, Chelsea Woman's Club; Rowena G. Fisher, Melrose Woman's Club; and Elizabeth A. H. Woodward, Fitchburg Woman's Club.

When came the usual courtesy resolutions and a pathing word from Mrs. Gurney urging the women to stand strongly for some action, to keep alive the spirit of cheer and at the same time not to forget the stern side nor the needs of human nature, the convention closed.

The delegates left town in the early afternoon, carrying with them the remembrance of the gracious hospitality, of the admirably adapted arrangements and of the nature beauty of the surroundings and a great desire to return ten years hence, when the strongly formed habit of the hostess club will bid them welcome still another time.

Auburndale Woman's Club is offering to all women and girls, 14 years and over a course of three practical talks and demonstrations, to be given at the Methodist Parish House, Central street, Auburndale, viz:

Tuesday, June 19, at 2.30 P. M., Demonstration Lecture by Miss Alice Bradley, Miss Farnes School of Cooking, on "Economic Cookery."

Thursday, June 21st, at 10.30 A. M., Miss A. G. Holbrower of the Middlesex County Farm Bureau, will talk on "Elimination of Waste." On the afternoon of the same day, June 21st, Miss Holbrower will give a demonstration on canning fruit, vegetables and meat, by cold pack method.

These lectures are free to the community and it is hoped many will take advantage of them.

Mr. Hoover in his appeal to the housewives of the United States urges the conservation of the staple food-stuffs, as far as possible, for winter use.

NEWTON 25 YEARS AGO

From the Newton Graphic of June 17, 1892

Newton Free Library trustees receive $5,515.43 legacy from estate of David B. Jewett.

Mr. Curtis Abbott advocates depression of railroad tracks in abolishing grade crossings.

(Extracts from editorials) "It is evident from comments on trains and elsewhere that public sentiment is generally in favor of elevating the railroad tracks through Newton."

"The sinking of the tracks would not leave the view entirely unobstructed as a six or eight foot board fence would still be needed to guard against men and animals falling into the tunnel and that would be nearly as objectionable as an embankment which would be either of stone or neatly turfed over and planted with shrubs and flowers." "It is confidently expected that within a few years all suburban trains at least will be run by electricity, which would do away with all the smoke and much of the noise." "The hot weather has brought out another strong argument against sinking the tracks through Newton, and thus cutting off any chance of pure air from the unfortunate passengers."

OUT-DOOR FESTIVAL

The Girls' Friendly Society of Massachusetts will hold an out-door festival on Monday, June 18th, from 2.30 until 6 o'clock, at Cedar Hill, the home of Miss Cornelia Warren in Waltham.

There will be an opportunity to see model dairy farm, the Maze, which is an exact reproduction of the one at Hampton Court, England, and there will also be three interesting entertainments in the rustic theatre during the afternoon. Admission to the grounds will be free. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and candy, will be on sale. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Rest Room, at 18 Huntington avenue, Boston. Waverley cars pass the estate.

Perfect attendance for the year, primary department: Dorothy Allen, Myrtle Seelye, Florence Stephen Kidder, Myrtle Seelye, Katherine Sheldon, Preston Sweetser, Junior department: Edgar Prescott Hills, Marjorie Nichols, David R. Hutchinson, Harriette Patey, Intermediate Department: Marjorie Carr, Evelyn Sheldon, Ruth P. Gordon, Helen Sheldon, and Veda Leonard. Bernice Hayes of the Kindergarten was absent only once.

The service closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Onward Christian Soldiers." This was the last meeting of the Sunday School until September.

Snow

Where paint is scanty, the winter gales drive snow into the wood's tiny cracks and crevices. There, in clackboards and under eaves, it melts, swells the boards until the paint is pushed off, and spreads decay which only carpentry can remedy.

How do your buildings fare in winter? They will stay sound and sturdy, not only in winter but in all seasons, if protected with Dutch Boy White-Lead, thinned with pure linseed oil, a paint that combines long-lasting protection and good looks.

BENEFIT OF BATTERY F

A good game of base ball was played on West Newton Common last Saturday between the West Newton A. team, composed of members of Battery F, and local athletes, and the strong team of the home team. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of the home team. Another game will be played tomorrow at 3.15 on the Common with a strong semi-pro team from out of town, and on Monday, June 18 at 10 P. M. at the same place they will play another game for the benefit of the listed men of Battery F. It is hoped that every patriotic citizen will make an effort to be present to contribute a little for the welfare of the boys who have responded to the call of our country for service, and who are ready, if need be, to give their lives for universal democracy.

BOSTON BOATY CLUB

Newton has become an important factor in the Boston Rotary Club as there are now some thirty-six members in that organization who have residences in the city. Mr. William C. Bamburg, of Newtonville, formerly vice president, has been elected president for the ensuing season, and Alderman Bancroft L. Goodwin of Newton Corner has been re-elected treasurer. On the board of directors there are Charles H. Simons of Swift & Co., Mitchell Wing, president of Mitchell Wing & Co., laundry supply house, and the two officers previously mentioned, all of whom are Newtonians. Other Newton members in the club, some of whom will, no doubt, be members of special committees during the ensuing year, are as follows:

Austin H. Decatur, president Decatur and Hopkins, wholesale hardware; Fred E. Mann, Columbia Graphophone Co.; Fred M. Blanchard, wool; Otis W. Holmes, efficiency engineer; Philip W. Carter, secretary-treasurer; Alumni Social Service Bureau; Dr. E. A. Eastman, dentist; Louis D. Gibbs, advertising manager Edison Electric Light Co.; Warner Marshall, bonds; Le Seur T. Collins, bonds; Jarvis Lamson, Lamson and Hubbard; H. A. Nealley, Joseph Dixon Crucible Co.; Charles H. Carpenter, public utilities on Cape Cod; George M. Coss, Washburn Crosby Co.; Clarence C. Colby, Lamson Electric Co.; Alexander F.

MR. WM. C. BAMBURG.

McWilliams, osteopath; Alfred H. Wing, Mitchell Wing & Co.; Leon R. Phillips, Swift and Co.; Joel A. Baker, John A. Dunn & Co.; Frank B. Eastman, poultryman; George W. McNear, automobile bodies; Albert H. Elder, Boston Belting Co.; Joseph C. Hagan, Rapid Service Press; Frank F. Jones, building construction; Allen D. Cady, Boston Wall Paper House; Henry D. Lloyd, Davidson Fan Co.; James A. Stafford, Multigraph Sales Co.; Severance Burrage, bacteriologist; Theodore H. Piser, Weisbach Co.; Grosvenor De W. Marcy, Sampson and Murdoch Co.; Frederick E. Harwood, Jeweller; William W. Heckman, importer; Andrew Perkins, Struvenant Haley Co.; Charles E. Ware, Boston Journal; Robert W. Douglas, public accountant.

The Boston Rotary Club now has a membership consisting of representatives of 250 businesses in the city of Boston and suburbs. Only one representative of a business can be a member, excepting that in some businesses there may be admitted an associate member of the same firm or company. The international organization of Rotary business men has now become very important in the business world of the United States, as there are over two hundred and ninety-five clubs throughout the country and in England, Scotland and Ireland as well as in Cuba. Over thirty thousand members are already enrolled, few of the clubs being larger than that in Boston.

ABANDON FOOD PREJUDICES

Don't Be Fickly
Be willing to try new foods. Certain plentiful and nourishing foods widely used and enjoyed in one section are practically unknown in other sections of the country. Learn to know ALL the good things; not a few only.

People too easily get into food ruts—insist on eating only the food they are used to and refuse to give a fair trial to others. This causes undue demand for certain staples, with resulting scarcity or high prices when crops are short. At the same time other valuable foods may be relatively cheap and available. A striking instance of this is failure fully to appreciate rice—a valuable source of starch—when potatoes are scarce and high. Another example is refusal in certain sections to use anything but wheat as a breadstuff when corn—a valuable cereal widely used elsewhere as a breadstuff—is plentiful and relatively cheap.

Cook Food Properly
Learn how to cook all kinds of staple foods and to serve them in a variety of ways. Simple dishes well prepared are better than expensive foods badly cooked.

Many persons are prejudiced against certain good foods because, when first tried, the foods were improperly cooked or prepared.

Remove from your vocabulary "don't like" or "can't eat."
Most individual prejudices against widely popular foods are either imaginary or baseless.

Try to like simple food; give it a fair trial.

REAL ESTATE

Edmands and Byfield announce the sale for A. Dudley Dowd of Newton, of the property No. 103 Prince street, West Newton. It consists of a high class dwelling and about 15,000 feet of land. F. E. HARTLEY—BRACKETT

Notable among the June weddings was that on Tuesday evening of Miss Ruth Snow Brackett and Mr. Richard Cook Borden Hartley, son of Mrs. N. B. and the late Philip A. Hartley of Fall River, which took place in Channing Church. The bride is a graduate of Mt. Ida School, Class of 1911, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Brackett of Bellevue street, Newton.

The church was effectively decorated in a combination scheme of pink and green, with pink roses, hydrangeas, palms and laurel, the altar being literally banked with hydrangeas and roses.

The ceremony was performed at half after eight by Rev. Harry Lutz the pastor. As the bridal party assembled at the chancel, the Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Dietz Orchestra of Boston, and during the ceremony the Traumerai was played on the violin.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was beautifully gowned in white chiffon velvet with silver lace, and carried a tulle muff adorned with a cluster of lilies of the valley and orchids. She wore a tulle veil with band of silver, and was preceded by a little flower bearer, Mary Russ of Newton, who was attired in white pussy willow taffeta and carried a gold basket filled with pink sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Cyrus A. Case of Montgomery, Ala., as best man and the ushers included Mr. Paul Avery of Winchester, Mr. C. Henry Brackett, cousin of the bride, of Newton, Mr. Lewis F. Kornfeld of Newtonville; Mr. Edward Borden and Mr. Harley Talbot of Fall River, and Mr. Herbert M. Warren, 2nd, of Chestnut Hill.

Following the ceremony at the church, an informal reception was held at the bride's residence. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley were assisted in receiving by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brackett and Mrs. Hartley. Mrs. Brackett was handsomely gowned in white satin and wore a heavily embroidered crepe shawl with pearl trimmings, which was a family heirloom. Mrs. Hartley wore an exquisite gown of white satin and tulle, with corsage of lavender orchids.

In the dining room, where a buffet supper was served, the wedding colors were carried out in the decorations, and a large mound of pink sweet heart roses surrounded by pale pink shaded candles in silver candlesticks, were arranged as a centre piece on the table.

About 700 guests of social prominence were present at the church ceremony, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Mitchell of Rosemont, Penn., Mr. and Mrs. Louis McHenry Howe of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hartley of Fall River, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. M. J. Hartley of Fall River, Mrs. Annie Bunker of Jamaica Plain, Mrs. Marita Burdett of Hingham, Miss Minnie Brackett of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Fountain of New Jersey, Miss Alameda Littlefield of Rhode Island, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Townsend of Brookline, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Cobb, Mr. Henry E. Cobb, Miss Cobb and Miss Helen Cobb, Mr. James E. Clark, and Miss Mildred Lucy Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Edgar Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Breck, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Plummer Russ, Mr. George A. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Riley and Miss Mabel Louise Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman O. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. William Hobart Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard G. Brackett, Miss Eleanor Brackett, Mr. Fred W. Stone, Miss Katharine Stone and Miss Marjorie Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Pratt, and Miss Katherine Pratt of Newton; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Warren of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. E. S. Crosby and Mr. Porter Crosby of Jamaica Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley left on an extended wedding trip and on their return will reside at 247 Rock street, Fall River.

"Many a Mickle Makes a Muckle"

ONE-HALF CUP OF MILK

Half a cup of milk—whole, skimmed or sour—a seemingly trifling matter—hardly worth the trouble to keep or use.

In many households quite a little milk is wasted—left uncovered in glasses—regarded as useless because the cream has been skimmed off—allowed to sour—poured down the sink or thrown out.

Now, if every home—there are 20,000,000 of them—should waste on the average one-half cup daily, it would mean a waste of 2,500,000 quarts daily—912,500,000 quarts a year—the total product of more than 400,000 cows.

It takes a lot of grass and grain to make that much milk—and an army of people to produce and deliver it.

But, every household doesn't waste a half cup of milk a day? Well, say that one-half sup is wasted in only one out of a hundred homes. Still intolerable—when milk is so nutritious—when skim milk can be used in making nutritious soups and cereal dishes—when sour milk can be used in bread making or for cottage cheese.

The United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or your State agricultural college will tell you how to use left-over milk—sweet, skimmed, or sour.

GIRL SCOUTS OF NEWTONVILLE

One of the first troops of Girl Scouts to be formed in the vicinity of Boston was that organized in Newtonville about four months ago. The initial move was made when Mrs. James J. Storrow of Boston was asked through the Newtonville Branch of the Special Aid, to address a mass meeting at the Newton High School, last March. Mrs. Storrow spoke with earnestness and enthusiasm of the possibilities for Girl Scouts, and awakened a keen interest in all who were present. Through the Newtonville Special Aid, a local council was immediately appointed consisting of Mrs. James C. Irwin, chairman; Mrs. Albert H. Carter, Mrs. Wm. H. Lucas, and Mr. James Stafford. Miss Elizabeth Westgate, teacher of Physical Education in the Newton schools, was selected as captain, and the following lieutenants named: Misses Marion Bowen, Ruth Chapin, Jeanette Daboll, Ruth Howell, Elizabeth Leavens, Mary Rolfe, Mrs. W. N. Dudley, and Mrs. C. G. McDavitt.

The interest among the young girls has been intense from the start and the weekly meetings, which through the courtesy of the school authorities, have been held in the High School gymnasium, have been all too infrequent to suit the wishes of the enthusiasts.

The work of these scouts, while similar to that of the Boy Scouts, is yet quite different in its adaptation to the needs of the girls. The requirements for the tenderfoot tests, the first to be passed, are virtually the same as for Boy Scouts. The higher tests, however, differ in that they require a knowledge of sewing, knitting, cooking, and many housekeeping essentials, but are like the Boy Scouts in that they include first aid, semaphore signaling, Morse code, and various branches of woodcraft.

Eighty-eight girls are enrolled in the Newtonville troop, over sixty of whom have already passed the tenderfoot test and two the second-class test, with several others almost ready to be examined. The Boy Scouts under Mr. W. N. Dudley, Scoutmaster, have been most generous in giving instruction to the girls in semaphore signalling, first aid, and fire-building; special credit is due scouts Bowen, Dudley, Irwin, Leonard, and Noyes for their untiring efforts.

On several occasions the organization has proved very helpful, particularly last Saturday when a house-to-house canvass was made in Newtonville for Red Cross membership, and the girls succeeded in securing 125 new names for membership.

Since the organization of Troop 1 of Newtonville, there have been formed Troop 2 of Newton, and Troop 3 of Newton Centre. During the last week Miss Susan W. Hills of Newton Highlands, formerly a teacher of Physical Education, has been appointed commissioner for all Newton.

SAVE YOUR WAR TAXES

According to Mr. N. E. Oliver of New York City, Diamond Tire Control Manager, the motorist, by selecting his tire company and properly caring for it after he has it, can save a very appreciable amount, which will most probably be large enough to cover the average man's war taxes.

"This does not mean retrenchment," said Mr. Oliver, "it simply means that in order to protect himself the motorist has got to pay more attention to the way in which he uses, and in many cases abuses, his tires. The fact that the tire factories are hard put to keep up with the demand for tires means that sooner or later the automobile owner is not going to get tires when he wants them. And for this reason The Diamond Rubber Company, knowing the rubber and fabric market and perhaps having a larger producing capacity than any other company in the country, takes this opportunity of warning motorists for their own good to look to their tires.

LIBERTY LOAN ACROSTIC

By Robert Grant, of the Writers' War Committee

L stands for loyalty; are you true blue?

I is for ink and the pen's up to you.

B is the Bond that your country cries "take."

E is the exertion it asks you to make.

R is for risk—not one mite do you run.

T suggests traitor; a slacker is one.

Y is the yip we shall give when it's done.

L is the Loan we are pledged to put through.

O stands for billions; we've got to raise two.

A is the aim of big guns; let them roar.

Wedding Rings at STOWELL'S

Starting with the early Egyptians the ring has always been the sacred symbol of marriage. In modern times a severe gold band has been the accepted token. Fashion has become weary of conveying so little sentiment in the appearance and design of the wedding ring. The decorated ring is now universally accepted—thus giving a wide choice for the expression of personal taste and individuality.

We have on display a great variety of decorated wedding rings. Perhaps the Orange Blossom design is the most popular and appropriate either in platinum, green gold, or platinum lined with gold. Other designs in platinum set with diamonds, gold with diamonds, or gold overlaid with platinum and set with diamonds.

One of the duties of Americans today is to "think straight" about the present crisis. The long course of events which has brought us into the War has been made plain through newspapers, magazine articles, and scores of books. To those who care to trace the history of the past months we offer the following list taken from the National Institute of Efficiency department in "The Independent". It has been prepared with a view to the requirements of the average American citizen at this time.

What the War is About
Why we are at war: the President's messages to Congress and to the American people since January, 1917. JZQ-W69W
The issue, by J. W. Headlam. A statement of the German aims. JZQ-H34

The new map of Europe, by H. A. Gibbons. A study of the two Balkan wars, and the resulting conditions, which led to the Great War. F079-G35

Diplomatic backgrounds of the war, by Charles Seymour. JZ30-S52
Belgium, neutral and loyal, by Emile Waxweiler. Just what Belgium did in August, 1914. F079-W36

—The Girls' Friendly Society of St. Mary's Church will give an entertainment in aid of their Red Cross work in the Parish Hall, next Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock. The program will consist of the play "Rubber Boots," "Vision of Fair Women," cornet and mandolin solos and song entitled, "The Soldier and the Red Cross Nurse." Ice cream and candy will be on sale.

JANES—DAME

A charming June wedding took place Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Dame in Weston, when their daughter, Miss Mildred Frances Dame was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Baker James, Dartmouth, 17 son of Mr. and Mrs. John Elmer James of Washington avenue, Waltham.

The home of the bride on Ridgeway road was very elaborately decorated for the occasion with white lilies, palms and cut flowers, and in the bay window of the drawing room, where the bridal party stood during the ceremony a floral arch with white lilies and blackberry leaves and white tulle was arranged artistically.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. William C. Gordon, pastor of the Auburndale Congregational Church. As the bridal procession entered the Mendelssohn Wedding March was played by Miss Martha Gifford of Newton, an intimate friend of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an exquisite wedding gown of ivory white satin in combination with georgette crepe. Her veil was of duchesse lace and tulle and she carried a full shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Emily C. Childs of Waban as maid of honor, who was gown in orchid satin with orchid tulle draperies and carried lavender sweet peas and orchids.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel M. James, sister of the bridegroom, of Waltham, and Miss Eleanor J. Eaton of Auburndale; Miss James was attired in shell pink satin draped with tulle and Miss Eaton in Nile green satin draped with tulle. Both young ladies carried Ophelia roses.

The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Harold B. James of Waltham, as best man and the ushers were Willard W. S. Alderman of Springfield, a former member of the class of 1919 Dartmouth, and Mr. Dwight O'Hara, Dartmouth '15, and a member of the Harvard Medical School.

A large and brilliant reception was held after the ceremony and the young people were assisted in receiving by their parents.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

Vacation Books

Vacation books! that is, books for Newton people to take away with them during the summer season, may be taken at any time from the Newton Free Library or its branches. All of our 95,000 books, except those few issued within a year or two, may be taken under this vacation plan.

In order to suggest to our patrons possible vacation localities the main Library and the Newton Centre Branch Library has on exhibition a varied collection of 1917 railroad and steamboat folders. These cover the various lines of the east and a number in other sections of the country. One folder says, "to say that New England is the summer home of presidents, cabinet officials and ambassadors does not begin to tell the story of its popularity." It is the great mass of our people who have set the seal of approval on New England as their choice for vacation land.

In addition to this material, there are also many titles among our books which are well worth re-reading at this time of year. For Maine, why not spend some of these warm summer evenings which at last seem to be here, perusing such books as Thoreau's. The Maine woods. G841-T39

Coast of Maine, by J. G. Whittier and others. G841-C63

Emerson's. The latching to Maine woods and waters. G841-E53

Haines. Caco Bay yarns. G841-H33 or New Hampshire is the choicest try Bolles. At the north of Bearcamp Water. G842-B63

Kilbourne. Chronicles of the White Mountains. G842-K55

King. The White Hills. G842-K58

Musgrove. The White Hills in poetry; an anthology. YP-SM96

Packard. White Mountain trails. G842-P12

Appalachian Mountain Club. Guide to the paths and camps in the White Mountains. G842-A64

Thaxter. Among the Isles of Shoals. G842-T33

For Vermont, there is little to suggest but the material in general works about New England.

For Massachusetts, there is Edwards. The romantic shore. G844-F26

Garrett. The Pilgrim shore. G844-G19

Garrett. Romance and reality of the puritan coast. G844-G19R

Grant. The North Shore of Massachusetts. G844-G76

Adams. Nature studies in Berkshire. G844-B4-A

Perry. A trip around Cape Cod. G844C6-P

Thoreau. Cape Cod. G844C6-T
Mallory. Lenox and the Berkshire highlands. G844L5-M
Hine. The story of Martha's Vineyard. G844M36-H
Bliss. September days on Nantucket. G844N1-B

Rhode Island is pleasantly suggested in such books as Bacon. Narragansett Bay. G845-B13
Munro. Picturesque Rhode Island. G845N-B
Higginson. Oldport days. G845N-H
Griswold. Old Wickford. G845W-G
Connecticut like Vermont is yet to be written about but in general works about New England some information may be gathered. For such books try Baker. The favorite motor ways of New England. G84-B17
Red road book for all New England. G84-GR245
Automobile blue book. G83-6A9
Sargent. A handbook of New England, 1916. G84-6S2
Bullard. Historic summer haunts from Newport to Portland. G84-B87
Hale. We discover New England. G84-H133
Hawthorne. Old seaport towns of New England. G84-H31

—The chorus choir at Eliot Church has completed its season and will be on vacation until October.

WELLMAN—GILES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday evening in the Church of the New Jerusalem at Newtonville, when Miss Carrie Giles, became the bride of Mr. Prescott Hamilton Wellman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Chauncey Giles of New York and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Carter of West Newton and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Wellman of Newton Highlands.

A large company of guests were present at the Church which was artistically decorated in a wedding color scheme of green and white, with roses, pinks, ferns, palms, and white lilies.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. E. M. Lawrence Gould, assisted by the pastor, Rev. John Goldard.

As the bridal party assembled at the chancel Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by the organist, Mr. Albert Luke Walker.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an exquisite wedding gown of cream white liberty chiffon, court train, and tulle veil fastened with a spray of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was a full shower of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Evelyn Carter of West Newton as maid of honor who was very attractively gowned in pale pink and blue tulle combined with orchid colored satin and carried pink and lavender sweet peas, tied with blue ribbon.

The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Noel Wellman of Cleveland, Ohio, as best man and the ushers were Mr. Philip Zer Planck of Brookline, Mr. Herman Page of Cambridge, Mr. Kenneth Domett of Boston, Mr. Archie Wellman of Cambridge, Mr. William Nash of Cambridge, and Mr. Carlton Kimball of Andover.

A large reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church parlors and the young people received from 8.30 until 10. In the evening the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Wellman, and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Giles.

Mrs. Carter was gown in black and white lace over orchid silk; Mrs. Giles wore beige silk with white lace, and Mrs. Wellman's gown was black lace over satin, and she wore a corsage bouquet of red roses. During the reception a program of choice musical selections was rendered by Urquid's Orchestra of Boston.

Guests of social prominence were present from New York, Boston, Springfield, Brookline, Cambridge, and the Newtons.

On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wellman will reside on Madison avenue, Newtonville.

NEWTON SPECIAL AID NOTES

An open meeting of the Newton Branch of the Special Aid Society for American Preparedness will be held in Channing Church parlors, Friday afternoon, June 22 at three o'clock.

Mrs. H. D. Heathfield, President of the Woman's Seaman's Friend Society, will be present, and will speak about the work for the sailors.

All Newton women who are members of this organization will be especially glad to hear her.

Captain Arthur Stone, chaplain of the Charlestown Navy Yard will speak on the value of Social Service in connection with the men in the Navy.

Captain Porter of the Marblehead Training Corps will give an interesting talk about the needs of the men in that organization, and Miss Elizabeth Norton of the New England Branch of the American Fund for French Wounded, also, will speak. This is sure to be a live meeting, bristling with interesting and valuable information, and on Newton woman with patriotic instincts can afford to miss it.

The official headquarters have been transferred from Hunnewell Club to Channing Church during the summer. The hours will be as usual, week days except Saturdays from ten to twelve, and those wishing to join the Special Aid can do so there.

The attractive patriotic post cards are on sale at Channing Church parlors at 10 cents per dozen. Send a dozen to some distant friend.

The Patriotic buttons for the boys and girls have arrived and are on sale at the Newton Library at 3 cents each, and 12 cents for those joining Special Aid.

Many women have been much interested in the Canning and Cooking Courses conducted by Mrs. H. A. Nealey. These will continue during the summer under Miss Alice Bradley at Miss Farmer's Cooking School, 30 Huntington avenue, Boston, under Special Aid auspices.

Miss Helen Bridges, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bridges, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Loveland, and Miss Helen O'Brien, held an attractive sale of fancy articles, cake and lemonade, at her home on Fairmont avenue. Tea also was served to the mothers present.

A delightful afternoon was enjoyed and the generous sum of $18 was turned over to the Special Aid as the result of the patriotic efforts of the little tots.

Channing Church parlors will be closed Monday afternoon on account of the holiday.

ANNUAL CRADLE ROLL PARTY

The fifth annual cradle roll party was given at the New Church parlors on Tuesday, June 12th, under the direction of Mrs. Clinton B. Willey, the assistant superintendent.

There were over forty young children present with their parents.

The children were entertained with Kindergarten and other games. Some of the children present were very young and contented themselves with blocks. The older children were entertained with stories which Mrs. Richard B. Carter told in her interesting way.

Refreshments were served and caps and favors were presented to the children. The decorations were panels of Japanese crepe paper and the flowers used were white lilies and pansies.

CITY HALL

At a special meeting of the aldermen last evening $500 was granted for the Garbage Collection contract.

GRADUATION OF MISS MYRTA O. BOSWORTH

O. BOSWORTH

The Russell School of Expression and Literature of 30 Huntington avenue, Boston, recently graduated Miss Myrta O. Bosworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. K. Bosworth of 277 Eliot street, Newton Upper Falls.

Miss Bosworth's work was considered to be far above the average. She sustained the role of Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice" in a manner to call forth much admiration.

In recitation of two long monologues she held her audience intensely interested as she easily gave forth vividly word picture after word picture.

Her voice work was remarkable and her stage presence charming. In the role of Pandora in a pantomime of Pandora, she was fascinatingly graceful every moment telling some point in the story.

Miss Bosworth is intending to teach expression this coming season, and her many friends are congratulating her upon her successful debut.

ANNUAL MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

A most interesting meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held last Thursday afternoon at the residence of the President, Mrs. Sarah E. K. Mick, Parker street, Newton Centre. Annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and Mrs. W. E. Birdsal gave an intensely interesting and helpful address.

Mrs. Mick was re-elected president, the vice presidents elected are Mrs. Annie I. Eaton, Mrs. Mattie L. Townsend, and Mrs. Richard Cody; the recording secretary, Mrs. H. S. Jenkins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Kane; treasurer, Mrs. Martha Jenkins; auditor, Rev. G. W. Jones.

President Early calls attention to a most important matter at the meeting this week of the aldermen when he urged a greater responsibility for some city official over high tension wires and pole construction. Few persons realize the enormous growth of electrical work in this city, and the tremendous detailed oversight which must be exercised by the Inspector of Wires, who is also the Chief of the Fire Dept. The solution of the difficulty seems to lie along the line of separating these two offices and the appointment of one man as a Wire Commissioner. With the full care of the Fire Dept., the duties of Fire Warden, the control of gasoline permits, and the extension of inspection work of basements and stores, etc., the time has about arrived for the Chief of Fire Dept. to be relieved of the work of inspection of wires and poles.

The suggestion of Mr. F. W. Rane at the meeting of the aldermen last Monday night to the effect that no one knew what taxes would be next year, and that no unusual or unnecessary expenses ought to be placed on the taxpayers of this city, should be given the most careful consideration, as it strikes a note of warning at the right time. Three matters considered by the aldermen on Monday night might well come within that category, for California street and West street have existed for many years without curbing and the new refrigerator at the City Home can very well be postponed for at least a year. The city has plenty of absolutely necessary calls for its money, and every possible appropriation that can be economically put over should be avoided the present summer.

In his retirement from active official life in this city, Probation Officer Martin C. Laffie will carry with him the respect and good will of all who have been acquainted with the faithful and conscientious manner in which he had performed the trying and multifarious nature of the duties of that office.

The Liberty Loan committee of this city announces that the allotment for Newton was 100 per cent oversubscribed—a condition extremely flattering to everyone who took part in making it a success.

Alderman Blake is moving in the right direction in preventing the bit board situation to the Constitutional Convention.

Marriage certificates and college diplomas are rather prominent at the present time.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The Constitutional Convention has just started, although it first met over two weeks ago. In the organization of first convention, Messrs. Powers, Lowell, and Richardson of this city voted for Ex-Gov. John L. Bates for president and Messrs. Anderson and Winslow voted for Sherman L. Whipple. President Bates has just appointed the convention committees. Mr. Powers serving on the important committee on Rules and Procedure and on the Initiative and Referendum. Mr. Lowell is chairman of the committee on labor, Dr. Anderson is on the Bill of Rights, Dr. Winslow on Education, and Mr. Richardson on Amendment and Modification of the Constitution.

The committees will now hold public hearings on the various matters coming before the convention and will probably begin to make reports sometime next month.

The Newton aldermen have presented a resolution asking for authority to regulate bill boards and all forms of outdoor advertising. Mr. Frank H. Burt of Brookline, who has been associated as short-hand reporter for many years, and Mr. Arthur T. Lovell of Boston, a well known court and convention reporter, have been appointed by Secretary James W. Kimball of the constitutional convention as reporters of the proceedings and debates of that body. Mr. Burt finished last week his thirty-first year as an official stenographer of the Superior Court, having entered the service in Plymouth, June 15, 1886. Messrs. Burt and Haskel have been engaged together on important murder trials and other cases of importance in nearly every part of the state, the most noted being the trial of Lizzy Borden in 1893. For many years Mr. Burt has reported conventions of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, the American Philatelic Society, the American Unitarian Association, and the Free Religious Association. He has reported twice in European sessions of the International Congress of Free Christianity and Religious Progress, at Berlin in 1910 and Paris in 1913. He is an honorary member of the New York Shorthand Reporters' Association and contributed a paper to their last volume of proceedings, on "Reporting in Europe."

25 YEARS OLD

On June 22nd, 1892, its first meeting was held in the City Hall at West Newton. Beginning with about $1,200.00 deposited at its first meeting, it has steadily grown and now has about $425,000.00 in good assets.

The officers of the West Newton Co-operative Bank are justly proud of their record, for in all their transactions and all of the many loans, which are generally of the smaller type, less than $3000.00 has been lost during its twenty-five years' service in the community. They claim that such a record deserves the continued and increased support of the people in West Newton.

From its small quarters in an upstairs room, it has moved into the office formerly occupied by the Savings Bank next to the Post Office, where it has convenient quarters, making it accessible to all. It has been distinctively a West Newton institution. Its aim is to serve its immediate community. It has had but two presidents, Mr. Marcus Morton, who held that office until his death and since then, Mr. Charles E. Hatfield. It has had as treasurer, Mr. Robert Bennett, Mr. Herbert P. Pierce, Mr. Arthur C. Carroll, Mr. Francis Newhall, and Mr. Joseph A. Symonds. Its present officers are, Mr. Charles E. Hatfield, president; Francis Newhall, vice president; Joseph A. Symonds, treasurer, and directors, Francis J. Burrage, Harry L. Burrage, Robert S. Harrison, Charles E. Hatfield, Fred M. Lowe, Mr. Frank Lucas, Francis Newhall, Ellery Peabody, George Royal Pulsifer, Joseph B. Ross, Joseph A. Symonds, Sidney B. Thomas, Henry L. Whittlesey, and Edward P. Woods.

The Bank Commissioner's report of last year showed that there were one hundred and eighty-three co-operative banks in Massachusetts with over $113,000,000.00 in assets.

This bank has never paid less than 5 per cent per annum and still it has a surplus and guaranty fund amounting to $14,900.00.

No advance in his tuning price, so Frank A. Locke informs us. We are grateful there is one thing that has not advanced.

NELLY ALLEN, WASHBURN

Newton people will remember Mrs. George Washburn of Medfield, who died June 17, as Nelly Allen of West Newton, the daughter of Joseph Allen, who was connected with his brother Nathaniel Allen in the Allen School. Mrs. Washburn has always been a woman of influence and note in every city and town she has lived in. Newton, Medfield and Westboro. She had a wonderful voice which many Newton people will remember, as she sang at the Unitarian Church functions, at all the operettas and concerts, etc., at the old City Hall. She and her sister founded the Woman's Club of Medfield and were instrumental in procuring the best speakers in Medfield on Peace, Suffrage, and all the questions of the day.

She died suddenly at the old Allen home in Medfield, leaving her husband, George Washburn and daughter Lucy. The services were Wednesday in the Unitarian Church in Medfield.

AUBURDALE REAL ESTATE

E. Burnard Squire reports the sale of the old Ware Estate on Commonwealth avenue, and Ware road. This interesting property comprises about three acres of land, a colonial type house, and large estate. The house was erected about 1783 and is in excellent condition. Albert E. Watts, the purchaser, will occupy as a home. The assessed valuation is $9000.

PREPAREDNESS AS ACCOMPLISHED IN THE SCHOOL

as follows: "I hereby acknowledge the loan to me of one Service Badge to be worn during my term of service; the same to remain the property of the Commonwealth until I shall have received my Honorable Discharge. I promise to return this badge to my Supervisor if I leave the service prior to my honorable discharge, or if I fail to comply with all the conditions of my enlistment."

Following is a list of the proposed regulations for Boys' Camps. 1st Instructor—Captain—Camp Supervisor; 1st Lieutenant—Second Assistant Supervisor. Students—1st Sergeant—Plattsburg or Plum Island boy; 6 Corporals—Responsible for 3 boys each.

The camp will be conducted under strict military discipline, and each boy will be answerable to the Camp Supervisor as he would to a superior officer. The Camp supervisor will have complete control of the Camp under the district supervisor. He will administer the camp under the following rules:

1—All boys will conform punctually (unless physically incapacitated) to the schedule of hours which will be posted on going into camp.

2—No absence from Camp will be allowed without permission from the supervisor. Permission must be obtained in writing, and blanks for that purpose will be provided. These blanks must be countersigned by the person visited.

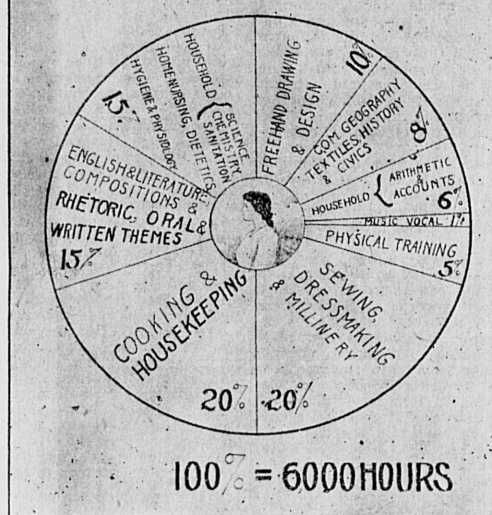

3—Visitors will be received evenings and Sundays and will be required to register. The authorities will be glad to show visitors over the camps.

4—Personal cleanliness will be strictly exacted from each boy, and clean clothes must be provided. Wherever possible provision will be made.

—He might have been a millionaire, and won financial fame. Or sat in a director's chair. Had money been his aim; He chose instead to spend his years in service poorly paid. And with the paste pot and the shears A humble living made.

He chronicled the town's events—The local goings-on; His fellow townsmen's hopes and bent. Inspired his lexicon. He felt the public pulse that beat Around him, and he tried To make his little country sheet A thing of local pride.

Unselfishly, with all his heart, He strove but to uplift His town, of which he was a part, With great ambition filled. He spoke well of his fellow men; He praised when praise was due; He wielded but a kindly pen, And—no reward he drew.

TO CELEBRATE A VICTORY

The members, wives and friends of Mount Ida Council, No. 1247, R. A. composed of representative residents of the Newtons, will celebrate by a Strawberry Festival, entertainment and informal dance, on Monday evening, June 25th, at Dennison Hall, Newtonville, the recent victory of the order in the Supreme Court.

One of the jolliest social events of this "merry month of June" was the Re-Union of the Class of 1914 Radcliffe College which was held Saturday evening at the residence of Miss Lucy Mildred Clark, the Class Marshall.

The Class of 1914 had, as guests of honor, the members of the Class of 1911. The spacious Clark mansion on Claremont street, Newton, fairly resounded with mirth and gaiety and about seventy college girls from Cambridge participated in the festivities.

The guests came to Newton in a special car and on its arrival the hostess had them conveyed in automobiles to her home, and all the while the table was decorated in yellow with a large centerpiece of yellow tulips arranged effectively with ferns. Miss Dorothy Tewksbury the Class president was among the guests.

An interesting feature was a barn dance with music by a hurdy-gurdy which was greatly enjoyed.

The floral decorations in all of the rooms were carried out in yellow, the class color, and the delightful affair was in charge of Miss Ruth Wadman, Miss Mary Burrage, and Miss Clark the hostess, and these young ladies were most attractive wearing neat little bright yellow sun-bonnets with yellow neckties to match.

In the dining-room where a refreshment course was served the table was decorated in yellow with a large centerpiece of yellow tulips arranged effectively with ferns. Miss Dorothy Tewksbury the Class president was among the guests.

July 15th. After that one generally passes 2 or 3 weeks in formation with a battery before getting definitely assigned to the front. We of the Ecole Regimentaire are more or less privileged and do not have horse-cleaning, etc., to perform which is a blessing and one I won't enjoy if I am transferred to the cavalry.

I will take back what I told you regarding food and will allow you to send me anything you care to in the line of confitures, potted meats, etc. They help along and make the bread slide down the gullet more easily. Don't send much at any one time as it might get lost on the way and might spoil here. Eggs are not worth while, I can get all I need here at nearby farm houses. Two things I wish you would send me are (1) a tube of tooth paste and (2) paper.

And there you are, my soldier life commenced! I shall soon have enough of this place and shall hope to be sent out to a regular battery as soon as possible. But that can't be before 2 mos. at the earliest. Now as it's getting dark and as there are 3 Flemings in the room arising in their native lingo, I shall resist until tomorrow.

On arising this morning I find the warm spell gone and a heavy damp fog blowing in across the plain from the ocean, all of which tends to make camp life less agreeable. Nevertheless I managed to crawl from my blankets in time for roll call. In a few minutes we are off to the stables to harness up and the day's work commences.

Write as often as you can and tell me of all the preparations for war going on at home. I am glad and so is everyone else here that the U. S. has decided to march against the Bosche.

Affectionately,
EDWARD.

July 15th. After that one generally passes 2 or 3 weeks in formation with a battery before getting definitely assigned to the front. We of the Ecole Regimentaire are more or less privileged and do not have horse-cleaning, etc., to perform which is a blessing and one I won't enjoy if I am transferred to the cavalry.

I will take back what I told you regarding food and will allow you to send me anything you care to in the line of confitures, potted meats, etc. They help along and make the bread slide down the gullet more easily. Don't send much at any one time as it might get lost on the way and might spoil here. Eggs are not worth while, I can get all I need here at nearby farm houses. Two things I wish you would send me are (1) a tube of tooth paste and (2) paper.

And there you are, my soldier life commenced! I shall soon have enough of this place and shall hope to be sent out to a regular battery as soon as possible. But that can't be before 2 mos. at the earliest. Now as it's getting dark and as there are 3 Flemings in the room arising in their native lingo, I shall resist until tomorrow.

On arising this morning I find the warm spell gone and a heavy damp fog blowing in across the plain from the ocean, all of which tends to make camp life less agreeable. Nevertheless I managed to crawl from my blankets in time for roll call. In a few minutes we are off to the stables to harness up and the day's work commences.

Write as often as you can and tell me of all the preparations for war going on at home. I am glad and so is everyone else here that the U. S. has decided to march against the Bosche.

Affectionately,
EDWARD.

MAKECHIEF VIOLIN SCHOOL

The fourteenth annual recital of the Makechief Violin School was given in Franklin Union Hall last Tuesday evening, June 19. It drew the usual large attendance of representatives of Newton families who were most liberal in applause as the orchestral and solo numbers succeeded each other.

Sun

The sun's scorching rays dry out exposed wood and cause it to crack. Next comes the driving rain, soaking the parched boards. Decay follows.

Protect your house from the sun with paint made of Dutch Boy White-Lead thinned with pure linseed oil. That is proof against all sorts of weather and long keeps a handsome, smooth appearance.

Whatever your needs in painting (big or little) we have both the advice and all the materials necessary for a first-class job. Write, phone or call.

WILBUR THEATRE—"Mary's An-

bur, begins its fourth week next Monday, June 25th. This splendid entertainment from the pen of May Tully has jumped into first place in the estimation of theatregoers judging by the full houses which greet the rise of every curtain. Its success was instantaneous and much of the honor must go to the excellent cast supplied by Manager A. H. Woods. The staging of the play commands attention.
The realism of the boat scene arouses much comment and applause. The illusion of the steamer moving out of its dock and into the ocean is complete and effective. The regular matinees are given Wednesday and Saturday.

GAVE A HOSPITAL

An American Born Woman of Conspicuous Achievement.

ATTENDS FRIEND AND FOE.

Daughter of Baron Stevens of Boston Married an English Nobleman and Founded a Hospital That Did Remarkable Service in Serbia.

The Austro-Hungarian government has made public a high official tribute to the services rendered in Serbia by Lady Paget and her hospital. It is one of the rare occasions in this great war in which one belligerent nation has said a kind word, even in the name of humanity, about the subject of an enemy nation.

Lady Paget's hospital work in Serbia is well known to Americans, for she labored in direct co-operation with the American Red Cross. Says the report:
"Even under the Serbian regime it was thanks to Lady Paget's mission

LADY PAGET.

among our prisoners that the epidemic of typhus did not have more victims.
In her hospital she continually nursed 70 per cent of our soldiers. Those who recovered were well nourished and given clean linen and shoes before they were sent to the prison camp. The attendants in her hospital she recruited entirely out of our soldiers, who were well fed and housed. She always gave them clean linen, good clothes and good shoes. Lady Paget repeatedly visited our prison camp and did all she could to induce the Serbians to be humane in their treatment of our people. The lady herself was the soul of the mission.

As a result of Lady Paget's friendly treatment of the Austro-Hungarian prisoners she became the victim of suspicion in England and had to justify herself in a London meeting. There she declared: "for we have read the speech which she made there—that she would continue her activity and if the standpoint that she took was not acceptable she would give up her post as the leader of this mission."

Lady Paget is American born, the daughter of Baron Stevens, at one time owner of the Tremont House in Boston. Her husband is General Sir Arthur H. Paget. Lady Paget's benefactions have been remarkable. During the Boer war she equipped a hospital ship and called it the Maine. She made a great collection of furniture of the period of James I. for the Jamestown exposition. She has been extremely popular in British society, particularly in the reign of Edward VII.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

How to Make Raffia Dolls on Stormy Days.

If you have been making raffia baskets or picture frames save some of the leftover pieces of raffia for the children. They can make a whole family of dolls from them.

For a good sized father or mother doll the strips should be about fourteen inches long and plain colored.
Just in the center tie them with a colored bit of raffia. The number of the strips you use will depend upon how fat you want your doll.

Next double the raffia over exactly in two and tie again about an inch from the top. Now you have the doll's head. Tie again at the waist and cut the skirt off evenly at the bottom if it is to be a lady doll.

If it is a man separate the raffia at the waist and tie his trousers at the bottoms.

For arms put a few strands of raf-fia through the body and tie at the wrist and shoulder. Your raffia must be long enough for both arms.

The children of the raffia family will be made the same way, but smaller.

Silver Lace and Pale Blue Silk.

Silver lace and pale blue silk is an effective combination for the debutante, and it is carried out in one model in flounces of silver lace over a skirt of faint blue soiree silk, and underneath is a second skirt of silver cloth. The blue soiree silk bodice is trimmed with bands of silver ribbon and flesh pink tulle in a single airy layer, giving the debutante touch at the shoulder, for the young girl does not wear an entirely sleeveless bodice. Pale pink roses shading to orchid tone are caught against girlish and skirt hem.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE NOTES

President Wilson, last week wrote a letter which will do more to expand the suffrage for women than anything he has done recently to advance the movement. He unhesitatingly urged the formation of a Woman Suffrage Committee in the House saying it would be a "wise act of public policy."

It may be because suffragists naturally are attracted to Liberty that they are so active in placing subscriptions to the Liberty Bonds. The New York State Women's Suffrage Party in one day secured women suffrage subscribers for $410,000 worth of Bonds. Good work for one organization. Women who hold Government War Bonds in large or small amounts, realize their proprietorship in the Government and in the war. We become conscious members of our democracy when we aid it in a material way. Secretary of the Treasury, Mc-Adoo, who is a suffragist, tritely says: "Every man and woman who buys a $50 Bond is performing a service."

Massachusetts suffragists are actively pushing the sale of Liberty Bonds. Mrs. George W. Perkins at the Woman Suffrage Headquarters, 585 Boylston street, Boston, will prepare the necessary application blanks for bond purchasers. This is an opportunity to buy a bond and practically show how suffrage, service and liberty are co-related.

The work of the stay-by-the-job man and woman was not only necessary to Great Britain and France for carrying on the war, it was practically identical. To account one sex, therefore, as entitled to a vote, and the other not, by old-fashioned measurements of service in war-time, has been proved impractical and unscientific.

The same prospect unfolds before the United States. Men needed to till fields and make munitions are to be kept at their jobs. They will be supplemented by women. Can any sane person argue that of two people serving their country, side by side, the one should be taken as a voter and the other left? The selective draft bill, instigated by men, advocated by men and pushed to a conclusion by men is on every count a vindication of the justice of giving woman a vote in war time.

A pleasant side-light upon Miss Jeannette Rankin was given in a speech made at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association the other day by Mrs. Minnie Dwight of Holyoke.

Mrs. Dwight lately visited Washington, D. C., and while there she had a talk with Congressman Treadwell of Massachusetts. He told her that no new Representative in Congress had ever made so fine an impression upon the other members in so short a time as Miss Rankin.

"She is always womanly in everything that she does," he said, "and at the same time she is always the Representative from Montana, perfectly competent for all her Congressional duties. The other members go over to her seat to visit her and consult with her about public measures, just as they do with one another."

"Does she ever go over to visit them?" asked Mrs. Dwight.

"She has had no chance to, as yet," answered Congressman Treadwell,
"for there is always a waiting list of them wanting to talk with her."

JAMES CALLOWHILL

James Callowhill, who was born in Worcester, England, April 18, 1838, and who died last week (June 8) in Newton Centre, Mass., was a distinguished ceramic artist. As a young man he studied art at the South Kensington School, and after graduation there he was for some thirty-one years engaged in art work at the Royal Worcester porcelain works in Worcester.

He was the chief designer and manager of the designing department for many years at the Royal Worcester factory. His great versatility was shown there in the varied styles of work he was engaged in, among these being the Limoges enamels on under-glaze blue, the so-called Raphaels, and the ivory and gold work which he originated.

The first American buyers of his ceramic work were the Richard Briggs Company of Boston, then located in School street. Mr. Callowhill had a successful period of landscape painting in oils, working mostly in North Wales and the south of England. He was then one of a group of several artists in and around Worcester, among these men being Thomas Brock,

R. A., the sculptor, Benjamin W. Leader, R. A., the well known landscape painter, and David Bates, also a landscapist.

In 1886 Mr. Callowhill came to America with his family, consisting of his wife and eight children. The one great work of recent years by which he will be chiefly remembered is the illustrated catalogue of the famous Walters collection of Baltimore. Mr.
Callowhill, assisted by his three sons, made all the watercolor drawings for this remarkable catalogue at the Walters house in Baltimore, where the great collection of Oriental porcelains is installed. The work was published by L. Prang & Co. A copy of this celebrated book is now in the Boston Public Library. The first drawing for the catalogue was made from the famous "peachbloss" vase, and Mr. Walters at once decided after seeing that drawing to have the entire work done. Mr. Callowhill was a constant reader and a collector of rare works of art and books—pictures, coins, engravings and choice furniture. His widow and eight children all survive him, and all were present at his funeral. One of the sons, Sidney T. Callowhill, is a well known and successful ceramic artist, whose porcelain is often to be seen on exhibition at the gallery of the Society of Arts and Crafts.—Boston Transcript.

STYLES FOR CHILDREN.

What Small People Will Wear This Springtime.

The inclination just now is toward the simplest lines, and bloomers are included, as a matter of course, in frocks, not only for the littlest girl, but for her elder sister, who may be almost in her teens.

Chambray, Scotch ginghams, linens, batistes and lawns are the favorite fabrics. Sometimes there is a yoke, to which the material is gathered and held in position by rows of smocking in colored threads. It has taken some time for this form of decoration to become popular in this country. For many years it has been a favorite means of ornamentation in England and, to a less extent, in France.

The type of smock that fastens on either shoulder and is slipped over the head is shown for both little boys and girls. In the garment for the former the smock is cut much shorter than when it is for the girl, and the bloom-ers are not as full as those worn by the latter.

While white remains the only thing considered in connection with the clothes of infants, color has crept into the little dresses, coats and hats of children who have entered their second or third year. Even the standard pale blue and pale pink now have rivals in such shades as maize, old blue and rose. Now and then one meets a light green color or a pale lavender, but on the whole these have not a very large representation in juvenile clothes.

The dress intended for beach wear continues to be made of serge in white, in navy and quite recently in shades of red. The trimming is simple and employs soutache braiding, machine stitching and embroidery motifs.
Sometimes there is no trimming other than the belt and the collars and cuffs of some washable stuff.

The matter of long waist or short waist is one that the mother may decide for her child, according to the former's preference. The very little girls wear yoke dresses, but those who have attained as many as five years or more wear long waisted frocks with a belt. On the whole, perhaps these are preferred, excepting for the party frocks, which has a short waist, very dainty skirt and a sash finish.

Of course there must be a party frocks in every little girl's wardrobe.
They are made of the daintiest fabrics, exquisitely sheer and trimmed with fine laces and embroideries. The effort is to keep away from too much ornamentation. Ribbons are permissible in dainty colors, and usually they are in very narrow widths and manipulated in rosette or choux effect.

The Paisley Vogue.
Negligees have taken up the Paisley vogue, and one can now find Paisley printed children borders or silk medallions in the popular Indian designs.
Challis in printed Paisley patterns is being largely used for negligees and rest robes. Souache braid in frocks and suits is being applied in Paisley patterns, if not in the accepted Paisley colorings. Some suits have stenciled designs outlined with soutache braid, recalling the familiar patterns of the orient.

For Mrs. Newlywed,
Is there a friend who is just starting housekeeping? An addition to the kitchen outfit which would amuse and still find a helpful place is called "a kitchen doll." The foundation is a wooden mixing spoon on the bowl of which eyes, nose and mouth are marked. A dish mop just back of the spoon makes "the mop of hair," a floor cloth the skirt, a wash cloth the apron and a dish cloth the shawl. The price of the "doll" is 65 cents.

CITY HALL

The Forestry Department has been greatly handicapped in its spraying work this season by the rainy weather. The spraying season is only six weeks' duration and it is useless to spray if the rain is likely to wash the solution from the leaves. On pleasant days the department is working 12 and 14 hours in the effort to cover the whole city before the moths have passed the feeding stage.

The workroom of the Newton Branch of the Surgical Dressings Committee, Associates Block, 429 Centre street, will be open every morning except Saturday, throughout the summer. Funds are greatly needed with which to carry on this work of making surgical dressings and hospital supplies for our Allies, and contributions should be sent to Mrs. F. W. Stone, Treasurer, 178 Bellevue street, Newton.

How to Be Happy Though Married.

Domestic happiness does not come as a matter of course, but, like everything else worth having, must be worked for. Don't imagine that because you have won each other you need no longer be affectionate.

Carry over into the wedded life the refinement of manner that characterized your wooing days.

Once in awhile let your husband have the last word. It will please him and be no loss to you.

Husband and wife are one, but it is a parody on unity if each wants to be that one.

A rose strewn on life's path while weary feet are painfully walking over it is more than wreaths for the dead.

Make your home a cabinet room where all the affairs of the household and sometimes of business come under comparison and advisal.

Many a failure would have been avoided if men had consulted with their wives.—Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters.

The "Make Believe" of Flowers.

Cyclamen like to pretend they are cross little animals with their ears laid back, or else that they are little fugitive maidens fleeing very fast across the meadows, with their hair blown back from their lovely faces. Their whimsical trick of play acting like this is all a part of their quaint mirth. They have, of course, other attributes as well—beauty and spirituality and love. Love I feel with flowers particularly. I seem to get hold of that exquisite sense of the whole world's being wrapped in the essence of God's love more often through flowers than through anything else. They are to me indescribably dear, merry little companions. My affection goes out to them constantly in a deep, happy reverence. The reverence is not only for the lovely little things themselves, but also for the wonder that is back of them—an ecstasy of worship.—Atlantic.

Curious Andean Keyholes.

A curiosity of the Andean villages are the doors of the houses, which are hard to open and hard to close, but which, despite the intricacy of the locks, admit the air freely on all sides. Harry A. Franck describes one such door, writing in the Century Magazine of the town of San Pablo, Colombia: "The keyhole was in the shape of a swan. Others in the town and all through Narino have the form of a man, horse, goose and a dozen other ludicrous shapes. These homestead doors of Andean villages never fit easily, and the keys always have some peculiar idiosyncrasy of their own, so that by the time the traveler learns to unlock the door of his lodging without native assistance he is ready to move on."

Skating Advice.

Don't skate very heavily clothed, except in extremely cold weather.

Don't skate until exhausted and overheated and then stop to rest in the cold wind; that means a bad cold, sometimes pneumonia.

When an overcoat is found an incumbrance wear a paper or fiber vest; it will protect the back and chest from the wind.

Don't try to skate in low shoes or buttoned boots.

Don't wear extra high laced shoes and do without straps, if possible, as both hinder the freedom of the ankle and stop circulation.

Always breathe through the nose. It may be difficult at first, but after a little practice it will be easy.

A Goethals Story.

A bonnet of Colonel Goethals is reported from Chicago.

It seems that a Chicago amusement agent sought out Colonel Goethals and besought him to undertake, on the completion of his mammoth task, a lecture tour devoted to the Panama canal.

But the engineer hemmed and hawed. He did not seem overenthusiastic about the lecture tour idea.

"A Panama canal lecture," said the agent, "would go like hot cakes, sir—like hot cakes. We'd illustrate it, of course."

Colonel Goethals gave a wry smile. "What with?" he said. "Slides?"—Washington Star.

Her Compliment.

Balzac had for a neighbor at one time a nobleman of high degree and often used to pay him a visit in the morning clad in the completest negligee. One day Balzac met at his neighbor's the latter's niece and felt bound to excuse himself on the nature of his attire. "Monseigneur," replied the young lady, "when I read your books I did not trouble myself about the binding."

Libeling the Glorious Dead.

Professor Robinson of Princeton says on the lecture platform that Louis XI, robbed the hermits of his subjects. Is the professor aware that a man in Tacoma was sent to jail for libeling George Washington? Louis XI has rights too.—New York World.

Reached His Limit.

"Has your boy Josh completed his education?" "I reckon so," replied Farmer Corn-tassel. "I don't say that he's got all he needs, but I suspect he's got about all he's able to hold."—Washington Star.

Chestnut Wood.

Brewer to keep gasoline on Gibbs street, the N. & W. Gas Light Co. was authorized to open certain streets, locations for 50 poles on Washington street was granted the M. & B. Street Railway Co., the Edison Co. was granted conduits in Maple avenue, and pole locations in Elmwood, Richardson streets, and Hunnewell avenue, and the Telephone Co. underground in Lexington street, and the right to enlarge underground in Webster and Cherry streets.

Hearings were assigned for July 2 on widening Commonwealth avenue at Lexington street, and for sewer in Fenwick road. Street sprinkling was authorized on Dalton road, Monadnock and Dartmouth streets, and a concrete sidewalk ordered on Walnut street, ward 5. Leonard A. Parker was granted Soldiers' relief.

The mayor's appointment of ex-alderman Walter H. Barker as a Sinking Fund Commissioner was unanimously confirmed. Appropriations for $4500 for improvement at the City Home and for $1000 for a new refrigerator at the City Home were recommended.

A number of amendments to the Building Code were submitted by the Rules Committee and Alderman Whidden explained the reasons as they had been presented to the Buildings Commissioner and the Board of Appeal. Some question arose as to the proper construction to be used in case an old building was put to a different use from that first intended and the whole matter went over until the next meeting. Proposed amendments to the ordinances relative to the Accounting Department were recommended on account of minor changes suggested.

A resolution was adopted on motion of Alderman Blake requesting the city's representatives in the Constitutional convention to urge adoption of measures to authorize the regulation of bill boards.

Sawaco road was accepted as a public street, and a select committee authorized to represent the city at the hearings on increase in street railway fares, Aldermen Cole, Blake, and Forknall being appointed.

The board adjourned at 11.15 P. M.

NEWTON SPECIAL AID ACTIVITIES

The Newton Branch of the Special Aid Society for American Preparedness is steadily increasing in numbers and solidarity, and the work at Channing Church continues with interest and vigor under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Moore.

Many women who are leaving for the summer are taking work with them.

Newton will of course care for her own men. On Friday 25 khaki sweaters will be sent to the Battery. 50 pairs of pajamas are soon to be sent to the Chelsea Marine Hospital. The hospitals now are well equipped, and the men well cared for.

Fifty pairs of socks, 50 sweaters and 50 comfort kits will be ready September 1 for the use of the men to be drafted from Newton.

The Special Aid Society desires to help the American Fund for French Wounded to increase its supply of the following articles: Day shirts, Pajamas, French Sleepers Vests, Turkish Towels, Pillow Cases and Comfort Pillows. These last are easily made.

Any size is useful, but 10 1-2 in. x 18 in. is a convenient size. The cover is made of cotton, gingham, cretonne or chintz, and stuffed until comfortable with snips of clean woolen, silk or cotton.

These little pillows make comfortable rests for broken arms and legs on the journey from the battle field to the hospital.

THE STRUGGLES OF LIFE

Winifred Virginia Jordan

When this world seems full of trouble And your hopes turn sober gray; When the dreams that claim'd your longings Turn up toes of sodden clay; When your struggles all turn hardships, And the sobs your body rack, Then 'tis time to stop, for mongrels Must have sneaked in life's glad pack.

Take the potent whip of Reason, Ply it with a vigorous hand, Never minding bitter stinging. It will prove a wholesome friend; Drive out Trouble, never caring, How it snarls of heat and frost, Nor its tales of bitter hunger, Nor the thirst that must be crossed.

Love, a-wing, will bear assistance From the shining, sun-bright skies; Freedom, too, with bold heart singing, Leaves no space for mocking sighs; Soon you'll find your hopes still golden, That your dreams have wings of blue, And, though life may have its struggles, They will hold all Joy for you!

Do You Practice Thrift?

The art of acquiring means consists mainly of thrift. It is in every person's power to practice this art. To try to recount the values of thrift would be to try to enumerate the results of many virtues.

The best start in life that parents can give their children is to teach them thrift. Thrift makes strength. The strong men in any community are men of thrift.

Thrift begins to be acquired when one distinguishes between luxuries and necessities and schools himself to do without luxuries.

Wasting a cent a day wastes $3.65 a year. This would buy the use of almost $50 at 8 per cent interest.

The thrifty man does not have to haunt the free employment bureau or feed his family on mush and milk.

Thriftiness with money means independence of the pawnbroker and the loan shark. Thrift of time enables a man, if he so wishes, to acquire a liberal education.

Policemen in the Spot Light.

At certain street intersections in St. Louis, where traffic officers have frequently been struck by passing automobiles in dark and foggy weather because of their low visibility, they are now protected by searchlights installed on nearby buildings, which clearly reveal their presence to approaching motorists. The lights are of the nitrogen tungsten variety, high powered and mounted in reflectors. Placed at the second or third story of a corner building, they flood with a bright white light the spot where the officer stands. At one street corner in the west end the light is mounted at the top of a seven story hotel. The spot lights were adopted after several other methods had failed.—Popular Mechanics.

Coffee Adamson Makes.

"Adamson of Georgia," a Washington news item says, "is best known because of his eight hour bill." Most widely perhaps, but not best. William Charles Adamson is best known because of the coffee he brews in his private office adjoining his committee room.

No newfangled percolator or drip contraption for him. Coffee boiled in a tin pot, poured into a drinking glass over a lump of sugar, tempered and mellowed with rich cream, served by his smiling "boy," a white haired negro—it is that which makes Bill Adamson best known.—New York Sun.

A Lesson From Joy.

He took Joy home with him, and Joy said, "Where's your fire?" And he told him, "The wind came in and the fire went out." And then Joy said, "Carry sunshine enough about you to warm your heart and hands." And Joy asked him for a fiddle, but he said that it had only one string. But that was enough for Joy, who made the rafters ring with music. And then Joy said: "The fiddle ain't all. If you'll just keep some music in your soul life'll be hallelujah come down all the days of your life."—Atlanta Constitution.

Business Instinct.

Mr. A.—So the Tompkins-Chorkins match is broken off, is it?

Mr. B.—Yes, The Tompkinses objected to Chorkins being so economical.

Mr. A.—You astonish me.

Mr. B.—Yes, You know he is a contractor himself and so sent circulars to all the ministers in town asking for their lowest estimates for performing the ceremony.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Old Railway Cars.

An eastern railroad burns its discarded wooden cars to recover the iron in them. Before the cars are set on fire, however, they are thoroughly inspected, and all the wood available for further use is removed. The iron saved from the destroyed cars is sold as scrap.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Cancer.

As to who are likely to have cancer and what are the signs of its approach a bulletin from the American Society For the Control of Cancer says:

"Cancer patients are often persons who have generally enjoyed good health, have never been seriously ill and who at the time of the onset of the disease were apparently in robust health."

This disease is so insidious in its approach and so often without pain in the first stages that the patient often fails to pay serious attention to the sign of danger. Statistics independently gathered by many surgeons prove that the average cancer patient waits a year or more after observing some suspicious condition before seeking the treatment, which is then often too late. This disastrous delay is the main if not the sole obstacle to the successful treatment of cancer at the present time.

"The only cure for cancer is to remove every trace of the disease. The only sure way to do this is by a surgical operation."

If taken at the beginning the majority of cases of cancer are curable. All cases will end in death if left alone. Records of our best hospitals prove that the chances of cure are very high with early operation and that these chances decrease with every day of delay. Early diagnosis is therefore all important."

NEWTON WAR WORK FUND

The War Work Committee wishes to give a complete report of the amount contributed by Newton people through the Local Committee toward the Y. M. C. A. work among the men of the Army and Navy.

Amount received to date $6480.82
Amount received in pledges 768.00

Total $7248.82
In addition to the amount given above individuals and churches have given enough money to make Newton's contributions to the War Work well over the $10,000 which the Committee started out to raise.

More than 5000 circulars were sent out, the only expense being for printing and postage. The addressing and mailing was done largely by the boys of the Y. M. C. A. The total expense of raising this fund was $179.05. The Local Committee are grateful to all who contributed so generously and to the newspapers which gave large space to our appeal.

A large tent was erected on the lawn where an elaborate supper was served by T. D. Cook of Boston. There was an entrance from the tent to the flower gardens beyond, which were illuminated with incandescent lights and around which were placed seats among the shrubbery affording a delightful retreat for the guests. Handley's Orchestra was also in attendance during the reception and for the dancing which followed, and rendered superb music, introducing snatches of patriotic melodies into the varied program of choice selections. About 9 o'clock the guests assembled in the tent where the Bride's Cake was cut and served by the bride, and all crowded about the table awaiting with expectancy to see who would get the ring. Miss Helene May Priest was the lucky one, while a thimble fell to the lot of one of the gentlemen.

Fruit punch was served in the dining-room and all drank to the health of the happy couple.

The young people left about ten o'clock amid a shower of rose leaves, rice and confetti and as they came down the stairs the orchestra played the Bridal chorus, and the lawn in front of the house was illuminated with red fires which glowed with wondrously pleasing effect, shedding a radiance over the gay scene and lighting the pathway of the departing couple.

Virtually, every one socially prominent in the city, was included among the guests at the wedding and many well known persons from out of town helped to swell the list.

Beautiful gifts of great variety and value were displayed in the guest room on the upper floor. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a platinum pin set with diamonds. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bickford, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newell of

BABCOCK—BROWN

In the presence of hundreds of guests from this city, New York, Boston, Brookline, and Philadelphia, Miss Nellie Lee Brown, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jameson Brown of Newton, was united in marriage on Wednesday evening to Mr. Lewis Henry Babcock, son of Mrs. Anna B. Babcock of Philadelphia, Pa.

The wedding took place at the Brown family residence on Hunnewell Hill, where ideal June weather revealed on lawn and gardens. Artistic floral decorations marked the festive occasion, the rooms on the entire lower floor being opened en suite, and profusely adorned with June flowers, the predominating colors being pink and green.

A large American flag was draped over the front door and two boy scouts were stationed at each of the entrances.

A floral bower arranged at one end of the spacious drawing room was devoted to the ceremony and the decorations which were artistic in the extreme, extended from floor to ceiling taking in the whole corner of the room and lilies combined with pink azaleas, palms, and southern smilax made a most effective background. Tall golden baskets filled with lilies were placed on the center of the room to the entrance joined with festoons of wide satin ribbon, forming an aisle thru which the bridal procession passed.

The window and door casements were festooned with lilies and southern smilax, and on the mantles were large baskets filled with pink roses, pink azaleas, lilies and bridal wreath, and the air was redolent with the perfume of flowers.

Miss Brown who is a prominent member of Newton and Brookline societies, was among the fairest of the June brides, and she has a wide circle of devoted friends who were present in large numbers.

The ceremony was performed at half past seven by Rev. Charles W. Wendte of Newton, and the bridal party descended to the drawing room to the accompanying strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Handley's Orchestra which was placed in the adjoining music room.

Mr. Brown gave his daughter in marriage and she was beautiful as a bride, her natural attractions being enhanced by an exquisite wedding gown of ivory white satin, court train, with drapery of tulle trimmed with rose point lace. Her long filmy veil of tulle was fastened, hood shape, by a row of orange blossoms, and she carried a magnificent shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Harry Dana Priest of Auburndale and Mrs. Robert Sanford Jowett of Watertown as matrons of honor, who looked very handsome in gowns of pink tulle over silver cloth trimmed with gold lace and carried immense bouquets of pink Killarney roses tied with bows of pink tulle.

Miss Helene May Priest, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dana Priest of Auburndale was the maid of honor; she wore a becoming frock of white organdie and carried a basket of pink azaleas, roses, and lilies, tied with pink tulle.

The bride's favors to her attendants were platinum and pearl pins and a blue enamel vanity box to the maid of honor.

The bride groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Walter Babcock of Philadelphia as groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Gardiner of New London, Conn., Mr. Robert Mitchell of Auburndale, Mr. Burton Cary of Winchester, and Mr. Robert Sanford Jowett of Watertown.

The Boy Scouts who assisted were Louis MacLellan, Edward Parkhurst, Otto Wallace and Julius Kohler.

The reception which followed the ceremony was a large and brilliant affair, and Mr. and Mrs. Babcock were assisted in receiving by their parents and their bridal attendants.

Mrs. Brown, the bride's mother was beautifully gown in a white tulle and wide lace embroidered with blue, gold, and old rose combined with old rose ribbon velvet, and fastened with iridescent ornaments, and carried pink roses.

Miss Oakes' gown was a beautiful combination of white satin and chiffon, with tulle and wide lace embroidered in pink and white and matched with a girdle of the same shade of pink, trimmed with filmy lace of a unique design. She carried a bouquet of dark pink Killarney roses. Miss Carr was attractively attired in white georgette crepe trimmed with Venetian point lace and carried Ophelia roses.

During the reception music was furnished by Poole's Orchestra, which also played for the dancing which followed in the gymnasium.

A wedding supper was served in the dining hall which was decorated in the wedding colors, with a large mound of Bride roses centering the table.

There were about 200 guests present representing society from Boston, Brookline, Fall River, Dorchester, Worcester, and the Newtons.

Among the out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Fauver of Middletown, Conn., Miss Lena M. Carr of West Richfield, Ohio, Miss Eva M. Oakes and Mrs. H. W. MacDaniels of Oberlin, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shuey of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Martha Wade, and Mrs. William White and daughter Betty of Waterbury, Conn., Mr. Earl Eldrich of Fall River, Mass., Mr. Charles H. Jewett of Portland, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hume of Fairfield, Maine, Miss Marion Jones of Portland, Maine, the Misses Alice and Daisy Frye of Omaha, Neb., Miss Grace Hague of Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr left on a wedding trip and on their return will reside at 171 College street, Oberlin, Ohio, where they will be at home after October 1st.

True happiness. True happiness rests on contentment and is a state of mind rather than a condition of the body. Blessed is the man who can be content on a slim purse and a ragged coat. But, gosh all hemlock, there ain't no such animal.

CARR—JEWETT

Prominent among the June weddings, was that of Miss Edith Jewett and Mr. Francis Easton Carr of Oberlin, Ohio, which took place Wednesday evening at Newton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. George Franklin Jewett, principal of Mt. Ida School, and Mrs. Jewett, and Mr. Carr is a member of the faculty of Oberlin College.

The reception hall at the school was elaborately decorated for the occasion in a wedding color scheme of pink and green, which was carried out in all of the rooms with potted plants, ferns, palms, and roses.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot Church. The bridal party stood in the Horseshoe in the living room which was decorated as a floral arch with greenery twined artistically about the tall pillars, and ferns, foliage, and pink roses were arranged in baskets on the sides and as a background, giving the effect of a bar of roses.

As the bridal party marched down the broad stairway thru the entrance hall, Mr. Jacques Hoffman, a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra played Wagner's Bridal chorus from Lohengrin on the violin, and during the ceremony he played The Traumerl, Miss Norma Wood of Norton, Mass., a graduate of Mt. Ida, and a classmate of the bride, was the piano accompanist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a beautiful wedding gown of white charmeuse delicately combined with tulle and silver lace. The court train was embroidered to the shoulders, and her long tulle veil was held in place with a cascade of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was a full shower of Bride roses and white sweet peas.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen F. Jewett, as maid of honor, who was most becomingly gowned in silver cloth with over dress of pale green tulle and bodice of iridescent bead trimmings. On the skirt was a wide band of iridescent trimmings, and the overdress was caught on the sides with pink rose buds and silver bows.

She carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses tied with ribbon bows of tulle.

The bridesmaids, Miss Leah Bailey of Newton and Miss Elizabeth Spring, Mt. Ida School, of Roxbury, were very attractively gowned alike in pale pink tulle and tulle with bodice and sleeves of silver lace, and from the shoulders was a winged effect of pink tulle edged with silver, and fastened with clusters of pink moss roses. They carried bouquets of pink sweet peas tied with bows of pink gauze ribbon.

The flower bearer, Elizabeth Fauver, a cousin of the bride, wore a dainty dress of white lace over pink silk, pink slippers, and carried a pink basket filled with pink sweet peas.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Chester H. Yeaton of Richmond, Me., as groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Langdon Coffin of Newton, and Mr. Winfred Boynton of Pepperell, both Tech men, and Mr. Russell T. Williams of Dorchester.

A large reception was held immediately after the ceremony, and in the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom were Mr. and Mrs. Jewett, the bride's parents, of Newton, Miss Lena M. Carr of Richfield, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Eva M. Oakes of Oberlin, Ohio, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Jewett wore a handsome gown of gray tulle and wide lace embroidered in pink and white and matched with a girdle of the same shade of pink, trimmed with filmy lace of a unique design. She carried a bouquet of dark pink Killarney roses. Miss Carr was attractively attired in white georgette crepe trimmed with Venetian point lace and carried Ophelia roses.

During the reception music was furnished by Poole's Orchestra, which also played for the dancing which followed in the gymnasium.

The total subscription of Newton residents to the Liberty Loan, thru Newton banks, amounted to $1,986,850, representing 5868 subscriptions. This does not include any subscriptions by Newton people through banks in Boston, a great many of the business men subscribing to the loan through their Boston banks. A pretty thorough canvass of these shows that between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 more was subscribed by Newtonians through Boston.

The Newton Trust Company had 3849 subscriptions, totaling $1,553,600. This included those received through the Newton Centre Savings Bank. The First National Bank of West Newton, including the West Newton Savings Bank, received $333,250, divided among 1320 subscribers. At the Newton Savings Bank the subscribers numbered about 700 and the amount was $100,000.

NOT TRUE
The report in the Boston papers this week that Mr. Howard Emerson of Newton Centre had been discharged from the camp at Plattsburg for physical disability, is entirely erroneous and does Mr. Emerson a great injustice, as he has not only passed his physical examination but expects his commission as an officer in the very near future.

STREET RAILWAY FARES

Continued Hearing Before Public Service Commission

There was a formidable array of counsel at the continued hearing last Monday morning before the Public Service Commission on the application of the Middlesex & Boston for an increase in rates of fare to seven and eight cents.

Hon. James H. Vahey, a member of the arbitration board which had recently granted the men a substantial increase in wages was the first speaker and said that he felt the Company needed financial relief, altho he had no opinion as to how it should be raised. He believed that the public was getting more for its money under present rates than it should get. The five cent rate he declared was a "retish" in Massachusetts and doesn't do justice to the stockholders. He believed the present management was efficient, honest and economical to the last degree, the overhead charges are remarkably small. He did not believe it fair to the investors to drive the company into a receivership. On cross examination Mr. Vahey said he did not believe it was good judgment for the Company to take over the Newton & Boston road and he didn't approve of payments to the Norumbega Park Co. nor the Holding Company plan. He felt however that the Company ought not to be seriously censured if allowed a small dividend to its stockholders even if the requirements of the depreciation account were not fully met.

General Manager George M. Cox was the next witness and for the rest of the hearing which lasted until five o'clock, was the target of questions from Representative J. Weston Allen, the first of the many lawyers who were anxious to have him explain the mass of detail figures which had been prepared by the Company. The questions were of all sorts, some pertinent to the subject and some which seemed to be a waste of valuable time. The general impression of the cross examination was about as follows: The payrolls of the company had increased from $299,293 in 1911 to $421,150 in 1917. Non-union men were treated the same as union men in the recent adjustment of wages. The Company purchased rising $100,000 of materials the past year, about 21 per cent of its general expenses. It had gone to its scrap pile for repair parts quite frequently the past two years and made an estimated saving thereby of about $4500 in a six months' period. Mr. Cox said that the scrap pile had saved the Company from going out of business for the past twelve months and when counsel tried to make him prove this statement, the Chairman smoothed the matter over by saying that the commission understood Mr. Cox's "figurative language." The estimated deficit of the Company June 30 was about $3000 for the year. No material increase in business was anticipated on account of the discontinuance of railroad trains. Strip tickets were objectionable and every one, in

LAWN PARTY

Successful Affair Last Saturday at Church of Our Lady

A noteworthy event of the past week in Newton, was the Annual Field Day and Reunion of the parish of the Church of Our Lady, which was held Saturday afternoon and evening on the church grounds.

The affair started at 1 o'clock and continued until near midnight, and in the evening brilliant illuminations added to the attractiveness of the scene.

The Waltham Watch Company Band furnished a fine concert during the afternoon and evening, and King's Orchestra was also in attendance with a lively up-to-date program for the dancing.

Three districts in the city were represented and tables arranged attractively, were presided over by the ladies of the parish.

The tables were artistically decorated in the National colors, with red, white and blue bunting, and American flags, and vases of June flowers. Fruit punch was served from large punch-bowls placed in the center of the tables, and ices and refreshments were on sale.

District Number 1 Table was in charge of Miss J. M. Enegess, assisted by the following committee: Miss Mary Darcy, Miss Sarah Leonard, Mrs. James Planagan, Mrs. John F. Gallagher, Mrs. James Gallagher, Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Edward McDonald, Mrs. John D. MacDonald, Mrs. Walter Kearns, Mrs. Nora O'Connor, Mrs. Keough, Mrs. Gaffigan, Mrs. Edward Leahy, Mrs. Margaret Condon, Jeanette Magoley, Mary Coady, Katherine Condon, Margaret Leahy, and Marjorie Enegess, and Mr. John Hickey, Mr. Albert Condon, and Mr. William Enegess.

District Number 2 Table was in charge of Mrs. John Finnegan, assisted by Miss Margaret Vahey, Miss Catherine Nolan, Mrs. Herbert Wheelan, Mrs. Hugh Drew, Mrs. Barney Hannan, Mrs. John Hanlon, Mrs. John Murphy, the Misses Mary Torrey, Catherine Trainor, Lillian Hanlon, Margaret Horther, Helen Quigley, Ruth Fay, Claire Brosnahan, Anna Burke, Louise Burke, Elizabeth Doherty, Catherine Garrity, Ruth Stubbart, Mary Finnegan, Mary Vahey, Nora Vahey, Mildred Shaughnessy, Mary Mills, Mrs. Leslie Torrey, Mrs. Mary Shaughnessy, and Messrs. John Hanlon, John Finnegan, Thomas Delaney, Robert Hanlon, and John Murphy.

District Number 3 Table was under the direction of Mrs. Charles Cody, assisted by Miss Katharine Hewes, Mrs. John Mulligan, Mrs. Stephen Hughes, Mrs. Edward T. O'Halloran, Mrs. David Barry, Mrs. Frank Heilein, Mrs. Martin Murphy, Mrs. John J. Healey, Mrs. Rudy, Mrs. Charles Bryson, Mrs. Patrick Quinn, Mrs. (Continued on page 7)

Mr. Cox's opinion should pay a cash fare. The hearing was postponed until next Monday at 10.30 o'clock.

UNUSUAL TESTIMONIAL

Presented to Mr. Edward K. Hall by Telephone Co. Employees

A testimonial of an unusual character has been presented to our former townsman, Edward Kimball Hall—"E. K." as he has been so familiarly known by his many associates—as a souvenir of the affection of the employees of the New England Telephone Company. As soon as it was known that he was to leave the position of vice-president of the company to go to New York some of the members of the company planned to present to him a book containing the signatures of as many of the employees of the company as could be reached throughout the territory. A letter of regard was composed for the occasion and with leaves of fine paper attached, copies of the letter were sent to every district point in the four states in which the company operates. Clerks in the commercial offices, operators in the central offices, plant men in the field as well as in the district and local offices, accountants, bookkeepers, and auditors, and officials of every denomination signed the sheets, which were finally returned to a central point where they were all gathered into book form. The signatures of 12,000 employees are written in the completed book. A richly illuminated copy of the letter has been bound in the book under a magnificent claret-colored levant morocco cover, with gilt tops, and will be presented to Mr. Hall in a few days. The illumination was done by W. C. Bamburg of Newtonville, a member of the publicity department of the company, and the decoration was in full gold letters and rich colors.

The text of the letter to Mr. Hall is as follows:

"To Edward Kimball Hall, on his resigning from the Vice Presidency of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

"Dear Mr. Hall:

We, employees of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company from all its departments and from every section of its territory, unite in this letter to express, though inadequately, our appreciation of the many services you have rendered not only to the Company but to us through your broad and clear understanding of problems and persons, your cordial sympathy, your frankness without reservations, your constant practical assistances and your many other admirable qualities of mind and heart, and to wish for you in your new duties an ever widening influence and the success and happiness which your past with us so confidently guarantees."

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOLS

Interesting Programs at the Classical, Technical and Vocational High Schools, With 284 Graduates

Vocational High School

A large and enthusiastic audience was present at the graduation exercises of the Newton Vocational High School on Monday evening.

The hall was very attractively decorated with flags and flowers, "Old Glory" being in evidence everywhere. On the platform, palms and potted plants were arranged and the seats were occupied by His Honor Mayor Childs, Rev. Laurens MacLure rector of Grace Church, M. W. Murray principal of the School, Miss Mabel C. Bragg, Assistant Superintendent and members of the School Board.

At the opening of the exercises the students marched in to the accompaniment of music played by Miss Agnes Curtis, violin, Miss Grace Kerivan, cornet and Miss Lassell, pianist. Mr. Kenneth Mann led the march carrying a large U. S. Flag and all saluted the Flag, after which the audience arose and sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. Laurens MacLure offered the prayer.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, under the direction of Professor Walton, instructor of Music in the Newton Schools, sang with very pleasing effect, "To Thee O Country," which was followed by the presentation of the class gift, a Liberty Bond, by Mr. Austin D. Wood the class president, which he said expressed the appreciation of the class for the blessings of Liberty and Democracy.

Principal Murray gave an interesting address on "A Liberty Bond and the Class of 1917." Mr. Murray said that the amount represented by the bond was small, but the spirit means more than larger sums, and more than money, the country needs men and women to serve willingly and unselfishly.

In the absence of the Supt., Mr. U. G. Wheeler, the announcement of the John Eliot Prize Essay was made by Miss Mabel C. Bragg. It was won by Miss Agnes Theresa Mullaney. The title of the Essay was, "Vocation of the Women in Colonial Days."

The musical numbers, "He Who is Upright" by the Boys' Glee Club and "Hail Land of Freedom" by the Girls' Glee Club, were beautifully rendered and gave evidence of excellent musical training.

Principal Murray introduced the last speaker, Hon. Edwin C. Childs, Mayor of Newton, as the friend of the boys and girls of Newton, which he said was the greatest compliment which could be paid to them. The Mayor gave a most earnest and inspiring address to the members of the graduating class, their teachers, parents and friends. He thanked them for suggesting his subject which was "Preparedness," a word we hear so often that we rather apprehend, than comprehend its meaning. Following his address Mayor Childs presented diplomas to the following:

ALLEN-KNAPP

A pretty home wedding took place on Tuesday, June 26th, at the residence of Mr. George B. Knapp on Central street, Auburndale, when Miss Winifred Hunt Knapp, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. George P. Knapp, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward P. Allen, son of Rev. and Mrs. Edward P. Allen of Hancock street, Auburndale.

The house was decorated attractively with Mountain laurel and ferns, and the ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. William C. Gordon, pastor of the Congregational Church.

The bridal party entered to the strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March, played by Miss Grace Knapp of Mt. Holyoke College, and Miss Ruth Lincoln Woodbury.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine and pearl passementerie with old rose point lace, and wore a veil of tulle fastened with a spray of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was white Bride roses and lilies of the valley, with white ribbon streamers.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret W. Knapp of Auburndale as maid of honor, who wore a gown of light blue satin and carried a bouquet of pink rose-buds.

Mr. Harold Allen of Milton, Mass., a brother of the bridegroom was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Albert Hunt, cousin of the bride of Milton Academy, Mr. Frederick Allen, Amherst '16 of Auburndale, Mr. Harold Grout, Brown '14 of East Bridge-water, Mass., and Mr. Addison Knapp, Norwich University '18 of Auburndale.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, and in the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom were the bride's mother, the maid of honor, Mr. George B. Knapp, and Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Allen, parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen left on a wedding trip and on their return will reside at 50 Greenwood street, West Newton, where they will be at home after September 1st.

BENEFIT OF RED CROSS

The Junior Club which has been meeting once a week to work for the Red Cross gave a very successful invitation dancing party at the home of the president, Dorothy R. Fernald on Elmhurst road last Thursday.

Miss Bertha Whitney of Newtonville furnished the music.

Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Fernald were matrons and Suzanne Loizeaux, Eleanor Clark, Natalie Tracy, Emily Blaisdell and Dorothy Fernald acted as ushers.

Small tables and chairs were arranged on the lawn and piazza for games.

A very clever fortune teller in her Oriental costume occupied a booth where she did a rushing business.

Refreshment was served on the lawn. The proceeds of $25 have been given to the Red Cross Fund.

OPEN ALL SUMMER

The workroom of the Newton Branch of the Surgical Dressings Committee, Associates Block, 429 Centre street will be open throughout the summer every morning except Saturday, from 9 until 12:30 o'clock. Contributions with which to purchase materials to continue the work of making surgical dressings and hospital supplies for our Allies are much needed and should be sent to Mrs. Frederic W. Stone, Treasurer, 178 Bellevue street.

CLASS REUNION

One of the enjoyable events of the week was the reunion, last Saturday of the Newton High School class of 1892. The members of the class with their wives and husbands met at the High School in the afternoon, and inspected the school buildings, and the men participated in a scrub game of ball. Dinner was served in the school library, with 70 present. After dinner, the class history and the class prophecy of twenty-five years ago were read and pictures of members of the class were shown, and a roll call held.

The affair was in charge of a committee of which Mr. Harry M. Stonemetz was chairman.

LODGES

Newton Lodge of Elks honored its first Past Exalted Ruler, Alderman Bancroft L. Goodwin, by observing last night as "Goodwin" Night, and there was a large and interested attendance at the Lodge rooms in Eliot Block. After the routine work of the order had been done, an excellent entertainment of music, monologues and dancing was given in the audience hall.

Mr. Goodwin was presented by Mayor Childs, the present Exalted Ruler, with a handsome Elks diamond jewel and to which he fittingly responded. After substantial refreshments were served, players from the Liberty Stock Company, now at Norumbega Park, gave an entertainment which lasted until midnight. Newton Lodge of Elks will be the guests of Norumbega Park next Friday evening.

CITY HALL

Street Commissioner Stuart has received the following bids for building a sewer in Boylston street, Thompsonville, Anthony Baruffaldi, Somerville $8,120.30, M. De Sisto, West Roxbury $8,452.75, Cenedello & Co., Milford $10,698.25, and T. D. Sullivan & Sons Co., Newton Highlands $14,450.50. The board of aldermen expects to adjourn for the summer after the meeting next Monday night.

He attended the Newton Schools and was active in athletics. He was rounding out his fourth enlistment in the U. S. Naval service.

Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters and a brother, Mrs. James Higby of California, Mrs. R. W. Clark of Vermont, and Charles W. King of Waltham, Mass. Services were held at Mansfield on Wednesday afternoon and interment was in the family lot in the Mansfield Cemetery.

We Ask the Attention of Every Reader of This Paper Today

By J. R. HAMILTON

Former Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

Ninety-six per cent of all the people in the United States earn less than $2,000 a year.

Therefore it behooves every one of you to learn to read this paper day by day with two purposes. One, that you may post yourself upon the general news. The other, that you may post yourself upon the advertising news.

The day is past when anyone can afford to overlook this second feature. It is the road to economy in every home. There isn't a day passes when money cannot be saved or when better goods cannot be bought for the same money simply by following carefully the advertising news that is published here.

The reason for this is very simple: advertising is the cheapest, quickest and best method of salesmanship that has yet been found.

Therefore the most progressive merchants advertise. And naturally, when you want the cheapest or the best article of any kind, it is fair to assume that the most progressive men will have it for sale.

Every shrewd merchant advertises in this paper because there are thousands of you readers eager to see his advertising when it appears.

He knows that you are looking for whatever good merchandise news he has to offer. And if any merchant so far discounts your value to him as not to advertise in the paper you read, you can equally well afford to discount his value to you.

If any merchant is so careless as to overlook the great combined purchasing value of thousands of you readers every day, the chances are he is overlooking many a good merchandise value when it comes his turn to go into the markets and buy.

So learn, not only to read the advertising news in this paper every day, but learn also to rely upon it for everything you need.

There isn't one family that cannot reduce its cost of living at any time simply by carefully reading and buying entirely through the advertising pages of this paper day by day.

PIANOFORTE RECITAL

The Pianoforte and Theory Students Association gave its closing recital on Friday evening at the studio on Bowers street, Newtonville.

Miss Helen Douglas, the teacher highly commended the pupils on the progress they have made during the year's work, and in this closing recital they all did so well that it is difficult to say who did the best.

Among those who are worthy of special mention are Miss Auryansen, Miss Barry, Miss Cunningham, Elsa Haase, Harriet Patey, Jennette and Eleanor Martin, Eleanor Tracy, and Eleanor Richmond, whose performance was admirable.

The prizes for the highest averages for the year were awarded to Jeanette Martin and Eleanor Tracy. There were 24 members on the excellent program which contained compositions by the noted composers.

THE CHILDREN'S ANIMAL DREAM

The entertainment by the children of the Sunday School of the Second Church, which was held Friday evening was a great success.
The entertainment hall was filled with a large and enthusiastic audience and long before the curtain rose the young people in the audience impatient to see the young performers, clapped continually.
The stage setting was very pretty, and the little boy and girl who took the leading parts, Everett Upham, Jr., and Constance Upham did wonderfully well. It represented a bedroom scene and the two little children were preparing for bed. Two little cribs were arranged and when the children were ready for bed their mother read them an interesting tale of teddy bears, cats, dogs and birds. Miss Ginevra Harvie represented the mother and her portrayal of the part was splendid.
Miss Eleanor Hartell was excellent in the role of nurse, who put the children to bed.
Then it was that they had this wonderful dream, and the Teddy bears, cats, dogs, a frog, rabbit, squirrel, grasshopper, handsome blue jay and a huge elephant appeared on the scene.
The Teddy Bears were a comical lot and included Chandler Abbott, Priscilla Bacon, Constance Barber, Curtis Church, Everett Putnam and Minot Ross.

There was a fine collection of cats of various kinds and colors and one big black cat "meowed" and climbed in the window. The cats were Norman Dewire, Richmond Eddy, Betty Granger, Ruth Hay, Ruth Holbrook, Eleanor Jack, Elizabeth Moynihan, Ranghilde Nordstrom, Barbara Reed and Lee Woolston, Jr.
The dogs were a frisky lot and did their share of entertaining by barking and growling; they were James Benson, Benjamin Bowen, John Cole, Neale Lovell, William Jepson and Elmer Stimpert.
Charles Benson as the "Frog," leaped about the stage and was very funny, and Roland Patrick as a "Rabbit" was equally funny. Edwin Covell, gave an exceedingly clever imitation of a "squirrel," and Ricco Armento as the "Grasshopper" did some big hopping. Miss Eleanor Macomber was quite the star of the performance as she flitted in as a "Bluejay," and her gay plumage out rivalled that of the feathered jay of the woody dell.
It took Harold Stonemetz and Gould Cook to portray the elephant and they were equal to the occasion and performed well.

The entertainment was very amusing and the children all did splendidly. The playlet was written and arranged by Mrs. Walter S. Redfield, who trained the children for the performance.
CLARK-BREWER
The wedding of Miss Ellen Starr Brewer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Brewer of Newton Lower Falls and Mr. Irving Grinnell Clark of Newton, took place Saturday afternoon at St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls. The ceremony was performed at four o'clock by Rev. John Mattison of Whitman, an uncle of the bride, assisted by the rector, Rev. Francis B. White, the church being decorated with peonies, snowballs and greenery for the occasion.
The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of ivory white satin with entire bodice of old family point Duchesse lace, with court train and veil fastened with orange blossoms. Her maid of honor, Miss Adeline M. Howlett of West Newton was gowned in pink taffeta and silver cloth, with pink hat and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, the Misses Doris Engstrom of Lexington, Leslie Perkins of West Newton, Dorothy Clark, sister of the groom, and Helen Potter of West Newton were in pink taffeta with bronze net over skirt, with pink and bronze maline hats and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas.
Mr. Richard U. Clark, Jr., a brother of the groom, was the best man and the ushers were Messrs. Chester C. Spring of Wellesley, Horace Schermerhorn of Newton, Frederick G. Schaschke of Newtonville and Charles M. Hemenway of Wellesley.
A reception followed the ceremony at the Brewer residence, 2181 Washington street, Newton Lower Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Clark being assisted in receiving their guests by Mr. and Mrs. Richard U. Clark. The house was attractively decorated with white roses, snapdragons and chrysanthemums.

THE GIFTS OF TODAY

Winifred Virginia Jordan
As we go rushing on through days
That give to us their best,
And spread before us sunny ways
That are joy's sweetest feast;
We take not half the sweets they hold
Out to us in each hand;
We wait for some near season's gold
To glorify the land.
We're careless of the rose that bends
Before our very eyes;
We're apt to reach for one that tends
To climp up far-off skies;
And nearly always as we strive
To reach our heart's fair goal,
We're heedless of the way we drive
The thoughts that guard the soul.
'Tis very sweet to see today
The azure in the sky
Why look ahead for roses gay
And pass the violets by?
Why wait for Song's own perfect hour,
And listen not to bees
A-singing to each drowsy flower,
Enthroned on apple trees?
'Tis very sweet to hear the song
That gaily goes your way;
To see the little joys that throng
Where you may chance to stray;
'Tis very sweet to hope and plan,
But greet each blessing sent;
And while the morrow bright you scan—
Miss not today's content!

SPECIAL AID NOTES

The open meeting of the Newton Branch of the Special Aid Society for American Preparedness was held last Friday afternoon in Channing Church parlors, and was characterized by a serious earnestness which speaks well for the dignity and permanence of the organization.
The meeting was opened by Mrs. Harry H. Powers, President of the Newton Branch. The report of the secretary, Mrs. George Owen, was followed by that of the treasurer, Miss Maude Henry, the latter showing the society on a sound financial basis.
Mrs. Edward M. Moore, chairman of the Work Committee, reported a total of 978 articles made during the past four weeks. This is a smaller showing than that of the previous month, largely because many women are leaving for the summer; and also the character of the work is changing, and more time is required to produce a garment which, however, counts only as one.

Mrs. Ralph C. Henry of the Social Service Committee, said the encouragement of Food Production had been their work during the past few weeks, and now it is Food Conservation. The canning will be done by experts. The products will be sold next winter, or given away, as seems wisest.
Mrs. Powers said a call had come for volunteers to go to the camp at Framingham to do mending for the soldiers, a number responding to Mrs. Charles D. Kepner for that purpose. Very efficient work was done which was greatly appreciated by the soldiers.

Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell, chairman of the Aid Society Committee which works in connection with the Newton Public Safety Committee, told of the value of co-ordinating the Aid societies of Newton, and of the great service such a committee could be. She paid a pleasant tribute to the efficiency of Mr. Wm. F. Garcelon in his work on the Public Safety Committee, and emphasized the value of the get-together spirit.

Mrs. H. D. Heathfield, president of the Woman's Friend Society, spoke of the outfitting of the Navy Hospitals at Chelsea and Portsmouth, work that the Red Cross could not do. The hospitals, she said, are nearly full. Help is greatly needed in the Welfare work for the sailors. Anyone wishing to help could contribute to refreshments, costing from $5.00 to $5.00 for an evening's entertainment. $15.00 will provide a professional entertainer. Those unable to knit or to sew could help here.

Chaplain Arthur Stone of the Charlestown Navy Yard was next introduced. He spoke of the monotonous, unnatural life of the young sailors in their camps. He also emphasized what Mrs. Heathfield had already said about the need of entertainment.

He said it would be a valuable service if the boys could be invited to suburban homes for week-ends. The loan of automobiles for the use of convalescents in the hospitals, also, would be much appreciated.
At the close of the meeting, many remained to speak with Chaplain Stone, and to give their names for this form of service.

Mrs. Powers next introduced Miss Elizabeth Norton, daughter of the late Charles Elliot Norton, who gave a graphic picture of the destitution of the small hospitals in remote sections of France away from the firing line.
Having recently returned from a tour of inspection of hospital conditions, she said the situation of the soldiers in these hospitals is sad beyond belief, and the misery extreme.
There is great lack of proper sanitation, and a scarcity of bedding and surgical instruments. Many convalescent soldiers are unable to leave the hospitals for lack of clothing, so great is the destitution of the country.

Miss Norton closed by urging all to work with all their might, and to give to the extent of their ability.
Miss Kendrick of the Vocational High School read a report regarding the free instruction in Canning and Economical Cooking at the school building, and the formation of classes for the purpose. She said the school was willing and anxious to co-operate in every possible way.
The meeting was well attended, many being present from out of town. Among them were Mrs. H. D. Comerai, wife of Capt. Comerai of Co. C. Mrs. Arthur Hosmer of West Newton, Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell of Newton Centre, and Mrs. Harry Dana Priest of Auburndale.

NEWTON GIVES OVER $40,000 FOR RED CROSS

Newton reports $34,561.84 as its contribution to the nation-wide fund of $100,000,000 made for by the Red Cross. This $34,561.84 represents the amount actually in hand as cash at the close of subscription receiving time Tuesday night. At that time reports by committees of cash to be turned in from different sources raised the amount to $43,000 and this morning reports show that Newton's contribution will reach $44,000. The list printed of the contributions of $1000 and over received by the Boston fund for the Red Cross show contributions by Newtonians to over $50,000 so that altogether it is fair to say the people of Newton gave very nearly $100,000 to the fund. The amount to be raised by Newton, as allotted by the general committee, was $20,000.
The amount raised by the Newton chapter of the Red Cross was made up of contributions from more than 2000 individual givers and the amount ranged from bright new ones which children gave to larger sums from those of older growth. West Newton led the different villages of the city with contributions of $11,219 and $450 to follow. Newton gave $9,344, Newton Centre $8000, Newtonville nearly $5000, Auburndale $2800, Waban $2500, Newton Highlands $2279, the Oak Hill district $310. For the purposes of the Red Cross fund Chestnut Hill was regarded as a part of Brookline and not as a part of Newton.

Y. M. C. A.

The local Y. M. C. A. baseball team added another victory to their list last Saturday when they defeated in a highly interesting game which went for ten innings, score 5-4. Next Saturday the team will go to Hyde Park for a game.

THRIFT HINTS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Lots of housewives live where they can't attend lectures on food economy and learn about calories and proteins. So they have to invent their own little dodges for household thrift. One of them, since she has begun work for the war, has sent in these notes:
Save paper and string. If you live in the city, carry home your own parcels when you can, thereby saving the machinery of trade.
Stamp out waste in the household. Set up a stock bottle if you haven't already, and pop into it waste bits, bones, tough scraps of meat, the coarse parts of vegetables, bits of bread.

Never boil peas in water and throw the water away. Steam them dry in a double boiler and preserve all their strength. There is a flat double boiler measuring perhaps 12 inches across, something like a chafing dish—that does this admirably.
Bake carrots in casserole with a little water, butter and milk. So you keep their juices.
Do not throw away the outer leaves and stump of lettuce. Put them into the stock kettle or the greens.
Delicious greens are a mixture of "puddy" milkweed tips, mustard and pigweed.

Have you chard in your garden and New Zealand spinach? You can keep cutting them all summer, for greens. Here is what we have been giving the Belgians to live on:
Flour, 10 ounces, or bread, 12 ounces.
Rice, 1-2 ounces.
Dried peas or beans, 2-3 ounces.
Sugar, 1-3 ounce.
Bacon or lard, 1 ounce.
Salt and coffee (mostly chicken) amounting to another ounce.
This is a day's food for one person. It is all some Belgians get, except the little garden stuff that they can raise in the little land there is left them. This ration costs seven cents a day. Families have been living on it for nearly three years.

Meantime, it has cost the people of these United States, to supply this food, just three-tenths of one per cent. of the national liquor bill during the same period. Three cents spent on Belgium for each ten dollars spent on booze!

Don't fuss if flour does soar in price. There are plenty of other grains—corn and rye and rice—and some of them will stay reasonably cheap. Moreover, they are just as nutritious as white flour. Half the people in the world never eat wheat flour and wouldn't know a loaf of bread if they saw it. Half the rest eat mostly rye and corn. And they all live through it. So also can we. Don't waste a bit of fat! What cannot be eaten can be made into nitroglycerine.
In fact all dynamite and nitroglycerine are made from fat. That is why, even at the beginning of the war the Germans felt the pinch first in a lack of fat in their food.

The animal fats are bound to be scarce, therefore, to use the vegetable fats and oils instead. If you don't like cotton seed oil, which is not only cheap, but one of the most nutritious substances known, there are excellent brands of corn oil on the market and excellent forms of butter made from nut oils. Peanut butter mixed half and half with any cooking fat is a great deal better than nothing. Moreover, in proportion to its nutriment, it is one of the cheapest of all foods.

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE'S VALET HAS A HARD LIFE

Friday and Saturday at Opera House

It's a hard life for "Fatty" Arbuckle's valet. Perhaps you did not know he had one. Which shows conclusively how little the average film appreciates the complexities of a comedian's existence.
Ordinarily, the handsome hero of the parlor drama is supposed to monopolize all of the masculine sartorial successes of the stage and screen. His costumes are the latest thing from Paris or London. His haberdashery is above reproach and three or four tailors are continually busy keeping his wardrobe in order. But now Mr. Arbuckle is to be heard from on the subject of clothes. Audiences who have become familiar with the work of the genial comedian consider his costuming a minor consideration and pass his wardrobe by with the comment that it seems to have been built for comfort and not with an eye to fashionable cut. This is not borne out by the fact, however.
The valet of the genial Mr. Arbuckle is sponsor for the statement that the jovial film maker has the most complete and up-to-date "rube" wardrobe of any actor now in the public eye, and that he is unqualifiedly the Beau Brummel of slap-stick comedy. According to the same authority, Mr. Arbuckle in his provincial make-up has a keen eye for color. He would no more consider wearing a pale pink shirt with a pair of lavender socks than he would think of acting like a matinee idol in the role of the clerk of a country store.

Owing to the generosity of the Arbuckle dimensions and the vicissitudes of his screen career in which he is of necessity hard on his clothes it requires the greatest attention to detail to keep his wardrobe in working order. During the filming of "The Reckless Romeo" the comedy two-reeler scheduled to follow "The Bachelor Boy" on May 21st, the valet was compelled to work far into the night repairing the damage done to the Arbuckle habiliments while "Fatty" was posing before the camera in Palisades Park. Paramount will release this feature to all exhibitors.
Statistics prove that "Fatty" has eight trunks of new costumes in the roomy closet which adjoins his dressing room at the studios of the Comique Film Corporation, 318 E. 48th St. And he dares any prima donna or grand opera star to prove that she can better those figures. Part of this array will be revealed in "The Reckless Romeo" and the remainder will be seen in future productions to be made under the Arbuckle standard.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coward of Newton Upper Falls, announced the engagement of their daughter, Beulah Elizabeth to Mr. Clarence Douglas Breese of Dorchester, at a dinner given by Mrs. Coward's brother and sister, Mr. A. D. Locke, and Miss L. E. Locke at their summer place, Sirromekool Lodge, in Bethlehem, N. H. Miss Coward for the past two years has attended Lasell. Her father is one of the pioneers, and prominent in the automobile industry. Mr. Breese is a graduate of the class of '16 at the Salem State Normal, and is a member of the Kappa Delta Phi Fraternity. He is one of the faculty of Huntington School.

CALIBAN

A Community Drama by Percy Mackaye; music by Arthur Farwell; produced by Frederick Stanhope.

Several thousand Greater Boston people in cast, headed by Lionel Braham with other eminent stars.

BENEFIT METROPOLITAN CHAPTER, RED CROSS, AND RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS AT HARVARD

Harvard Stadium, Evenings, 8.30—July 2—July 14

All Newton will want to see this wonderful, thrilling, and inspiring dramatic and musical spectacle. The most perfect open-air theatre, the greatest out-door stage, the most stupendous production, make "Caliban" something unforgettable. All seats are good. You can both see and hear.

TICKETS: Reserved Seats 50 cents to $2.50, at 415 Boylston St.; at 78 Boylston St. (Little Bldg.); Room 10, 50 State St., and at booths in North and South Stations; also at Burke's, Herrick's, Tyson's, and Leavitt & Pierce's.

We have made two great hurdles! The Liberty Loan was oversubscribed. The National Red Cross fund was oversubscribed. Now let us have a patriotic pleasure, celebrate those successes, and at the same time aid the Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross and the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

Help us make this a great success. Buy tickets early.

DEATH OF MR. THORNE

Mr. George Stewart Thorne, a resident of this city for the past six years, died quite suddenly last Saturday at his home on Fairview street. Mr. Thorne was the New England manager of W. P. Willis & Co., woolen importers of New York, a firm whose employ he entered when 19 years of age, and with whom he spent all his business life.

He was born in New York and is survived by a widow.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure, rector of Grace Church officiating, and the interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery, New York, on Wednesday.

At the Show Rooms of McKenney and Waterbury Co., Franklin street corner Congress are on exhibition the grandest display of Electric and Gas Fixtures, all lighted to show desired effect, to meet any requirements for homes and public buildings.

Classical High School

The graduation exercises of the class of 1917, Classical High school, were held Wednesday afternoon, in the assembly hall, which was completely filled with the relatives and friends of the class. The program included prayer by Rev. Dr. E. W. Hunt of the Baptist church, Newton Centre, singing by the class, the class oration by Francis Russell Simpson, on "America's Duty to France," a class history by Miss Elizabeth C. Carter, piano solo by Miss Olivia Cate, a poem "The Palace of Life" by Miss Marjorie Howland, a poem "The Spark Divine" by Miss Winifred M. Dodge, the valedictorian, singing of the class hymn, the words of which were by Miss Leslie C. Perkins and the music by Hubert G. Ripley Jr., presentation of diplomas by Mayor Childs and the singing of America in closing. There were two unusual features, the first, the presentation of the class gift of a stand of national and state colors to the school, being most impressive. The colors were brought to the stage, and placed in sockets at the right and left of the arch, while William V. M. Fawcett made the presentation address. This was followed by the salute to the flag by the class and audience, the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, and the acceptance of the flags by Principal Enoch C. Adams.

The second feature of the afternoon was the greetings of the class of 1917, given by Miss Bessie M. Tower. After the benediction the class gave rousing cheers for the mayor, the various members of the faculty, and the class of 1918.

The young ladies of the graduating class were simply dressed in white shirt waists and skirts the usual elaborate graduation dresses being omitted.

The graduating class were the guests of the class of 1918 immediately after the formal exercises, ice cream and cake being served. The class party was held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Harry F. Stimpson, on Hammond street, Chestnut Hill. The entertainment consisted of a patriotic solo dance by Miss Eleanor Edwards, the class statistics by Leverett S. Woodworth, humorous sketches by Gerald Henderson and Miss Elizabeth Carter, Scottish songs by William Fawcett, the class prophecy by Miss Mary Harrington and dancing.

The class officers are John B. Starkweather, president; Paul Nash, vice president; Mary West, secretary and Gerald Henderson, treasurer.

Technical High School

The graduation exercises of the Technical High School were held in the assembly hall of its building on Wednesday evening. The program included prayer by Rev. Rufus H. Dix of the Universalist Church, singing by the Girls' and Boys' Glee clubs, a corallo by Miss Grace Kerivan, an address to the class by Mr. Frank P. Speare, president of Northeastern College, presentation of the class gift and the distribution of diplomas by Mayor Edwin O. Childs.

The class gift of two bookcases for the library and 150 books was presented by Joseph J. Murphy, president of the class.

Langworthy, C. F. and Hunt, C. L. Economical use of meat in the home. Measurements for the household.

The Journal of Home Economics is published monthly for those interested in home-making, institution management, and educational work in Home Economics.

The Library has considerable material containing plans for menu-making which should help the housewife meet the present emergency, and from one of the pamphlets we glean the following suggestions:

1. Plan menus for an entire day rather than consider each separately.

2. Use soups, salads and escalloped dishes more freely. This is a good way to use left-overs.

3. "One piece dishes" such as stews and chowders are economical.

4. Steam vegetables or cook them with skins on in a small amount of water. Do not throw away water in which vegetables are cooked. Put this in soup kettle.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

It was with pleasure that I read in your last week's issue of the "Graphic" that strong opposition has been started against the Edison Company on their overhead wiring, as destructive to trees and danger to human lives, and it is about time that some decisive action should be taken to remove our beautiful trees, which we are so proud of, are destroyed by high tension electric wires.

Some five or six years ago, a petition to the Mayor and Aldermen, signed by every property holder on Otis street, West Newton, (Ward 3) was submitted urging that action be taken to oblige the Edison Company to remove their poles on this street and place their wires underground, as they had already killed two or three of the large trees and injured several others, but no notice was taken of it, not even an acknowledgement was made to the signers and I was informed at the time that the petition was not laid before the Board of Aldermen.

I am very glad that this important subject is being agitated, and that some good may come from it.

Our beautiful City of Newton, properly called "The Garden City," should be protected against the ruthlessness of a big corporation.

FRED P. BARNES.

THE PLAYERS

The annual meeting of The Players was celebrated on the stage of Players Hall Tuesday evening, when the active members met for a buffet supper. On similar occasions in the past, the members have been entertained at the Brass Burn Country Club, so the novelty of this affair added to the enjoyment of all present who, many times before, have met on the same spot for the good hard work of rehearsals during the preparation of the plays already given.

After the last course was served, the meeting came to order and listened to the reading of reports. Many valuable hints and suggestions were brought forward by different members during the discussion of the work to be undertaken for the following year.

MR. PULSIFER DEAD

President of Newton Savings Bank Nearly 20 Years

Mr. Charles T. Pulsifer, for nearly twenty years president of the Newton Savings Bank, died early Saturday morning at his home on Newtonville avenue, Newtonville, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Pulsifer was born in Brookline, December 29, 1914, but has lived nearly all his life in this city and has taken a prominent part in its affairs. For many years he was engaged in the paper trade of Boston and at various times was a member of the following firms, Carter Bros., Carter Bros. and Pulsifer, Pulsifer, Jordan and Wilson Pulsifer, Jordan and Pfaff and Pulsifer, Cook & Co. In 1892 he was elected a trustee of the Newton Savings Bank and succeeded the late J. F. C. Hyde, as president in 1898.

He was twice married, his first wife, Miss Ella Frances Rowell of Manchester, N. H., passing away in Dresden, Germany in 1887 and his second wife, Miss Elizabeth Sherman of New Bedford surviving him. He leaves, also, a son and a daughter by his first wife, Mr. Walter H. Pulsifer of Newtonville and Mrs. Mason B. Whittemore of Newton Centre.

Mr. Pulsifer was a charter member of the Newton Club of Fraternity Lodge of Masons and a member of Newton Royal Arch Chapter and Gethsemane Commandery, K.T.

The funeral services on Tuesday afternoon at his late home were largely attended and were in charge of Rev. A. J. Muste, pastor of the Central Church of Newtonville. The honorary pall bearers were Col. Chas. Pfaff, Hon. G. Fred Simpson, Judge William F. Bacon, William F. Harbach, Francis Murdoch, Hon. Henry E. Bothfeld, Frank A. Mason, Edward F. Jackson of St. Louis, Mo., and President Bernard Early of the Newton board of aldermen. The interment was in the Newton Cemetery.

And said petitioners are hereby directed to cause you to be notified of the time and place appointed for the hearing of said complaint, by serving said Mary Ann McSweeney and said Massachusetts Commission on Mental Diseases, with a copy of this order, seven days at least before said Court; and by mailing to said heirs apparent or presumptive at the last known post office address of each, a copy of the same, thirty days at least before said Court, or instead of said mailing, by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-eighth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

PIANOFORTE AND VIOLIN RECITAL AT THE NEWTON CLUB

Tuesday evening parents and friends enjoyed a recital given by the pianoforte pupils of Mrs. Carolyn R. Luard and the violin, pupils of Miss Julia Pickard.

The pupils rendered their selections in a very pleasing manner.

The Misses Mary Dunning, Alice Allen, Ruth Farrington, Janette Frink, Katherine Kimball, Marjorie Newell, Louise Knowlton, Lavinia Smith, Grace Pierpont, Betty Boutell, and Jack Smyth, Sidney Ussher, Edwin Dewing, Stillman Drury, Irving Farnham, Wayne Conner, and Thorndyke Luard.

AUTO ACCIDENT

In a collision which took place Sunday evening at the junction of Commonwealth avenue and Rowe street, Auburndale, between the automobile of Fred Nichols of Roxbury and a cycle side car of Andrew Johnson of Easthampton, Miss Victor of Easthampton, a passenger in the side car was severely bruised and was taken to the Newton Hospital.

As the auto turned off the avenue into Rowe street, the motorcycle crashed into its side, throwing Mr. Johnson and Miss Victor violently to the ground and badly demolishing the motorcycle. Mr. Johnson was practically unhurt.

ATKINSON-HAMILTON

A charming June wedding took place on Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton on Victoria Circle, Newton Centre, when her daughter, Miss Dorothy Dean Hamilton, became the bride of Mr. Leon Graham Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Atkinson of Newtonville.

The ceremony was performed at half after eight, by Rev. Peter Black, pastor of the Newtonville Methodist Church. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Warren M. Tapley of Newtonville, and wore a very beautiful wedding gown of ivory white satin trimmed with duchess lace. Her tulle veil was fastened, cap effect with a spray of orange blossoms, and her bridal bouquet was a full shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Emily Proctor, of Newtonville, the maid of honor was very attractive in a gown of blue satin and carried pink roses.

The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. George Wells of Winchester, as groomsmen and the ushers were Mr. William Bowling and Mr. Daniel Hamilton brother of the bride, both of Brookline.

The floral decorations were most artistic and an alcove in the reception room which was banked with palms, pink roses and maiden hair fern, was devoted to the ceremony.

Handley's Orchestra played the Bridal chorus as the wedding party assembled, and also furnished a delightful program during the ceremony which followed.

In the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom, were Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, and the bride's mother, Mrs. Hamilton. The latter was handsomely gowned in pink satin with rose point lace and carried pink sweet peas, and Mrs. Atkinson wore an effective gown of white silk, combined with lavender and pale green, and carried pink sweet peas.

In the dining room, where a wedding supper was served by Besse of Boston, the decorative scheme was pink, and was carried out with pink roses and pink shaded candles. A mound of pink roses was arranged as a centre piece. Fruit punch was served in the sun parlor which was enclosed and lighted for the occasion.

Guests of social prominence numbering 150 were present from New York, Providence, Marblehead, Woods Hole, New Bedford, Brookline, Winthrop, Cambridge, and the Newtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson have gone on an extended motor trip thru New York state and on their return will reside at 35 Victoria Circle.

GOOD WORK BEING DONE

Members of the Food Committee of the Newton Public Safety Committee made a tour of inspection of the school gardens throughout the city recently, when it was found that the gardens were most creditable to Mr. McDonald, the supervisor, his assistants, teachers and pupils of the various schools.

It was most apparent that the school garden work is worth while, not only for what has been accomplished in the gardens themselves but because of the knowledge and interest acquired by the pupils which they can also apply to home gardens.

The committee also inspected the camp in Weston, where 25 high school boys are doing work in farms of that vicinity, under the direction of Mr. Martin. The boys have a most attractive camp site, together with excellent spring water and healthy conditions including shower baths. All the boys express satisfaction with their work and the committee was pleased to learn from the manager of the farm where most of them work that he is entirely satisfied with the work and conduct of his boy helpers.

Those making up the party conducting the inspection were Mr. William M. Flanders, chairman of the committee, Mr. Seward W. Jones, Miss Maida Flanders, Mrs. A. T. Vigoles, Mr. H. W. Orr, Mr. E. P. Hatch, Pres. Bernard Early of the board of aldermen, Mr. J. B. Jamieson, Mr. F. H. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tucker, Dr. George L. West and Mr. Howard Whitmore.

The Executive committee paid a visit yesterday afternoon to the Dean Camp at Weston. The camp and its surroundings were inspected and dinner was enjoyed with the twenty odd boys who are living there. After dinner, Mr. William M. Flanders presented the camp with an American flag.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Flanders, Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Hon. Seward W. Jones, General and Mrs. James G. White, James Richard Carter, William J. Doherty, Augustus T. Beatey, E. P. Hatch, J. D. Howard, Mrs. S. H. Mitchell, Miss Flanders, Dr. Francis George Curtis, I. O. Palmer, and M. W. Murray.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE NOTES

"Equal pay for equal work" will be adopted by Washington business men, with reference to the women who take the places of men called to military duty. This assurance has come to the National American Woman Suffrage Association from the Washington Chamber of Commerce, among others, in reply to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt's recent appeal to 500 Chambers of Commerce for protection of women workers against war time industrial dangers of long hours and under pay. In her letter, Mrs. Catt urged "that work performed, not the sex of the worker, should determine the rate of pay," and called attention to the injury to industrial standards resulting from the competition of low paid women labor. "Through our state and local organizations all over the country and our special committees appointed for the purpose," she continues, "we shall do our utmost to induce women to hold to the proper standards of help and economic well-being." Favorable action has been taken by a number of other Chambers of Commerce over the country.

Reports of the good work that the New York women are doing in preparation for the fall campaign are constantly coming to Massachusetts Headquarters. The last piece of news is that the Nassau County Woman Suffrage party has been entrusted with the work of taking the war census in Nassau because of their efficient organization. Frank L. Crocker, chairman of the Nassau County Defence Committee says:

"It would take men at least ten days, and probably longer, to ship into shape a system for the work. The suffrage party has this section so mapped out that there is a competent staff ready at a moment's notice. And the fact that they will do the work without cost to the state is a factor. The work of taking the census is highly important to the suffragists, and will undoubtedly have a great influence on the election next fall."

If the women's votes were so influential in the last presidential election, even when we had fewer States, how much more powerful they will be in the next! This makes the pressure upon Congress for the Federal Amendment ten-fold stronger. Women will have to be enfranchised, and neither party can afford to let the other fellow do it."

It took the crying need of eleven nations at war to bring women's war service to public attention as a national asset. Against the waste involved in such governmental obtuseness and slowness, American suffragists protest as America enters upon the work of Women recognizing swiftly that such waste is an inevitable concomitant of women's political disability. Excluding woman from political recognition, putting her in a political class with criminals and imbeciles, excludes governmental recognition of her economic and professional capacity. Learning to think of her cheaply as a political asset, the Government inevitably thinks of her cheaply as an economic asset.

Suffragists have in no way conditioned their offer of service to the Nation. Nor will they. But the question is, since this country is going to need women in all the capacities expected of voting citizens, why does not the Government strengthen that efficiency as rapidly as possible by making women politically responsible? Why does it not do it for its own sake? When all inhibition of power may be of serious consequence to national efficiency in a time of great need, why does not America take steps to avoid the delay of the other great nations in the political recognition of women?

Why does she not do it for America's sake?

WOMEN ASSOCIATES

Newton Highlands is to be congratulated on its response to the news of the Women Associates.

At the regular meeting held Tuesday morning reports were given which showed that the sum cleared at the Flag Festival would be not less than $790.00. This proves what Newton Highlands can do when every body helps as that was noticeably the spirit of the affair from start to finish. Beside the sum raised at the Festival the women of the Highlands have already given $960.00 in membership fees, monthly pledges, and contributions. This would seem to be a large amount of money and surely does do credit to the generosity of Newton Highlands, but it is to be remembered that materials are very expensive and that the large amount of work already done and the demands of the future make the raising of large sums imperative.

This record of articles already completed, many of them in actual use, shows that not only money, but time, has been freely given.

216 sweaters, 545 pillows, 80 pr. wristers, 83 surgical shirts, 156 pr. socks, 50 surgical sponges, 124 helmets, 5 surgical pillows, 10 mufflers, 58 sets pajamas, 48 cotton mitts, 42 convalescent robes, 7 eye and ear bandages, 19 tray cloths, 32 treasure bags, 50 rifle cases, 50 1-2 dozen handkerchiefs.

The needs will increase as the war progresses. Is it too much to hope that each woman in Newton Highlands will identify herself with this work? The payment of twenty-five cents makes a woman or girl a member. Meetings will be held throughout the summer at the new Hyde School, where materials to work on will be furnished.

Contributions of clean old cloth of any description can be used to advantage, white cloth being especially desirable.

DEATH OF MR. KEHOE

Henry E. Kehoe, a painter for many years employed by J. T. Bailey of West Newton, died at his home, 266 Adams street, Newton, on Wednesday, June 20th, after an illness of four months. He leaves a widow and six children, and one sister, Miss Margaret Kehoe. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at the Church of Our Lady on Saturday morning with Rev. Father Slattery as the celebrant, and the interment at Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

THE NEWEST.

Topcoat For the Small Girl Who Sheds Her Old One.

DELIGHTED WITH IT.

Serviceable navy blue gaberdine affords daughter this smart spring coat, cut with a kilt skirt and double breasted front. Natty white and blue buttons add almost as much trimming as does the white cloth collar all picked around the edge.

A FESTIVE IDEA.

This Fetching Way of Arranging Your Dining Table.

It is a new idea now among observant housewives to have, instead of the round or square luncheon cloth, one long runner for the square or oblong table, with enough large and small doilies matching it to fill in along the sides. Of course both ends of the table are covered by the runner, an excellent idea when part of the meal is served from the table instead of from the "side."

While this arrangement is especially appropriate for the oblong table, it can be used for the square, oval or round table with some modification. In the square table the symmetry is often better preserved by two runners crossing in the middle. In the oval or round table the ugly line where the runner falls over the rounded edge is done away with by cutting the runner, rounding the edge to fit the table and setting on the end to fit with a fine seam or a bit of beading. This arrangement means that the runner could be used only for the one size of table, but it is worth the trouble.

Square hemstitched doilies with a simple corner motif are used with the plain hemstitched runner. It is a good plan to make plate doilies and napkins of the same size and decoration, so that if one gives out the other may come to the rescue. A large doily for the plate will do away with an extra tumbler or teacup doily.

ABOUT CAKE BAKING.

How to Prepare and Bake All Kinds of Good Sweetmeats.

Where do you set your loaf cakes and what place in your own oven do you give to muffins and small cakes? From your answer your success would be gauged by a scientific baker.

Thin layer cakes, cookies, biscuits, macaroons and other small cakes should always be baked in shallow pans set at the top of the oven. This gives the heat a chance to circulate around the cookies rather than concentrate under them.

Loaf cakes bake more evenly in sheet tin or aluminum pans than in iron pans. The shelf in the center of the oven is right for loaf cakes, and no cake should ever be set on the bottom of the oven.

It is a good idea to start sponge cake and loaf cake in a very slow oven and then increase the heat as the cake starts to rise. About ten minutes before the cake should be done the gas can be turned off entirely as there is sufficient heat left in the oven to finish the baking. Whenever it seems desirable to reduce the heat it is better to turn down both burners halfway rather than to turn one out completely.

Keeping Attractive.

An important step in keeping attractive is to see that your neckwear and accessories are fresh. Always put your hat and veil on with care. Choose the most becoming colors for your gowns and suits. The well groomed woman has the advantage over her sister who is untidy. The knowledge gives her self confidence, and with self confidence rightly gained one can accomplish anything.

Westerly Granite, Marble and Slate

A work of art may be defined as that object whose appeal stirs in any observer a chord responsive to truth or beauty. Probably the greatest work of art is that which makes its appeal to the greatest number of people.

The work of the Henry Murray Company graphically represents truth in the meaning of its motifs, and beauty in the development of its designs.

DEDICATES WINDOW

On Sunday morning, at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, the rector of the church, dedicated a new window, the gift of an anonymous donor, and installed at a cost of $600. It is 15th century English, that period when the gothic glass workers reached their highest standard of excellence. It was designed and executed by W. E. Roberts under the supervision of Robert Casson of Irving & Casson. Its subject is "Praise," and it took its motive from the singing angels with the musical scroll of the hymn boards.

The lower tier of panels is arranged from the Te Deum, and the upper row of larger panels represents the life of Christ, the motive of praise. The four in the middle of the tier are the Annunciation, the Nativity, the Wandering Shepherds and Christ in the Temple. The two end panels represent the blessed ministry of the Saviour; Blessing the Children and Healing the Sick. Above, on either side, arise the angels, singing praises and anthems to Him who, in glistening white, is enthroned as the Saviour bidding to come unto Him the weary and the laden.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

A very successful concert and dance was held Thursday evening in the State Armory at West Newton, for the benefit of Company C, 5th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia.

A splendid program of popular dance music was furnished by Guinlan's Orchestra, and there were about 300 dancers present.

Among the many interesting features of the dance was an exhibition drill given by Company C of the 5th Regiment.

A purse of $130 was presented to Captain Cormerais by the Committee, the chairman making the presentation speech and the Captain responded most graciously.

The young ladies who served on the committee were Miss Mary O'Brien, Miss Helen Waitt, and Miss Ethel Donald.

NEWTON DOLLAR FUND.

Secretary H. H. Wilcox of the Newton Dollar Fund reports that the total receipts amounted to $2,200, of which $1,979 has been paid to the American Fund for the French Wounded.

A new fund has been started to be known as the Plattsburg Fund, the income of which will come from the sale of books on the war, to be obtained from Mrs. George H. Mellen of Newton Highlands, and Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden of Newtonville, and will be used for the purchase of supplies for Newton Relief organizations.

This fund now amounts to $299.31, of which $94.75 has been given to the Belgian Relief Fund, $141.60 to the Newton South Allies Relief Fund, and $50 to the War Relief Clearing House.
